Preliminary

1.1 These Regulations may be cited as "The Civil Service Commission General Regulations 1983" and shall come into operation on 1st January 1983.

1.2 These Regulations are applicable to candidates of both sexes and to all appointments, transfers or promotions in respect of which, by virtue of the Civil Service Order in Council 1982, a certificate of qualification is required to be issued by the Commissioners.

1.3 In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears,

(a) words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and

(b) words in the singular shall include the plural and words in the plural shall include the singular, and

(c) the expression "Civil Service" shall mean Her Majesty's Home Civil Service and Diplomatic Service, and

(d) the expression "specified" shall mean specified by memoranda or other official instructions issued from time to time as occasion requires by the Commissioners for the situation or grade or group or class of situations concerned, provided that, where the situation or grade or group or class of situations is peculiar to one Department, the memoranda or other official instructions shall also be agreed with the Head of that Department.

Certificates of Qualification

2. A certificate of qualification for appointment to a situation in the Civil Service will be issued by the Commissioners only when they are satisfied that a candidate is eligible under the provisions of these regulations in respect of age, health, character, knowledge and ability, and nationality, and that he fulfils any other conditions which may be specified.

3.1 In the case of an appointment or appointments of limited duration the validity of a certificate of qualification may be restricted to a limited period terminating on the date specified in the certificate.

3.2 A person in respect of whom a limited period certificate of qualification has been issued under Regulation 3.1 shall not be appointed to a further situation requiring a certificate of qualification until a further certificate has been issued.

3.3 The circumstances in which and the conditions on which persons may be appointed before the issue of a certificate of qualification to situations requiring such a certificate are specified in Regulation 13 hereof.

Method of Entry

4. All appointments which require to be certified under these Regulations, other than those covered by Regulation 11, shall be made solely on merit on the basis of fair and open competition. Recruitment shall be by means of specified competitions, which shall be sufficiently publicised to the satisfaction of the Commissioners and shall be open to all persons who satisfy the specified conditions and who apply at the time and in the manner specified. Such competitions shall be held at such periods and for such situations or grades or groups or classes of situations as the Commissioners shall from time to time determine.

Age

5. Every candidate shall satisfy the Commissioners that he is within the specified limits of age, but if no limits of age are specified, the candidate shall satisfy the Commissioners that his age is suitable to the duties of the situation which he seeks.

6. The Commissioners may exceptionally at their discretion extend the specified upper age limit for any candidate if they are satisfied that there is due and sufficient cause.

Health and Regularity of Attendance

7. Every candidate shall satisfy the Commissioners that his health is such as to qualify him for the situation which he seeks and that he is likely to give regular and effective service for at least 5 years or for the period of any appointment of shorter duration:

Provided that, in the case of a candidate who is

(a) already employed on functions which have been transferred to the Crown and who is being admitted for employment in the Civil Service in consequence of such transfer, or the Commissioners may at their discretion waive or modify the standard of health required of that candidate for the purposes of the issue of a certificate of qualification.

Character

8. Every candidate shall satisfy the Commissioners that his character is such as to qualify him for the situation which he seeks.

Knowledge and Ability

9. The Commissioners shall satisfy themselves that every candidate is qualified in respect of knowledge and ability to discharge the duties of the situation which he seeks.

10. Subject to the provisions of Regulation 11 hereof, the tests in respect of knowledge and ability shall be such as are specified in the relevant memoranda or other official instructions and may include qualifying or competitive tests, examinations or interviews or a combination of these; the tests or examinations may be written, oral or practical. Candidates may also be required to possess specified academic, professional or technical qualifications or appropriate experience, or a combination of these.

11. Without prejudice to the provisions of Regulation 9 hereof the Commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with or modify any tests in respect of knowledge and ability, if

- (a) the Head of the Department or other appointing authority has satisfied the Commissioners that the admission of a particular candidate to a particular situation is for special and exceptional reasons justified by the needs of the public service and the proved merits of the candidate, or
- (b) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that it is desirable that the candidate concerned, having been employed on functions which have been transferred to the Crown, should be admitted for employment in the Civil Service, or
- (c) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that it is desirable that a candidate already holding a situation in another public service should be admitted for employment in the Civil Service, or
- (d) it has been proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that it is desirable, by reason of a shortage of qualified candidates, to admit to a particular situation a candidate who has reached an appropriate standard in a competition for an equivalent or higher situation but has failed to secure appointment to that situation, or
- (e) a candidate for whom the Commissioners have previously issued a certificate of qualification, or who had been appointed under the provisions of Article 1 (2) (b) or (f) of the Civil Service Order in Council 1982, is put forward by the Head of the Department or other appointing authority for reinstatement, or for appointment to a situation inferior to that which he previously held, and the Commissioners are satisfied as to his knowledge and ability.

