Vienna, July. 26. The Governour of Ezeck having received the Act of Oblivion and Indemnity, given by his Imperial Majesty, immediately delivered up the place to the Imperial forces, himself and all the people within the place, having Liberty given them to return to their respective homes with such goods as belonged to them; a Garrison of 200 men was immediately placed there, the rest of the Army marching away towards Cassovia, to oblige that place likewise to a Surrender. The new levies as well as the Old Companies are still marching into Hungary, so that in little time the Army in that Kingdom will amount to the number of about 40 thousand men.

Here are lately arrived three Deputies from the Upper Hungary, exhibiting their Complaints against the General Sporck, for exacting Contributions from Country, to the great impoverishment of the people, and in the mean time, permitting the German forces to range the Country at their pleasure, who for want of Discipline, plunder and abuse the Country people, and make extraordinary spoyles in all places where they come. The Emperor having taken it into his Consideration, has Ordered an Express to be sent away to the said General, commanding him upon sight of His Order to return forthwith to Vienna.

Vienna, July 26. Four Companies of the Regiment of Count Lesse are entred into Zeckset, and General Heister marcht towards Zatmar, to take care and give necessary Orders for the defence of that part of the Country.

Hague, Aug. 8. The Heer de Groot is hastening forwards on his Ambassie to the Court of France, to which he is the more earnestly prest, by reason of the Proposal he is ordered to make to the most Christian King, for the suppression of the Imposts and Customs which are charged upon all Goods belonging to our Merchants, upon whose Answer depends the Execution of the late Resolution made here for a new Impost upon the Goods and Manufactures of France, and the prohibition of the Importation of their Aquaviva. The said Ambassador, the Heer de Groot may this day begin his journey.

The States of Holland are adjourned till the midst of September, and the Deputies of the Admiralty separated without coming to any resolution about the number of Ships designed for the security of our Trade in the Mediterranean.

His Highness the Prince of Orange is gone to Dieren, where he intends to divert himself for about a Fortnight.

Deale, August 1. The last night passed by a Virginia ship bound for London, and one more this morning for Holland; about two of the Clock this afternoon a ship was discovered to be fallen upon the Goodwins, in much danger, the Sea running high, yet several Boats have adventured out from hence to save the Men at least, if they cannot preserve the ship.

Yarmouth, August 1. On Tuesday last a Ketch of this Town laden with goods to a Considerable value from Rotterdam, and tyding down as low as Boors Island, was surpris'd by a storm, with so Violent a gust of Wind, that it was feared the Vessel would have overset before the people could hand their sayles, but the Wind ceasing, there hapned a terrible clap of Thunder, with which the main Mast was shivered into small pieces down to the Deck, and the piece which remained pierced through into the Hold; out of which issued a smoak of a Sulphurous scent, which increased upon them for two hours, though all possible care was taken to have extinguish'd the fire by pouring in great quantity of water, till despairing of any other remedy, they were forced to take out part of the lading, and getting the Vessel near the shoar to put her under water: all the men that were upon the Deck at the time of the Thunder Clap were beaten down, but recovered without hurt, only the Masters-mate was thrown over board and lost.
