

War, to secure them from the Corsairs.

The Turks who are now posseſſt and Inhabitants of the City of Candia, presented the Vifier before his departure with a Petition, that he would beſtow on them ſuch Lands in that Island, as were formerly in the Posſeſſion of ſeveral Greeks, and this in Recompence of their faithful Service during the late Wars, but the Vifier anſwered them that they had gotten their Possession of that City and Island upon Articles of ſurrender, and therefore it was not in his power to gratify them with the Lands they desired, as if they were to be diſpoſed of by right of Conquest.

Vienna, June 24. From Hungary we have confirmation of the report, that the 5000 Hungarians which had thoughts of trying their fortunes upon General Sparck, but finding him in readiness to entertain them, immediately withdrew, and ſent away ſeveral persons as their Deputies to him to affiſe him that they were now more inclined to ſerve the Emperor then ever they were to oppoſe him, and would oblige themſelves to continue faithful to him, if he would pleaſe to pardon them and grant them an Act of Oblivion, which has been offered in the Emperors name to Upper Hungary upon condition, that they will give the Emperor the ſole power of choosing their Palatine; and that no Religion ſhall be permiſſed amongst them, but the Roman, Lutheran, or Calvinift; that they shall admit of the German forces into all their Garrisons; and that it be declared, that the Emperor alone has power of calling an Aſſembly of the States of that Kingdom.

Hambourg, June 25. From Vienna we have dai-ly news of the hopefulness of the Emperors affairs in Hungary, upon the ſubmiſſion and pardon of the Prince Ragotsky.

From Warſaw they write as pleaſingly of the ſtate of that kingdom; the Nobility of all the Palatinates having reſolved to put themſelves on horſeback immediately upon the laſt ſummons to attend the King in the open field, and there to reſolve upon what they ſhall find moſt conduceable to the ſafety and peace of the kingdom, only Cracovia and one other Province have ſpared their reſolutions, but the diſſenting party are like to fail of their hopes of making their advantage of the diſſatisfactions of the Army for want of pay, that being proportionably aſſigned them out of the ſeveral Provinces and Paſtatinates, to which the ſeveral Regiments are ordered for the receipt of their Moneys, which they are punctually to receive.

General Sobiesky having conſidered the general ſenſe of the kingdom, and how much it imports him to preſerve his Charge which by a longer opposition might be otherwife diſpoſed of, is ſaid to be convinced of his error and returned to the obedience of the Crown. The Marshal of the Court and the Palatine of Vilna have thought fit to be preſent and concur with their Provincial Diets, and have ſince submitted themſelves to the King, but Zamiski, who preteſded to a ſhare in an Estate with the Kings Mother, having ſpoken in the Diet, of which he was member, with too little reſpect of the King, is ſaid to have been kill'd by the Nobles: 'Tis believed all the reſt of the diſſenting Nobility will be in few days ſummoned in by ſound of Trumpet, thoſe eſpecially which had their conference lately at Dantzig, and if they appear not at the time pre-ſixt them by his Majesties Proclamation, their Charges ſhall be pronounced void, and be diſpoſed of at his Majesties pleasure.

Amſterdam, July 1. We hear even now of the arri-val of our Eaſt-Ind a Fleet at the Texel, whose return gives much joy to the Merchants both for the richneſſ of the ſhips, and the good news they bring with them of the victory obtained by General Speelman, over the King of Macaffer, and four other Kings his Allies; and of the honourable peace which will much conduce to the advantage of our Trade: the Articles are not yet publiſht, only tis ſaid in the general, that the ſaid King of Macaffer is obli ged to pay to the Company of Merchants concerned in the War and Trade in thoſe parts, the ſum of 200 thouſand Piastres towards their expences in this war, to demolish all his Forts except one, and to permit the Moneys coined by the ſaid Company to paſſ freely in all his Dominions, without any addition or diſminution of the value of them; he is alſo by the ſaid peace obli ged neither to make war or peace without the conſent of the Company; nor to ſuffer any beſides the ſaid Company to trade within his Dominions. They farther affi rm, that the little Kings of Binna and Dompo had ſubmiſſed themſelves and people in propriety to the Company.

All the ſhips bound thither from hence are there ſafely arrived.

Some ſhips lately arrived from the West-Indies inform us, that the Count de Lemos the Spanish Vice-roy of the Indies was ſafely arrived at Lima in Peru, and has reduced to obedience the people which were in rebellion againſt the Spanish Government, and the authority of his Catholick Maſte ry, and for a terror to the reſt, had ordered the principal of that rebellion, Joseph de Salazar to be beheaded, 16 o-thers to be hanged, and 26 to be baniſht.

We have even now received information, that our Eaſt-India ſhips are ſafely entred into the Texel, the Meuse, and into Zealand.

Our Letters from Cadis tell us, that the Gallions returned, laden to the value of 25 Millions, whereof eight upon the account of his Catholick Maſte ry, only one of this Fleet founded about Havan, but ſo as with the affiſtance of ſome of her compa-nions, moſt of her lading was happily preſerved.

The Rotterdam Convoy is arrived at Cadis, where also continues Captain Toll beyond the time he in-tended, expe cting the unlading of ſome of the Gallions.

London, June 29. On Munday laſt the Envoyes from Denmark and Portugal, made their Compli-ments to their Majesties, condoling with them for the Death of Madam.

Yester day arrived here the Marshal de Bellefonds Envoy Extraordinary from His moſt Christian Maſte ry, and was this day about noon introduced by Sir Charles Cotterel Master of the Ceremonies, and admitted in the uſual form to his Audience from His Maſte ry, to whom he made his Compli-ments of Condoling for the Death of Madam, in the name of the King his Master: His Audience continued about an hour, which ended, he was with the ſame Ceremony conducted to his Audience from the Queen, whom he Complimented up-on the ſame Subject, as he did likewiſe in the af-ternoon their Royal Highneſſes at St Jame's.

This afternoon the Chevalier Flamarens Envoy from Monsieur, had his Audience from their Majesties upon the ſame Subject, of condoling for the Death of Madam, to which he was introduced al-ſo by Sir Charles Cotterel Master of the Ceremo-nies after the uſual manner.
