At the Court at

Buckingham Palace the 19th day of March 1980

Present,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the award of pensions to the widows of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines who are not at present eligible for a pension solely because of their husband's rank or rating:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act 1865 (1865 c. 73), and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions (Special Widows' Pensions) Order 1980.

Interpretation

2. A "special widow's pension" means a pension awarded to a widow who is ineligible for a Forces Family Pension because of the provisions of Clause 15 of Section III of Schedule VIII of Order in Council of 14th March 1979.

General

3. The rates and conditions of award of a special widow's pension in respect of a husband's service in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines shall be as specified in the Schedule attached thereto.
4. Except as otherwise indicated the provisions contained in the Schedule to this Order shall have effect from 12th November 1979.

N. E. Leigh

SCHEDULE

1. The special widows' pensions provided for in this Schedule are pensions payable on application in respect of the service of requisite length of deceased Chief Petty Officers, Petty Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines (including those given temporary promotion to commissioned or warrant rank during the 1939 to 1945 War) and hereinafter referred to as "ratings". They are not payable in respect of deaths attributable to service.
