Voyage to England. Bruffels, Octob. 24. N. S. On the Twelfth Inftant, in the Evening, his Catholick Majesty, Charles the Third, King of Spain, was unanimously chosen King of the Romans, and Emperor, by the Electoral College at Frankfort; for which, Te Deum has been Sung here as well as in the rest of the Tawas of Sung here, as well as in the rest of the Towns of this Country, under a general Discharge of the Artillery, which was attended with other publick Demonstrations of Joy. The Confederate Army broke monstrations of Joy. The Confederate Army broke up on the Twentieth from the Neighbourhood of Bouchain, and having pass'd the Schelde, encamp'd last Night, between Abscons and Marchiennes, where the Distribution of Winter-Quarters hath been made; and the Troops which are Quarter'd at the greatest distance are already on their March; but its believ'd the Body of the Army will not separate till it shall appear what Motions the Enemy will make, and till the Frontier Garrisons are sufficiently provided with Forage, and all other necessary Stores, which may be done by the end of this Month. Nine Squadrons have been fent from the Army to Breda, Boisseduc, Heusden, and other Frontier Towns of Holland, in order to cover the Country from the Enemies Incursions. The Count de Cifuentes, a Grandee of Spain, and heretefore Viceroy of Sardinia, came hither some time since from the Army; and will proceed towards Germany, to wait on the Emperor, so soon as he shall have notice of his Imperial Majesty's Arrival in those Parts.
