

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 23 to Tuesday June 26. 1711.

At the Court at Kensington, June 23.

PRESENT,

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Raby, and William Bromley, Esq; Speaker of the House of Commons, were, by Her Majesty's Command, Sworn of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, June 25. This Evening the Sieur de Beirie, Resident from the Elector of Hanover, had a private Audience of Leave of Her Majesty, to which he was Introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John, and Conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies.

Berlin, June 20. N. S. Monsieur Lith, the Muscovite Envoy, return'd hither Yesterday, and it is said he has Orders from the Czar his Master to follow the King of Prussia into Holland, where he is to demand his Audience of Leave, and proceed from thence to Vienna with the same Character he had here. They write from Staden, that the Swedish Troops in Pomerania expect to be join'd by a Detachment of six Regiments of Horse, and four of Foot, out of Schonon, after which they will begin their March; but it is thought the Danish Fleet will be at Sea time enough to prevent the Transportation of those Forces. These Letters add, that they have Advices from Bender, importing, that his Swedish Majesty has very earnestly press'd the Turks to March, but hitherto without any Success; the Turks alledging, that they were not to begin any Operations on their Side, till they were assured the Troops in Pomerania had succeeded in their Design of penetrating into Poland. On the other hand the King of Sweden has endeavour'd to persuade them, that their Motions will facilitate the Enterprizes of his Forces on that Side; of which the Turks will not be convinc'd, and this Diffidence has much retard'd their intended Expedition. Besides, it appears that the Turks are not yet resolv'd which way to direct their main Strength, but it is thought the Approach of the Muscovite Forces towards the Frontiers of Walachia will soon determine 'em in that Point.

Hannover, June 23. N. S. They write from Warsaw of the 13th Instant, that the Conferences between the Czar of Muscovy and the King of Poland being finish'd at Jaroslaw, his Czari's Majesty immediately set out from thence for the Army, and commanded a Body of thirty thousand Men to pass the Dniester, in order to destroy the Bridges the Turks have been laying over the Danube, whilst the grand Army march'd towards Bender with a design to Attack the Turks that lay encamp'd near that Place; from whence our last Advices, being of the 1st of May, assure us, that the Turkish Army did not then amount to thirty thousand Men, but that it was daily strengthen'd by Troops that were marching from all Parts to join it. But this Morning his Polish Majesty's Envoy at this Court received Letters from Dresden, importing, that a Courier from the Czar of Muscovy was pass'd through that City in his way to Copenhagen, whither he was sent with an Account to his Danish Majesty, of the Muscovites having actually engaged and defeated the Turks near Bender, after which they Attack'd and Pillag'd that Place. These Letters add, that the King of Poland intended to go to the Waters at Carlsbad before he return'd into Saxony, but that the Prince-Royal his Son was expected speedily at Dresden. The Earl of Peterborough, who came hither on Saturday the 20th Instant, has continu'd his Journey from hence to the Hague in his way to England.

From the Camp at Lens, June 29. N. S. The Armies on both Sides continue still in their former Camps. We have Advice from that of the Enemy, that they have made a second Detachment for Germany as considerable as the first, which were to begin their March Yesterday, and consist of their Bavarian and Walloon Troops, and the Petite Gendarmerie. The Duke of Bavaria is preparing to remove his Court from Compiègne to Namur, but whether he will reside there, or go with his Troops to Germany, is uncertain. The Sluices at Harlebeck are repair'd, so that the Boats pass there now as formerly; and Orders are given for making a new Fort to cover them from any future Insult.

Brussels, July 1. N. S. According to our Letters from the Camp at Lens, dated the 29th past, no change has yet been made in the Situation of either Army. Several Advices from the Enemy's Frontier Places assure us, that a second Detachment, reported to be more considerable than the former, is marching towards Germany, and is expected to Morrow at Beaumont. Whereupon the Germans, that have been quarter'd near this Place and Louvain, hold themselves in a readiness to March, and expect Orders to that purpose from the Prince of Savoy at the Hague, who will by this time be advis'd of the second Detachment the French have made from their Army. The late Elector of Bavaria is expected in a few Days at Namur, from whence he is to go and take upon him the Command of the Forces on the Rhine.

Hague, June 30. N. S. They write from Copenhagen, that an Army of sixty thousand Men is to be forthwith Assembled in Holstein, in order to oppose any Attempts of the Swedish Forces in Pomerania. These Letters add, that two Danish Frigats that have been lately cruising in the East Sea returned to Copenhagen the 15th Instant, and report that they had seen the Swedish Fleet at Sea, consisting of about sixteen Ships of the Line of Battel, and several Tenders. Our Letters from Paris advise, that Monsieur de Guy Trouin was sail'd from Breit with the Squadron under his Command, and arriv'd at Rochell, where he is to be joined by some other Ships appointed to reinforce his Squadron. The King of Prussia set out the 25th from hence for Amsterdam, and returned hither the 27th in the Evening. His Prussian Majesty and the Prince of Nassau have, for the more speedy