Falmouth, July 18.

THe 15th instant arrived here the Expedition of London, laden with Horses and other Goods, bound for the Barbados; as also the ship call'd the Duke of York, bound for New York. The Golden Fox lately arrived from the Barbados laden with Sugars, put to sea again the 17th, bound to the Eastwards.

A small vessel lately arrived from the Terceras advises us, that the King of Portugal is there in good health, and as well served with all conveniencies suitable to his Quality as that Island will permit.

Portsmouth, July 20. The Mareschal de Bellefonds being arrived here from London, intends suddenly to embark himself upon the Catherine Yacht which attends him for his transportation into France.

Venice, July 19. On Saturday last arrived here a vessel, call'd the House of Loretto from Morca, telling us, that Signior Nicolo Lyon, a Noble Venetian, having taken care to consign to Cavalier Molino at Canea, the Presents and Moneys from the Republick to be employ'd according to Order in his Embassy to the Ottoman Port, went away to Suda, and thence to Cerigo, cruising afterwards in the seas of Sapientza in search after several Corsairs of Barbary who had infested these seas, carrying also Orders to the Gallies to attend the Commands of the Proveditor Bernardo, who has ordered two Troops of Horse to be embarked upon several ships which were Careening at Corfu, which are with the Fleet to be convey'd to Dalmatia.

This last week came in here two vessels from Smirna, laden with Merchants Goods; the Mariners reporting that the Visier intended to divert some time towards Rhodes, before he made his voyage to the Grand Signior; but other advices tell us, he is arrived already at Constantinople.

Several Complaints having been made at the Ottoman Court against the Maltha ships, Order has been given for a Squadron of Turkish ships to be sent to lye about that Island, whereupon they are more intent then formerly to finish their works according to the design of their Engineer Valperga, for which they have advanced a very considerable summe of Moneys.

A Caich sent hither exprels from Dalmatia by our Proveditor-General Barbaro informs, that the said General is returned from Cattaro to Spalato, and is since gone to visit the Counties of Clissa and Reggia, with other places, which is a work that hath not been practis'd for above 30 years before by any of his Predecessors.

The Arbesian Gally is arrived at Dalmatia with the 13 principal Turks design'd for an exchange, to whom the said General had added 80 more, which are to be sent to Zant by the same Gally in order to their freedom, upon the release of a proportionable number of Christians taken in the late wars.

The said General has made an agreement with the Corsairs that were wont to disturb the Trade of the Merchants upon those Coasts, so that tis hop'd the Christians may for the future Trade with greater liberty.

The Heydukes of Cattaro have at the last obtained the favour of the Senate to be put into the possession of Brisano as a reward of their late services; but upon condition, that they oblige themselves to be always in readines to serve this Republick with their Arms whensoever they shall be commanded, and are now endeavouring to improve the Lands by their good Husbandry.

Here are lately arrived several German soldiers; entertained during the late wars in the service of the Republick, who are by Order to be paid and dismiss'd the service with a Donative of a Ducat to each man above his Arreats; they are also to have free Quarter for a considerable part of their way home, through the Territories belonging to this Republick.

Cardinal Barbarigo is lately arrived at Padua, having on his way from Rome performed the Ceremony of giving the Great Duke of Florence the Habit of Grand Master of the Knights of Ss Stephen.

There is lately arrived at Triest, Cavalier Borri, a prisoner in Chains, with a guard of 30 soldiers, who are to convey him to Rome, where he was formerly sentenced for an extravagant Heretick.

Warsaw, July 12. The Grand Constable the Uywood of Rusky, the Uywood of Kyowsky, with several other great persons, are with the Army which is more numerous than formerly, by the Addition of several German Regiments. Two Envoyes are there arrived from the Corsairs, one of them Employ'd from Dorosensko, the other from Hanenko the two heads of the opposite parties, desiring assistance one against the other, they were both of them treated with the Principal Officers of the Army by the great Constable at a Banquet, where the Envoye from Hanenko publicly gave a box on the Ear to the other Envoye, which occasion'd no small mirth among the Officers.

Genova, July 16. Two days since parted the Conclusion, bound for Zant; the Fame is still in Port, but intends in few days to sail for Trepani.

From Milan they tell us, that the Duke d' Ossuna their Governour, has, with the principal Commanders and Officers of the Army, been at Pavia, where he took a view, first of the Spanish Foot, and then of the German and Italian Infantry, which were drawn up in several Batalions, in excellent Order: from thence he went to take a view of the Fortifications at Tortona, where he was received with all possible demonstrations of joy and respect, where he met with Cavalier Brelegno on his return from Madridd, in which place he had been employ'd by the Republick of Venice with the Character of their Ordinary Ambassador, who after some few days stay, went thence on his way for Venice.

From Turin they write, that the Duke is at the present diverting himself in Hunting and other recreations at Chivaveano, one of his Houses of pleasure, but intends in little time to return hither, and afterwards to begin his progress to visit the several considerable places of his Dominions.

From Rome we are informed, that Cardinal Antonio Barbarino is dangerously ill, and given over by his Physicians; and that the Pope has in favour to the Romans, granted the Princes Colonna and Orsino, the privilege of ringing their Bell to call their servants together when any Cardinal visits them,
