From Monday, August 8. to Thursday August 11. 1670.

Falmouth, Aug. 3.

THe Constance of London bound for Virginia, which came in here the 31 past, put to sea this day with a fair wind, but another ship, her companion, having spent her Mast, is not yet refitted for her voyage.

The Pearl Frigate of Bristol from the Barbados is cleared from this Port and put to sea the 2d instant on her way for Holland.

Plymouth, Aug. 5. Here are lately arrived in this Port the Pearl of Bristol laden with Sugars, bound for Amsterdam. The Fame of Amsterdam laden with Salt, homewards bound. The Elizabeth of London with Provisions for Tangier, and one vessel of this place with Merchants Goods, intended for Ireland.

Hull, Aug. 6. This week failed hence one vessel for Amsterdam, and five vessels of Diepe, bound for Rouen, laden with the Commodities of these parts. Here are lately arrived Two Swedish ships from Stockholm laden with Iron, and two others from the East, laden with Flaxe.

Rome, July 26. The Princess Altieri the Popes Niece is lately brought to bed of a Son to his no small satisfaction; the Cardinal Altieri stood for Godfather in the Popes room, and gave it the name name of Altieri Emilio Bonaventura Alessandro Balthasar; the Pope was pleased upon this occasion to cause a considerable sum of Moneys by way of Alms to be distributed amongst the poor, 3000 Crowns to be given to his Niece for her expences in her lying in, and 10000 Crowns more to the Prince her Husband to be raised out of the vacant Offices, under the name of a gift to his lately declared Nephew; and as an obligation upon the People has ordered the Impost upon Meal to be taken off, and the weight of Bread to be augmented.

On Sunday last the Pope gave Audience in the Garden of the Quirinal to Monsiegnior Nerli, and Buonvisi before their departure on their Nunciatures for Poland and Cologne.

Father Nithard has been received by the Pope with much kindness and lately made Bishop of Giorgiento.

Monsiegnior Borromeo is suddenly expected here from his Nunciature in Spain, with whom the Pope seems not to be fully satisfy'd, in that he supposed him to have made too much haste to his new employment of Secretary of State, leaving the affairs of the Church there in the hands of a Spaniard.

Monsiegnior Marescotti is arrived here from the same Employment in Poland, and may in little time be dispatched hence with the same Character to succeed Borromeo in the Court of Spain.

The Pope who is now entred into the 81 years of his age, had like to have found it fatal to him upon the distemper of a Dyfentery into which he fell upon the drinking his Wine over much cooled with Ice, but is again recovered to the no small satisfaction of the City, as well as his dependent Relations.

The Spanish Ambassador having taken notice of several Quarrels and Disturbances which have lately hapned near his Pallace, has given order to the Provost of the Wards, to pass nightly by his Pallace, and to seise impartially upon any Spaniard, whom he shall find ro give the least occasion of offence.

The Ambassador from Savoy has not yet made his publick entry, keeping himself private and retired in the Convent of our Lady del Popolo. Cardinal Roberti has upon his acquaintance with him in Savoy given him a private Visit, but Cardinal Buona has refused it, though expected by the Ambassador, although his Eminency acknowledgeth himself a Subject of Savoy, insisting upon the Ceremony of the first Visit.

Genova, July 26. Yesterday went hence the Dutch Convoy for Legorn, of which those from Zealand intend to pass forwards for Venice, but those of Rotterdam to return again for Spain with such Merchant ships as they shall find ready to take the opportunity of their Conduct. The Fame is now upon departure in company with two Genoueses of good force.

Monsiegnior Lomellino, lately Vice-Legat in Avignoa arrived here on Thursday last, and after some days of repose here, may depart on his return for Rome.

Yesterday passed by this Port a Gally of the Squadron under the Command of the Duke of Turfi, having on board Monsiegnior Borromeo on his return from his Nunciature at Madrid, to take possession of his new employment as Secretary of State to the present Pope: The Comte de Borromeo his Brother upon the first appearance of the said Gally, immediately put to sea and went on board to compliment him.

A vessel lately arriving from Palermo tells us, that the Prince de Ligne, the new Viceroy of Sicily arrived with five Gallies the 28th past at Palermo; and that the Duke d' Albuquerque had sent all his Baggage on board the same Gallies which were designed to transport him from thence into Spain.

From Milan we are told that the Duke d' Ossuna having upon the review of the Army, found the Spanish forces much lessened, had ordered Six Captains and as many Ensignes to pass thence into Spain to Command and bring over 12 Companies of Foot for the recruits of the Three Spanish Tertias in that Government.

The Marquis de St Andre Montbrun, a person who was so eminently known through the world for his great services to the Republick of Venice, during the siege of Candia, being arrived lately at Milan on his way for France, was complimented by the Governour, who made him a considerable Present, in testimony of the respects he had for his person and merites.

The Marquis de los Balbaces Spinola has for a time deferred his departure on his Ambassy to the Imperial Court at Vienna, expecting first the arrival of a Daughter to the Lady Marquesse de Mortara, who is to attend the Empress in the Honourable employment as principal Lady of her Chamber.

Vienna, July 30. Eighteen of the principal Jews, Inhabitants of this place are stopped here and secured to make good any debts that shall be found to be due from any of that Religion upon their removal.

