

Paris, July 2. A Spanish Courier Extraordinary is lately passed by this City on his return to Madrid from Brussels, informing us, that the Queen Regent had made choice of the Marquis de Montercy, second son to Don Louis de Haro, and now a Colonel of a Spanish Regiment, to take the name of Governor of the Netherlands for a time, but is upon all matters relating to the said Government, to conform himself to the advice of Don Estevan de Gamarre, with some other persons joynd with him as a Council, so that tis believed the Constable of Castille will in few days resigne his Charge into their hands, and put himself upon his way homewards.

From Vivarez we are informed, that the people of that Countrey who had some months since tumultuously and seditiously opposed the new Taxes imposed on them, and had been perswaded by the Marquis de Castres and other Gentlemen of the Countrey, to lay down their Arms upon a promise of an Act of Oblivion, and the abolishing the said Taxes; being now told that Fifteen hundred Dragoons were marching towards them with some other Foot, to take an account of their former insurrections, they again took Arms, and were drawn together in a body, to the number of 6000 men; and that several Reformed Officers were entertained by them, but their principal Commanders were Coutelas and Coquille, who had formed them into Companies and Order, and placed them upon several Posts where they lay orderly intrenched, and had already made a stout opposition to some of his Majesties forces which were sent to reduce them; and that they had burnt down several houses of the Gentry, whom they suspect to be their most zealous opposers.

His Majesty has hereupon ordered a considerable force to be sent against them, and amongst others, two Companies of his Musqueteers, and some of the Guards of his body, who are to begin their march on Thursday next, with six Companies of the Regiment of Guards, under the Command of the Sieur Magalotti; these are ordered to joyn with the forces which are already in Languedoc for the reduction of those Rebels.

The Kings Declaration having been sent to the Parliament of Tholouse, ordering all the Proctors of that as well as other Parliaments, to take their Commissions in his Majesties name: the said Proctors have refused to give their obedience, by reason of the expences of the said Commissions, and have rather chosen to absent themselves from the Parliament, which put a present stop to the proceedings of that Assembly; whereupon, the Judges meeting to consider of some fit remedy for this great inconveniency; a President and one Counsellor insisting too closely upon the priviledges of the Proctors, speaking with less respect of the Kings Declaration, have since by his Majesties Order been confined, one to Montargis, and the other to La Fontverre.

The King has ordered a stately Hearse to be erected in the Cathedral Church of Nostre Dame in this City, where a solemn Funeral service is to be celebrated to the memory of the Duke de Beaufort, who dyed at Candia during the Siege; but the Parliament of Paris are disputing the point of Precedency with the house of Vendosme, at that Ceremony, and are objecting against the Title of High and Potent Prince, which is given the deceased Duke in the Act of Parliament which they are to pass in order to the said Ceremony, which they suppose is not to be given, but to the Legitimate Princes of the blood.

On Friday next the body of Madam, the late deceased Dutchess of Orleans is with great Ceremony to be conducted to St. Denis, where the Abbot

Bossuet, Bishop of Condon is to pronounce her Funeral Oration.

Paris, July 5. On Wednesday night last Madams Heart was Honourably attended by Torch light, from St. Clou to Val de Grace, by a numerous train of Coaches, where it is to be deposited according to a promise she had formerly made to the Nuns of that place.

Whitehal, July 3. On Thursday last the Chevalier de Flamarens, Envoye from Monsieur the Duke of Orleans, was Conducted to his Audience from their Royal Highnesses at Richmond by Sir Charles Cotterel Master of the Ceremonies, where he Condoled with them for the Death of Madam. The first instant the Swedish Resident Chevalier de Lyonberg, and Monsieur Stamford Resident from the Duke of Newbourg, made their Compliments upon the same subject to His Majesty. The Swedish Resident had the next day an Audience from the Queen, to whom he addressed himself, with the like Compliments, to which he was introduced after the usual form.

Advertisements.

☞ Musica Deo Sacra & Ecclesiae Anglicanae, or Musick dedicated to the Honour and Service of God, and to the use of Cathedral and other Churches of England, especially of the Chappell-Royal of King Charles the I. by Thomas Tomkins, sometime Gentleman of the said Chappell, and Organist of the Colledge at Worcester; Printed in Ten Books for a Set, viz. Three Basses, Two Tenors; Two Counter-Tenors, Two Means, and an Organ part; concerning which, you may enquire at the Chaunters house of Westminster.

THE Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer having paid the 1451 Order, Registered on the Eleven Months Tax, shall proceed to the payment of the subsequent Orders to that number as the Moneys shall be brought into the Exchequer.

WHEREAS Mr. John Hutchenson, late Farmer of the Revenue of Wine-Licences in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall did resigne his said Farme by agreement into the hands of his Royal Highnesses Commissioners, at our Lady day last past, and there being great arrears due to him from divers Retailers of Wine within the said Counties for the time ending at the Lady-day aforesaid. All persons so in Arrears, are directed forthwith to pay in the same to Mr. John Lowman, Collector of the said Arrears; otherwise Process will speedily issue out against them.

Major John Choke, a Licensed Physician, having an excellent remedy for the cure of the Gout, lives at Ivy Bridge by the water side near the New Exchange in the Strand, where he may be spoken with every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

☞ A Law-Dictionary. Interpreting such difficult and obscure Words and Terms, as are found either in our Common or Statute, Antient or Modern LA WES. With References to the several Statutes, Records, Registers, Law-Books, Charters, Antient Deeds, and Manuscripts, wherein the Words are used: and Etymologies, where they properly occur. By Tho. Blount of the Inner Temple, Esq; Sold by John Martyn and Henry Herringman at the Bell with out Temple-bar, and in the New Exchange.