The London Gazette.

Publicled by Authority.

From Honday, August 1. to Thursday August 4. 167a.

Lime, August 1,

He 28th paft arrived here the Rofe of this place from Rotterdam, with little other news then that they are fitting up fome fhips to ferve as Convoys to their Merchants defigned for the Streights.

Yesterday arrived the Lilly and Prosperous of this place from Morlaix, telling us of a confiderable number of Souldiers and Seamen that have within few weeks passed through that place for Brest, where there are about 20. Sayl of Ships fitted up, whereof 12. lately came in from Rochel, and are supposed to be designed for the Streights.

Madrid, July 9, Monseigneur Borromeo the Popes Nuncio returning home to take possession of his Charge of Secretary of State to the present Pope, is gone to Barcellona, where he intends to Embarque upon one of the Duke of Tursies Gallies; which has lately brought thither the Chancellor of Milan.

From Sardigna we have news of the fafe arrival there of three fhips from Cadiq, with Men, Arms, and Ammunition, for the fupply of the Vice-Roy.

Letters from Cadiq advifeus, that the Duke de Veraguas arrived there privately the 22 past, and refused the Honors which the Town intended to have paid him upon his arrival.

A finall Bark is lately fent thence to New Spain, to inform them that the Fleet which is defigned thither, will in few days be ready to put to Soa.

The fame Letters inform us, that the Corfairs of Sallee have lately made feveral Prizes, amongft which are two French fhips, one Portugais and one belonging to Genoua, and that the Spanifh Garrifon in Meliglia upon the Coafts of Affrick, has had feveral encounters with the Moors, who have made divers Approaches and laid their Ambufhes near the place, but were always beaten off with great lofs., and with little difadvantage to the Garrifon; That place is now in a good poftwre of defence, the Walls which were fallen being well repaired and made up; and two new Forts lately built, which will add much to the ftrength of that place.

The Corfairs of Algiers keep within their Ports, and pretend to a great want of Slaves, for the Manning out their Veffels, but this is fuppofed to be only a pretence to excule themfelves from the Service of the Grand Segnior in the Levant.

Rome, July 12. The 29th paft, the Spanish Ambasilador came with a large Train of Lords and Perfons of great quality, Feudatories to His Catholick Majesty, attended by the Popes Guards to the Church of the Vatican; where after Mass, the Pope received from him before the Church Porch the Hackney and the Cedule for 7000 Ducats, the usual acknowledgment for the Kingdom of Naples, &c.

The 6th inftant arrived here a Courrier Extraordinary from Madrid; with feveral difpatches; most of which were addressed to Father Nithard, formerly her Catholick Majesties Confession, who as 'tis here supposed, may be employed with the Character of Ambassador from the Court of Spain, upon the Revocation of the Marquis d' Aftorgas.

The Conde de Prade has lately left of the Chara-ther of Extraordinary Ambassiad dor from the Prince of Portugal, and contents him telf with that of Ambassiador in Ordinary.

By the way of Otranto we are told, That two Maltha Ships had lately engaged 3 Corlairs belonging to Algiers, and had taken one of them after a fharp Dilpute, which continued two hours, the other two with fome difficulty escaping.

Here is lately proposed a Treaty of Marriage between Prince Altieri's Sister and Don Eugento a third Son of the Prince de Carbognano, but the Constable Colonna endeavors to prevent it, having defigned her for a Wife to one of his Sons.

Copenhagen, July 22. His Excellency the Earl of Esternishing the second second second second second second train, having concluded his Negotiation in this Court, and the Treaty of Commerce, which was yeflerday figned by the King of Denmark, intends in fhort time to return for England, having entertained a Dutch fhip for the transportation of his Domelticks, with his horfes and baggage; Himfelf with his Lady intending to return fome part of the way by land, and to take Holland in his way.

The Heer de Witt, Ambassador from the States General of the Vnited Provinces is taking his leave of this Court intending for Poland.

