

At the Court at
Buckingham Palace the 13th day of February 1980
Present,

THE QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Representation duly made to Her Majesty in Council by the Secretary of State for the Environment that burials should be discontinued as hereinafter directed in St. Martin's Churchyard, Cheriton, in the County of Kent, has in pursuance of an Order in Council made the 19th day of December 1979, and duly published, been taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the Burial Act 1853(a), and of all other powers Her enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

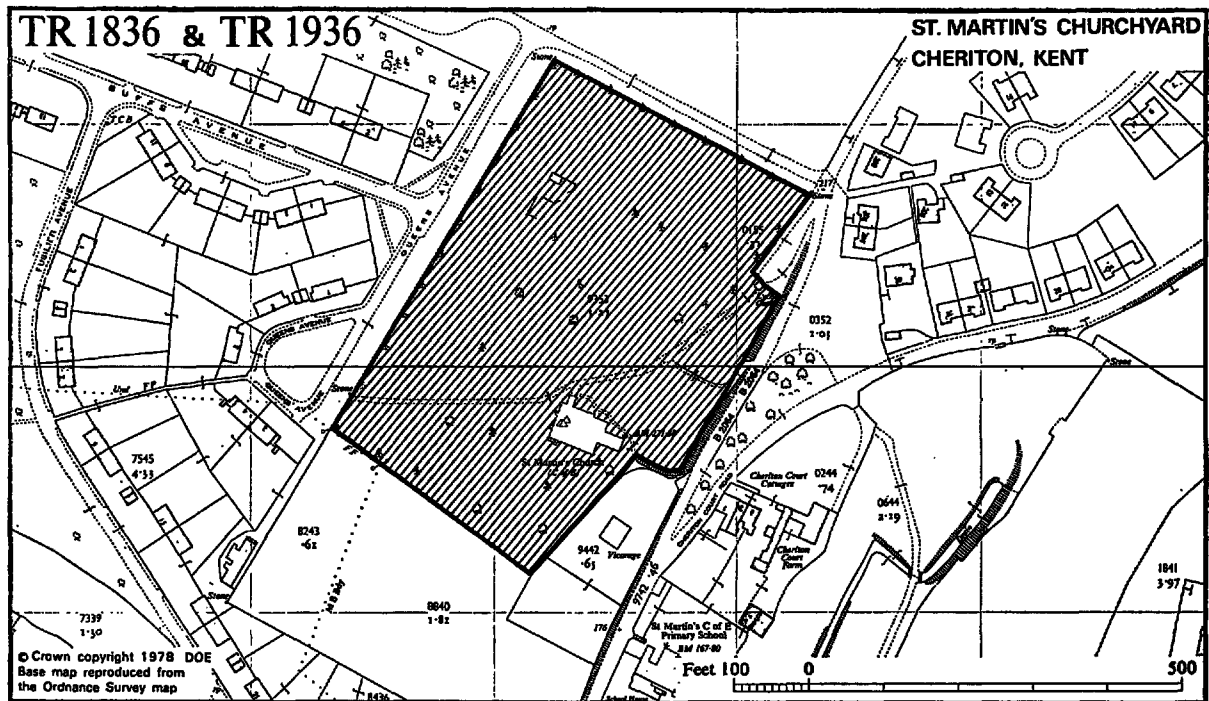

1. Burials shall be discontinued forthwith in St. Martin's Churchyard, Cheriton, in the County of Kent, shown hatched on the plan annexed hereto.

Provided that—

- (a) in any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of a family for which such grave space was reserved and appropriated at the time of the first interment, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;
  - (b) in the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (St. Martin's Churchyard, Cheriton, Kent) Order 1980.