The Empress being great with Child has thought fit to confine her self to her usual place of Residence, where she intends to continue till her delivery.

The Count de Swarzenberg being made President of the Imperial Council in the Court, was the 28th instant admitted and installed with the usual Ceremonies.

From Waradin we are told, that the Grand Senior has ordered the removal of several Bassas and other Officers from their Charges, and amongst others, the Bassa of Kanise, all of them having been suspected to have privately fomented the late disturbances in Hungary, by which means the Prime Visier has taken a fit occasion to prefer in their rooms such persons as have signalized their valors in the siege of Candia.

From Hungary we are told, that the Garrison in Eschird seemed for some time resolved to have defended that place to the last man against the Imperialists, and did for that purpose disposed of their Engines and all their Artillery upon the Ramparts; which heat of valor lasted them but for three days, in which time they made a sally upon the besiegers, but find they lost to be great, and the execution they did very little, on the 4th day they set up the white Flag, and sent to the Camp to desire Three days Truce; but obtained only 24 hours time to treat of a surrender, in which space arrived the Prince of Rogotzki, who immediately concluded for the delivery of that place, out of which marched about 900 Heydukes, besides other forces; after which, four Companies of the Marquis de Gram's Regiment entered the Fort, under the Command of Petter a General of Bataille; the rest of the Army marching for the reduction of Cassovia.

Hague, Aug. 15. All apprehensions of war being now laid aside, the States have thought fit to consider of the lessening of the publick expences by dismissing the forces which were last raised for the recruits of the Army. The supernumerary Companies which were formerly put into Maeffrich for the strengthening of that Garrison, are withdrawn from thence and sent away to their former Quarters, leaving that place to the guard of the ordinary Garrison.

The Heer de Groot is gone forward on his Embassy towards the French Court, to obtain if possible, a Categorical and positive answer about the new Impositions laid by him upon the Commodities of this Countrey imported into his Dominions.

The Heer Heinsius after his long attendance as Resident from the States of these United Provinces in Muscovy, finds little effect of his Negotiation as to the mediation offered in the differences between Swedenland and Muscovy, and is accordingly resolved to spend no longer time in the pursuit thereof, but is preparing for his return home.

Letters from the Squadron of our ships before Salce tell us, that the Corsairs of that place seem to be very inclinable to enter into an agreement with us, and have accordingly written to the Emperor of Morocco concerning it, but we expect little assurance from that inconstant people.

A ship which came lately from Santa Cruz in Barbary affirms, that the Emperor of Morocco was with an Army of about 8000 Horse marched towards that place, and had made himself master of the Fort called Soes, which surrendered to him without any opposition, but the Governour of Santa Cruz, though surpris'd with so sudden an invasion and wanting men, resolved however to make the best defence he was able against so powerful an enemy, but the French and Portugais within the Town, had by their Presents to the Governour obtained his leave to retire themselves from that place, and embarked themselves upon two ships which were then in that Port, with as much of their Goods, as they were able to carry off with them.

The States of Zealand are lately adjourned, having first disposed of some vacant Offices in their Militia, and particularly were pleased to conferre that of Cornet to the Troop, formerly commanded by the late Captain Blat, upon young Blat his son, and the charge of Captain of the Guard of that Province upon Monsieur d'Overkerk.

Paris, August 16. We have little news from the Vivarois, but that since the Death of the Rebels, the Surintendant Bazons proceeds to make some examples of Justice, having Sentenced two to be broken on the Wheel, six to be hanged, and condemned a great number of the rest to the Gallies: an Act of Pardon is sending thither for the Rest, but as yet de Rouvre is not discovered.

On Wednesday His Grace the Duke of Buckingham went to St Germaines, where he had his Audience from his Most Christian Majesty, and still continues, amongst other diversions, His Majesty having entertained him with a review of his Army drawn out of the Camp at St Sebastien.

Plymouth, Aug. 7. All the ships which went from these parts upon the Fishing trade to Newfoundland are safely arrived there, and hope for a good account of their voyage.

Portsmouth, Aug. 7. Yesterday were put into Spitzhead by contrary winds, the Hopewel of London, John Brown Master, and the Lawrel-tree of Dartmouth, both from Barbados, laden and bound for London, having at their departure left that Island in a good and flourishing condition.

These are to give notice, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesties Treasury have appointed Munday the one and thirtieth day of October next, at three a Clock in the afternoon, at the Treasury Chambers in Whitehal, to receive Propositions for Farming His Majesties Revenue of Excise; and have likewise appointed Munday, the seventh day of November next, at three of the clock in the afternoon at the same place, to receive Propositions for farming His Majesties Customs; and also the new Impositions laid upon Wines, by Act of this Session of Parliament. Whereof all persons who have a desire to be concerned in any of the said Farms, may take notice and bring in their Propositions accordingly.

Whereas the day for the beginning of the ancient great Horse Fair, usually held at Malton, in the County of Yoik, in the Month of September, hath for some years last past been very uncertain, to the great prejudice of the said Fair, and of such persons as come to buy or sell there. These are therefore to give notice, that the said Fair will this present year of our Lord 1670. (and so every year hereafter) begin on the Sixth day of September.
