The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authoury.

From Monday, July 18. to Thursday July 21. 1670.

Falmouth, July 14.

His day came in the William and the Golden Fox, both of London, in Seven weeks from the Barbados, which place they left in a peaceable and thriving condition, but met with no adventure on their return.

Deal, July 16. The last night and this morning, arrived in the Downs Five East-India ships, two others from the Barbados, and divers others from the Streights.

Lisbonne, June 20. The Turks have been lately on shoar in the Algarues and carried away 20 men; they are here preparing four men of war to guard the coasts. The Dutch Resident is gone to Setubal to take order for the lading the Dutch ships with Salt according to former agreement, all difficulties being now removed.

The Baron de Batteville is recovered from 2 great and violent fit of the Stone, but continues weak, and fears the return of another fit.

Legorn, July 7. A fhip of this place lately atriving from Tripoly, brings Letters from feveral Mariners belonging to the Merchants Delight and Concord, which fell formerly into the hands of the Algerines, telling us that the Turks finding their paffage ftopt to Algier, put in with them to Tripoly, and there fold both Ships and Goods to the Baffa of that place for the fum of Ten thousand pieces of Hight, the men they carry to Algier, but the Captains it feems were killed in the engagement.

The French Gallies continue at Ponto Spetie, where they have received new Orders from France, and intend not to proceed for Tunis, whither they were before defigned.

The Great Dukes Three Gallies are to proceed for Marfeilles to receive the Dutchels Dowager of Orleans.

The St John of this place arriving in 15 days from Tripoly, left there behind him one Ba.k .ading for this place : by this veficl we are told, that Nine of the Corfains of that Port are returned home from the Levant, with the plunder of the Madanna del Rofario, bound from hence to Cyprus and Alexandria, and of Two Polachs, one bound for Maltha, the other for Marfeias; the fame Corfains meeting with Three Chriftian Privateers, retook from them two small vessels which they had made prize of on their way from Alexandria, laden, with Some Goods for Candid, and had closely laid one of these Privateers, Commanded by Captain Sapeda, with a Savoy Flag, which took fire, but the men saved themfelves upon the other Two ships which made wheir close.

About 15 days before this fhip left Tripoly, a Bassa who was some days before arrived from the Levant, went thenee to Tunis, which is still shut up by the Brench Fleet, but little action has lately past there.

Florence, fuly 8. On Saturday the 5th inflant, the Great Duke of Florence was with much Ceremony Enftalled Master of the Order of 5: Stephen the Habit was given him by Cardinal Barbarigo, a Noble Venetian, and Bishop of Padua, lately arrived here from Rome, the folemnity was perfor med in the Church, where on the right fide of the Altar was placed a Chair of State for the Cardinal, and on the left fide at a greater diftance from the Altar, another for the Great Duke, the Inftallment palfing in the ufual Form, the Cardinal faid Mafs, which ended, the Great Duke carryed him in his own Coach to the Convent, where he was lodged. The faid Cardinal is fince departed, having first received a Prefent from the Great Duke, of a Golden Crucifix, in which were the Reliques, richly fet with Diamonds, to the value of Two thousand Crowns.

Genoua, July 9. The 6th inftant arrived here two great Genouele fhips from Evezza with Salt who entring, would have forced a way between the Fame, an English ship, and another French ship, between whom they could not pass without much inconveniency and diforder to both; the men on board the Fame endeavouring to divert them, the Genouele flung several Canon Bullets amongit them, but without any hurt, which not fatisfying them, they fired several Musquets, and shot the Fames Boatswain through the neck, of which hurt he immediately died; upon complaint made, the Duke was pleased io order 30 foldiers to be immediately fent on board the Genouele to feile the Mariners, who have been fince under examination, in order to give fatisfaction to the English.

The Three Governours and the two Procurators which were Elected in fune last for the Government of this Republick, made fome days fince their folemn Entry into the Palace with the usual Ceremonies.

From Naples we are informed, that the Viceroy has received from Madrid, permiffion from the Que.n Regent, to return home into Spain, but he is first to perform an Embaffy of Obedience to the prefent Pope.

Two' Gallies of the Neopolitan Iquadron are fitting up to be fent to Palermo to attend the Duke d' Albaquerque on his return for Spain, after the Refignation of his Vice-Royalty of Sicily into the hands of the Prince de Ligne.

The Duke d' Offuna, the new Governor of Milan has ordered all the Infantry to meet at a General Rendezvous the 27th paft at Pavia, where they were to be muftered; tis believed he intends to make a great reformation in the Army for the eafe of the Countrey.

Venice, July 12. Here is lately arrived in this Port the fhip St Marguerite from Tripoly laden with Salt, informing us, that Nine Corlairs belonging to that place were lately retired home for fear of the French and other fhips which are abroad for the fecurity of Commerce. Some Maltha prioters they had on board, taken by them out of a Malthele thip which they had forced to tun on thoat upon the coafts of Barbary.

Some of our ships lately sent out by Segnior Proveditor Bernardi to guard the seas about Brindis, met accidentally off Otranto with two Corfairs of Algiers, who made a stout resistance, till one of them being sunk, the other with some difficulty made an elcape: