ATome one Book-keeper's, Shop-keeper's, or chief Coffeehouse in most Cities and great Towns in Great Britain, is sold at 1 s. a Bottle, Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir: Now famous throughout Europe, for the Stomach and Blood, as is described in the Bills with it, prepared only by him. Apothecary, at the Unicorn in Southwark, for forth 19 Years. It makes the best Purl in Beer or Ale, Paul Royal in Sack, and the bitter Draught in a Mixture, being the best and most pleasant Bitter in the World; now drunk by most Gentlemen in their Wine instead of any other, Wormwood being to hor and drying, thickens the Blood, dulls the Brain, and weakens the sight. This Elixir is well known to recover and restore a weakened Stomach, or lost Appetite, (beyond any thing that ever was taken) occasioned by hard Drinking or Sicknets, &c. and certainly carries off the effects of bad Wine. Where it is not yet sold any Person who tends first may have it to sell again with good Allowance, many now selling 50 or 60 Dozen a Year, to the more. None will be let without ready Money.