Nationality

12.1 To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation to which Regulation 12.2, Regulation 12.3 or Regulation 12.4 applies) a candidate must be:

- (a) a British citizen; or
- (b) a Commonwealth citizen (other than a British citizen), or a British protected person, or a citizen of the Irish Republic, in which case he must satisfy one of the following conditions:
 - (i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a Commonwealth citizen, a British protected person, or a citizen of the Irish Republic; or
 - (ii) he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth, or in the Irish Republic, or have been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown, or partly have so resided and partly been so employed, for at least 5 years out of the last 8 years preceding the date of his appointment;
- (c) if not qualified under sub-paragraphs (b) (i) or (b) (ii) of this Regulation, he must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

12.2 A candidate will be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Cabinet Office or Ministry of Defence (other than the Meteorological Office, to which Regulation 12.1 applies only if:

- (a) at all times since his birth he has been a Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Irish Republic; and
- (b) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic; and
- (c) each of his parents was born in such a country or territory or in the Irish Republic and has always been, or (if dead) always was, a Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Irish Republic;

Provided that in cases where these conditions are not satisfied a candidate may be admitted to appointment by special permission of the Minister responsible for the department concerned, if the conditions specified in Regulation 12.1 are satisfied.

12.3 A candidate will be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Diplomatic Service only if:

- (a) he is a British citizen; and
- (b) at least one of his parents has been a Commonwealth citizen continuously from a date 30 years or more prior to the candidate's appointment or, if dead, was a Commonwealth citizen continuously from a date 30 years prior to the appointment until his or her death; and
- (c) the Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs is satisfied that the candidate is so closely connected with the United Kingdom, taking into account such considerations as upbringing and residence, that he may properly be appointed.

12.4 In the case of certain appointments under the Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs, other than appointments in the Diplomatic Service, the requirements in Regulation 12.3 above may apply or particular requirements may be prescribed.

12.5 In Regulations 12.1, 12.2 and 12.3 the term "Commonwealth citizen" means any British citizen, British Dependent Territories citizen or British Overseas citizen, as defined in the British Nationality Act 1981, any British subject under that Act and any citizen of an independent Commonwealth country.

Appointment Before the Issue of a Certificate of Qualification

13. The Commissioners may authorise appointments on the basis of a period of service on specified conditions designed to enable the Commissioners to satisfy themselves regarding a person's suitability for a certificate of qualification in respect of any of the requirements governing health, character, knowledge and ability or nationality, as stated in these Regulations, in the following circumstances;

- (a) If there is a shortage of fully qualified candidates a person who does not fully satisfy the specified conditions of knowledge and ability but has nevertheless reached an appropriate standard and who is otherwise acceptable may exceptionally be offered an appointment on the basis of a period of trial service of not less than the probationary period for the situation; and provided such service has been satisfactory the Commissioners will accept the nomination of such a candidate for the issue of a certificate of qualification.
- (b) For a candidate who does not fully satisfy the health regulation the Commissioners may authorise an appointment, specifying the manner and time for a further consideration of the health of the candidate in order that the candidate may subsequently satisfy the Commissioners that he is fully qualified in respect of the health regulation for the issue of a certificate of qualification. If, on review, there is still doubt as to the ability of the candidate to satisfy the health regulation, the Commissioners may authorise an extension of the period of trial service.
- (c) If there are doubts about a candidate's character which are insufficient to justify rejection and he is otherwise acceptable for appointment the Commissioners may authorise a period of trial service in order that the candidate may subsequently satisfy the Commissioners that he is qualified in respect of character for the issue of a certificate of qualification.
- (d) For candidates who do not satisfy the nationality regulation for the issue of a certificate of qualification, but who may do so at a later date, the Commissioners may authorise a period of service on specified terms.
- (e) If it is considered urgently necessary that a candidate should be appointed to a particular situation before the Commissioners' enquiries have been completed, a department may so appoint him on a conditional basis pending certification, provided that there is no prima facie doubt as to his eligibility for a certificate of qualification.
- (f) If there is a shortage of candidates for a particular situation or grade, and a department wishes to appoint a person of high ability to that situation or grade without open competition, the Commissioners may authorise such appointment on a provisional basis for a period not exceeding 12 months, on condition that the person concerned competes in the next open competition for the situation or grade in question.

Revocation

14. The General Regulations made by the Commissioners on 1st December 1978 are hereby revoked:

Provided that, save as laid down in this Regulation, all regulations, rules and notices made or issued by the Commissioners regarding the admission of candidates to situations in the Civil Service shall remain in force until revoked or cancelled by further memoranda or other official instructions issued by the Commissioners.
