Venice, Novemb. 13. N. S.

WE are advis'd from Milan, that the Ambassadors of this State have made their Entrance into that City with great Magnificence, and receiv'd a publick Audience of the Emperor. They are order'd to attend on his Imperial Majesty, who was to leave Milan on the Tenth Instant, as far as the Frontiers of the Trentin, in case it will be permitted; and Signior Farseti is appointed to receive his Majesty on the Borders of the Veronesse. They write from Rome, that the Pope has not yet receiv'd any Notice from the Emperor of his Election to the Imperial Dignity, nor of Signior Albani's Arrival at Milan, where he is order'd to labour, in Conjunction with the Cardinals Imperiali and Archinto, to obtain the Restitution of Comachio. The French Court have sent a very angry Letter to the Pope, wherein they expostulate with him, in high Terms, upon his sending a Legat a Latere to Milan. This gives him the greater Uneasiness, since he is not likely to obtain the Fruits he propos'd to himself from the Steps he has taken in that Affair. The Prince of Lorain set out from hence on Monday last for Francfort.

Florence, Novemb. 14. N. S. The Emperor has given Directions for Eleven Battalions and Five hundred Horse, to march into Tuscany, in order to reduce Porto Longono, and such other Places on the Coast, as continue in the Hands of the Duke of Anjou. These Troops were to Rendezvouz on the Twelfth Instant at Borgo San Domino, a Place between Placenza and Parma, and on the Twentieth they are to enter the Grand Duke's Territories. That Prince has appointed Commissaries to supply 'em with Provisions during their Passage through his Country, pursuant to a Treaty lately concluded between the Emperor and this Court; in which his Imperial Majesty engageth to pay for whatever his Troops shall be furnish'd withal. He has likewise promis'd, that they shall not march above One thousand at a time, and that the whole Detachment shall be made in Fifteen Days. They write from Milan, that Cardinal Imperiali, the Pope's Legat, made his Entrance into that City on the Eighth Instant. On the Ninth he had Audience of the Emperor, and deliver'd his Majesty the Presents that had been sent him from Rome. The same Day his Imperial Majesty gave Audience likewise to the Venetian Ambassadors, and several other Ministers, and on the Tenth in the Afternoon, his Majesty set out for Inspruck, by the way of Mantua, and will soon proceed from Inspruck, to his Coronation at Francfort. Our Letters from Leghorn advise, that Sir John Jennings is detain'd there by contrary Winds. Two Privateers have brought into that Port a French Prize bound from Alexandria to Marseille, laden with several Bales of Coffee, and other rich Commodities.

Hamburg, Novemb. 24. N. S. They write from Elbing, that the Czar of Muscovy was to leave that Place on the Fifteenth, and proceed by Water to Koningsberg; and from thence to Riga and Petersbourg. The Muscovite Troops, under the Command of General Czernietoff, are to continue this Winter in Poland; and it is believ'd that they will not be order'd to evacuate that Kingdom till the King of Sueden is return'd into his own Dominions. A Negotiation has lately been on foot, and a Neutrality propos'd to be observ'd between the Suedish Garrison in Wismar, and the Danes appointed to the Blockade of that Place; but hitherto no great Progress has been made in that Affair, the Danes insisting, that after the Conclusion of that Treaty, they shall be at liberty to return to the Army before Stralsund, to which the Governor of Wismar will by no means consent, but that they shall retire into the Duchy of Holstein, or continue in Mecklenbourg. The last Post from the Camp before Stralsund having been intercepted by the Suedes, we have of late receiv'd no Letters directly from thence. Those from Copenhagen advise, that the Sickness is much abated there, and that Twenty-two thousand Four-hundred and Six Persons have died since it first began to appear in that Place.