Several complaints have been here exhibited by the Holland Merchants, against the customers, for visiting such of their ships as pass the Sound and requiring new customes.

requiring new cuftomes. Dantzick; July 29. All Eyes are now fixt up on the Islue of the General Diet which is to be held at Warfaw : In Order whereunto feveral of the preparatory Diets are met, from whole fuccels we may give fome guels at the Iflue of the greater. His Ma-jefty has made leveral propolitions which are to be the Subject for their Debates in both; viz. 1. That care be taken to prevent the breaking up of the faid Affemblies. 2. That such Deputies who shall be found to have upon humor or faction wilfully brow ken up fuch Affembly, may have fome punifiment inflicted on them. 3. That the Army be recruited, 4. That the Pope and Colledg of Cardinals be confulted with about the beft Methods of forming 4. League amongst the Christian Princes, y. That Care be taken for the payment of the Souldiers. 6. That Commissioners be chosen to treat and conclude with the Collacks, 7. That care be taken for the payment of the General Officers of the Army. 8. That moneys be raifed for the expences of an Ambafly which must be fent to the Muscovites. 9. That presents be made to the Tartars. 10. That a Regulation he made in the Mint and bad moneys called in. 11. That a fonds be made for the repair of Fortifications. 12. That the time be limited for the continuance of Forreign Ministers in the Court and Kingdom. 13. That care be taken to prevent private Correspondencies, to the prejudice of the Publick. 14. That the Treaty between the Crown of Poland and the Emperor may be ratifyed and confirmed, 15. That's Decree pais against fuch Sena-tors as shall absent themselves from the Diet. 14. That Inspection be made into the Exchequer, and the Magazins for Artillery and Ammunition. 17. That Courts of Judicature be reformed, 18. That a Joynture be fetled upon the Queen. 19. That the Queen be Crowned at the Feaft of St Michael. 20. That a Prefent be made to his Majefty, in confideration of his great Expences upon his Marriage. 21. That a new fettlement be made for the payment of the Penfion allowed to King Cafimir. 22. That Care be taken for the fecurity of the Queens Portion. And laftly that a way be confidered of for the payment of the Debts of the Crown.

There is lately arrived at Warfaw one Goniec, an Envoye from the Great Duke of Mufcovy, who has had Audience of his Majefty, in which he prefented him with a Letter from the Great Duke, to let him know, that the Grand Segnior intended to fend his Ambaffador to the Court of Mufcovy to renew the Ancient Peace between them, of which he had thought fit to give advice to his Majefty of Poland; thereby to demonstrate his defires to maintain a good Correspondency and understanding with him, and that he intended hot to make any private Treaty with the Turks to the prejudice of the Crown of Poland. By the same Letters the Great Duke made alfo his Complaints of Potosky the Palatine of Braclavia, who had it seems opened a Pacquet of the Great Dukes Letters which were fent towards the Ottoman Court, for which he required fatisfaction.

The Polish Army is ordered to march towards the Frontiers of Ukrania, where it is to continue till farther order.

All the Palatinates of Great Poland and of the Pofpolite Ruffians are ordered to be in readinels to meet in Armes on horsback in the field, if it should so happen that this General Assembly should, like the former, be broken off with disfatisfaction.

Vienna, July 23. His Imperial Majefty has difpatched away a Courier with a Pardon to the Hungarians, expecting upon its arrival to hear of the Surrender of Ezeck, Caffovia, and Eperies, which tis hoped will put an end to the Diffurbances of that Kingdom, and exceedingly firengthen the Empe-, rors intereft.

A Turkish Chiaus was lately fent from the Baffa of Great Warradin to the Generallity of Hungary, to complain that Major General Heifler, had contrary to the Treaty of Peace between both Empires, passed the Limits with two Regiments of Horse and a party of Dragoons: to which it was returned for answer, that his March was not defigned to give any disturbance, or allarum to the Turks, with whom they defined to preferve a right understanding, but to establish the Peace of the Emperors own Territories which was disturbed by the late revolt.

