Falmouth, Aug. 3.

THe Constance of London bound for Virginia, which came in here the 31 past, put to sea this day with a fair wind, but another ship, her companion, having spent her Mast, is not yet refitted for her voyage.

The Pearl Frigate of Bristol from the Barbados is cleared from this Port and put to sea the 2d instant on her way for Holland.

Plymouth, Aug. 5. Here are lately arrived in this Port the Pearl of Bristol laden with Sugars, bound for Amsterdam. The Fame of Amsterdam laden with Salt, homewards bound. The Elizabeth of London with Provisions for Tangier, and one vessel of this place with Merchants Goods, intended for Ireland.

Hull, Aug. 6. This week failed hence one vessel for Amsterdam, and five vessels of Diepe, bound for Rouen, laden with the Commodities of these parts. Here are lately arrived Two Swedish ships from Stockholm laden with Iron, and two others from the East, laden with Flaxe.

Rome, July 26. The Princess Altieri the Popes Niece is lately brought to bed of a Son to his no small satisfaction; the Cardinal Altieri stood for Godfather in the Popes room, and gave it the name name of Altieri Emilio Bonaventura Alessandro Balthasar; the Pope was pleased upon this occasion to cause a considerable sum of Moneys by way of Alms to be distributed amongst the poor, 3000 Crowns to be given to his Niece for her expences in her lying in, and 10000 Crowns more to the Prince her Husband to be raised out of the vacant Offices, under the name of a gift to his lately declared Nephew; and as an obligation upon the People has ordered the Impost upon Meal to be taken off, and the weight of Bread to be augmented.

On Sunday last the Pope gave Audience in the Garden of the Quirinal to Monsiegnior Nerli, and Buonvisi before their departure on their Nunciatures for Poland and Cologne.

Father Nithard has been received by the Pope with much kindness and lately made Bishop of Giorgiento.

Monsiegnior Borromeo is suddenly expected here from his Nunciature in Spain, with whom the Pope seems not to be fully satisfy'd, in that he supposed him to have made too much haste to his new employment of Secretary of State, leaving the affairs of the Church there in the hands of a Spaniard.

Monsiegnior Marescotti is arrived here from the same Employment in Poland, and may in little time be dispatched hence with the same Character to succeed Borromeo in the Court of Spain.

The Pope who is now entred into the 81 years of his age, had like to have found it fatal to him upon the distemper of a Dyfentery into which he fell upon the drinking his Wine over much cooled with Ice, but is again recovered to the no small satisfaction of the City, as well as his dependent Relations.

The Spanish Ambassador having taken notice of several Quarrels and Disturbances which have lately hapned near his Pallace, has given order to the Provost of the Wards, to pass nightly by his Pallace, and to seise impartially upon any Spaniard, whom he shall find ro give the least occasion of offence.

The Ambassador from Savoy has not yet made his publick entry, keeping himself private and retired in the Convent of our Lady del Popolo. Cardinal Roberti has upon his acquaintance with him in Savoy given him a private Visit, but Cardinal Buona has refused it, though expected by the Ambassador, although his Eminency acknowledgeth himself a Subject of Savoy, insisting upon the Ceremony of the first Visit.

Genoa, July 26. Yesterday went hence the Dutch Convoy for Legorn, of which those from Zealand intend to pass forwards for Venice, but those of Rotterdam to return again for Spain with such Merchant ships as they shall find ready to take the opportunity of their Conduct. The Fame is now upon departure in company with two Genoueses of good force.

Monsiegnior Lomellino, lately Vice-Legat in Avignoa arrived here on Thursday last, and after some days of repose here, may depart on his return for Rome.

Yesterday passed by this Port a Gally of the Squadron under the Command of the Duke of Turfs, having on board Monsiegnior Borromeo on his return from his Nunciature at Madrid, to take possession of his new employment as Secretary of State to the present Pope: The Comte de Borromeo his Brother upon the first appearance of the said Gally, immediately put to sea and went on board to compliment him.

A vessel lately arriving from Palermo tells us, that the Prince de Ligne, the new Viceroy of Sicily arrived with five Gallies the 28th past at Palermo; and that the Duke d' Albuquerque had sent all his Baggage on board the same Gallies which were designed to transport him from thence into Spain.

From Milan we are told that the Duke d' Ossuna having upon the review of the Army, found the Spanish forces much lessened, had ordered Six Captains and as many Ensignes to pass thence into Spain to Command and bring over 12 Companies of Foot for the recruits of the Three Spanish Tertian in that Government.

The Marquis de St Andre Montbrun, a person who was so eminently known through the world for his great services to the Republick of Venice, during the siege of Candia, being arrived lately at Milan on his way for France, was complimented by the Governour, who made him a considerable Present, in testimony of the respects he had for his person and merites.

The Marquis de los Balbaces Spinola has for a time deferred his departure on his Ambassy to the Imperial Court at Vienna, expecting first the arrival of a Daughter to the Lady Marquesse de Morrara, who