Brussels, Novemb. 26. N. S. We have receiv'd Letters from Madrid, importing, that the Duke of Ossuna, the Count de Bergheysk, and the Marquis of Monteleon (Envoy at present from the Duke of Anjou to the State of Genoa) are named by that Prince to be his Plenipotentiaries at the future Congress for a General Peace. The Duke of Vendome is said to have march'd with his Army on the Twenty-fourth of the last Month towards Cardona, in order to reduce that Place, having not been able to execute his Designs on Pratz del Re. They write from Paris, that Signior Emo is daily in expectation of receiving Orders from the Venetian Senate to return home, the French King being highly offended at the Venetians, for their acknowledging his Imperial Majesty as King of Spain; for which reason Orders have been given for the Confiscation of all the Ships belonging to that State, that shall be taken by the Privateers of France. The French Troops that serv'd this last Campaign in Flanders, continue to file off; and we hear that several of those Forces will be Quarter'd this Winter on the Loire.

Hague, Nov. 27. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, who had been detain'd for some Days by contrary Winds at Helvoetsluys, embarked Yesterday for England; as did the Earl Rivers, and the Earl of Orkney, under a Convoy appointed for the former. We are advis'd here, that the Elector of Hanover, who had preisd the Return of two Regiments of his Dragoons from Flanders during the Winter Season, has since countermanded them, having just Grounds to apprehend, that his Example would have induc'd some other Princes to have taken the same Measures in relation to some of their Troops in the Service of the Allies. The States-General have lately publish'd an Order prohibiting the Exportation of Hay and Oats into the Enemies Territories, or elsewhere, on any Pretence whatever. The Breach of the said Order is made Capital to the Transgressor, whose Effects likewise are to be Confiscated in favour of such as shall inform against him. They write from Flanders, that the Enemies Garrisons commit great Disorders in the Frontier-Towns, especially at Valenciennes, ennes, Maubeuge, and Conde, where the Soldiers have plunder'd many of the Bakers Shops, and broke out into several other Insolences for want of their Pay. Our last Letters from Milan advise that the Emperor left that Place on the Tenth Instant, and was expected on the Twentieth at Inspruck, where he propos'd to reside a few Days, in order to regulate several Matters relating to the Electorate of Bavaria, and then continue his Journey from thence to Frankfort; at which Place, all things are preparing for his Imperial Majesty's Coronation.

The Directors of the Company of Merchants of Great Britain, Trading to the South-Seas, &c. do hereby give Notice, that daily Attendance will be given at their House in Broad-Street, from Nine in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon (Sundays excepted) unto the 25th of December next, for taking the further Subscriptions towards the Capital Stock of the said Company: Wherefore all Persons possess'd of any Navy, Victualling, Transport and Ordnance Bills, Tallies, &c. liable to be received on the said Subscription, may forthwith come and Subscribe the same, the Power given in the Charter determining on the said 25th of December next,

Whereas several Seamen which belong'd to Her Majesty's late Ship the Exeter, were, by Order of the Super-Intendant at the Nore, to have gone on Board the Gloucester in Longreach, on the 19th Instant, and have absented themselves, The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, that except the said Men do speedily repair to their Duty, on Board the said Ship Gloucester, they will not only lose all such Pay as is due to them in the Exeter, but be punished as Deserters.

Whereas, notwithstanding the late Advertisements publish'd in the Gazette, the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded, &c. do find, that several Persons possessed of Quartering-Tickets, do refuse or neglect bringing or sending the same to the Office, whereby great Difficulties do attend the stating the exact and just Debt thereof; in particular, that the Tickets at the Port of Rochester for Christmas Quarter 1709, and Midsummer 1710, and at Gosport for Christmas 1710, do not appear, nor can it hitherto be known in whose Hands they remain: These are to give further Notice, that not only all such Quartering Tickets, but likewise all other Claims or Demands whatsoever, for any Debt due from the said Office before Michaelmas-day 1711, must be brought in, in order to be settled and adjusted, by or before the Fifth Day of December next; after which Day, they will not be received, nor will the Proprietors have any Benefit thereof.
