NATIONAL INSURANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of the reference of a Question relating to Invalid Care Allowance

The National Insurance Advisory Committee give notice that the Secretary of State for Social Services has asked the Committee, in accordance with section 138 (3) of the Social Security Act 1975, to advise on the possible extension of invalid care allowance to non-relatives and in particular to men who care for invalid women to whom they are not married but with whom they are living as husband and wife.

The Committee will take into consideration any representations made on this question, received by them not later than 12th June 1979. Representations should be made in writing and sent to the Secretary, National Insurance Advisory Committee, Alexander Fleming House, Elephant and Castle, London SE1 6BY, together with a prepaid envelope.

D. S. Lees, Chairman

13th March 1979.

NOTE. Invalid Care Allowance, worth £11.70 a week, is payable to men and single women of working age who cannot work because they have to stay at home to look after a severely disabled relative who is getting attendance allowance.