The Regiment of Portia with the Recruits for the Imperial Army are still advancing, and the new Levyes still forwarded in the Hereditary Countreys.

The 19 instant the Sieurs Graymiz, and Yonckman Deputies from the Landgrave of Hessen Cassel, received in their Masters name the Investiture for the Riefs held by him from the Empire.

the Riefs held by him from the Empire. Vienna, July. 26. The Governour of Ezeck having received the Act of Oblivion and Indemnity,gned by his Imperial Majefty, immediately delivered up the place to the Imperial forces, himfelf and all the people within the place, having Liberty given them to return to their refpective homes with fuch goods as belonged to them; a Garrifon of 200 men was immediately placed there, the reft of the Army marching away towads Caffovia, to oblige that place likewife to a Surrender. The new leavies as well as the Old Companies are flill marching into Hungary, fo that in little time the Army in that Kingdom will amount to the number of about 40 thougand men. Here are lately arrived three Deputies from the Wpper Hungary, Exhibiting their Complaints againft the General Spork, for exacting Contributions from 'Country to the great impoventifiment of the people, and in the mean time, permitting the German forces to range the Country at their pleafure, who for want of Difcipline, plunder and abufe the Country people, and make extraordinary fpoyles in all places where they come. The Emperor having taken it into his Confideration, has Ordered an Exprefs to be fent away to the faid General, commanding him upoh fight of His Order to return forthwith to Vienna.

Vienna, July 26. Four Companies of the Regiment of Count Lefle are entred into Zeckfet, and General Heifter marcht towards Zatmar, to take care and give neceflary Orders for the defence of that part of the Country.

Hague, Aug. 8. The Herr de Groot is haftening forwards on his Ambassie to the Court of France, to which he is the more carneilly preft, by reason of the Proposal he is ordered to make to the most Christian King, for the suppression of the Imposs and Cuftoms which are charged upon all Goods belonging to our Merchants, upon whose Answer depends the Execution of the late Resolution made here for a new Impost upon the Goods and Manufactures of F ance, and the prohibition of the Importation of their Aquavita. The said Ambassador the Herr de Groot may this day begin his journey.

. The States of Holland are adjourned till the midft of September, and the Deputies of the Admiralty feparated without coming to any refolution about the number of Ships defigned for the fecurity of our Trade in the Mediterrancan.

His Highness the Prince of Orange is gone to Dieren, where he intends to divert himfelf for about a Fortnight.

Deale, August 1. The laft night paffed by a Virginia fhip bound for London, and one more this morning for Holland; about two of the Clock this afternoon a fhip was difcovered to be faln upon the Goodwins, in much danger, the Sca running high, yet feveral Boats have adventured out from hence to fave the Men at leaft, if they cannot, preferve the fhip.

Yarmouth, August 1. On Tuesday last a Ketch of this Town laden with goods to a Confiderable value from Rotterdam, and tyding down as low as Boors Island , was furprifed by a ftorm , with fo Violent a guft of Wind, that it was feared the Veffel would have overfet before the people could hand their fayles, but the Wind ceasing, there hapned a terrible clap of 'Thunder, with which the main Mast was shivered into small pieces down to the Deck, and the piece which remained pierced through into the Hold; out of which issued a smoak of a Sulphurous fcent, which increafed upon them for two hours, though all possible care was taken to have extinguisht the fire by pouring in great quantity of water, till despairing of any other remedy, they were forced to take out part of the lading, and getting the Vessel near the shoar to put her under all the men that were upon the Deck at the water : time of the Thunder Clap were beaten down, but recovered without hurt, only the Mafters-mate was thrown over board and loft, Advertisement.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, are come to the payment of the 1456. Order, Registred on the Eleven Moneths Tax, and will proceed to the payment of the subsequent Orders to that Number, as the Money shall be brought into the Exchequer.

Printed by The. Newcomb in the Saver, 1670.