Rome, June 7.

N Monday last the Pope held a Confistory, where were proposed and disposed of several Archbishopricks and Bishopricks, amongst others, the Cardinal Viscomti, formerly Nuncio in Spain, was upon the recommendation of the Queen Regent made Archbishop of Montreal in the Island of Sicily, which his Eminence intends suddenly to take possession of.

of. The fame day the Pope gave Audience to all the Cardinals who had any thing to offer, and to the French Ambassador the Dake de Chaulnes who took his leave morder to his return home, but departs not from hence till Monday next, intending to fee the Ceremonies of to morrow, when the Pope is to ride in state to take possession of the Church of St John de Latran, at which the Count de Prado the Portugais Ambaisador intends to appear with ex-traordinary pomp. The faid Ambaisador has lately difpatcht a Courier to Lisbonne to give the Prince his Master an account of what has hitherto passed in reference to the affairs of Portugal. Monfegnior Ravizza, by the favour of the Cardinals Chigy, and Rospigliosi has been nominated by the Pope for his Nuncio to that kingdom, which has fo little pleafed the Count de Prado, that he has made several com-plaints upon this subject to divers of the Cardinals. Monsegnior Matthei is made Vice-Legate for Avignon, though himself seemed not over-zealous to be removed to fo great a diftance from the Court of Romes he being neerly related to the Pope.

We are here in daily expectation of the arrival of an Ambassador from the Duke of Savoye.

The ship on which were embarked the Goods and Baggage belonging to the Cardinal de Bouillon, and the French Ambassador, is faid to be taken by the Turks, with many persons that took the opportunity of this ship to transport themselves for France.

On Tuesday last the Prince Gasparo Altieri went to take possession of his new Charge, as Governour of the Castle St. Angelo, where he was received with much Ceremony, with several vollies of Canons and Musquets.

Madrid, June 11. His Catholick Majesty has recovered his health and is fallen again to his exercifes with the young Nobility, to the great joy of this whole City and Kingdom. Several of the Grands in testimony of their joy came this night in Mascarade to the Palace, with Torches in their hands. A publick Jubilee is to be kept upon this account, and on the 18th the people are to be entertained in the great Place-Royal with a fight with Bulls,

The Constable of Castille takes all opportunities to folictie his return home by reason of his great indisposition of body, which he attributes principally to the air of the Netherlands, but as yet, no succesfor is appointed for that Government.

The Count de Molina intends in few days to depart in order to his voyage into England under the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary.

Don Fuan is lately indifposed in his health, principally occasioned by Melancholly; but his apprehenfions are great, that attempts are made upon his life.

Warlaw, June 14. From Bialacterko we are advifed, that the Cofsacks feem not fo inclinable as formerly to their dependency upon the Crown of Poland, but defire rather a brutish liberty and to establish amongst themselves a kind of popular Government; and that Dorofenska, one of their Generals, endeavoured in an Alsembly at Czekrin to perfwade them to fwear fidelity to him, and wholly to throw off their obedience to the King of Poland. Hanenko who was also one of the Generals of the Cofsacks, a perfon of different principles and interest from Dorofensko, had deputed those 30 perfons who had Audience the last month from the King, but returned without any confiderable effect.

The Envoy from Tartary is fill here expecting the return of the Chancelor of this Crown, and intends upon his difmission from this Court, to go from hence to the Marquis de Brandenbourg.

hence to the Marquis de Brandenbourg. The face of this Court feems much changed for the better; the Queen great with Child. The Primate the Archbihop of Gnefne's refolved to elpoufe the Kings intereft; and the Marefhal Sobiesky has engaged himfelf to appear with the Noblefs at tha general Afsembly on horfeback in the field, and to act vigoroufly for the fettlement of peace within that kingdom.

Venice, June 14. Here is lately arrived the Gally called Braffana, with the Governour of the Three Islands the Proveditor General Valier, who on the Thursday following, with a large Train of Senators attending him, made his vifit to the Colledge, where he gave them a fatisfactory account of all affairs under his charge. He left feveral Galeafses and Gallies refitting at the Port of St Crofs, whereon are to be embarked fix Companies of Foot, which are more then the usual number which are allow'd for the necefsary guard of Corfu, which faid Companies are to be transported to Dalmatia.

Letters from Zante and other places, confidentlytell us that the Visier is at last gone from Candia with a great Fleet of ships and Gallies, to attend the Commands of the Grand Segnior, who was in the mean time diverting himself in Hunting, though to the ruine of that Country by which he passes, having no less then 30. thousand perform attending him, for his Guard and Recreation.

The fame Letters tell us, that the Visier has left the Command of Candia during his absence in the hands of his Son and a Bassa, in whom he reposes much Confidence, and has appointed some other perfons to alsift them as a Councel in matters of difficulty; he left the City much repayred and beautifyed, and has built there a Sei aglio, and feveral other publick buildings, for which he was supplyed with materials from Smirna, Alexandria and Constantinople, and had planted great number of Cprefs trees about the City, to render it the more pleafant.

"Tis believed Chevalier Molino is also departed with him, that which hitherto retarded him, was the expectation of the prefents defigned by the Republick for the Grand Segnior and leveral Ministers of this Court, which were some weeks fince fent away from Zanter with a Convoy of four men of way
