

Brussels, January 21. N. S. We have Intelligence here, from the Post-master General, concerning an Action at the raising of the Siege of Cardona, which meets with Credit, because it is mention'd in several other Letters that came from Paris, bearing Date on the 14th of this Month, viz. That the Army which laid Siege to Cardona, is entirely Defeated by that of Count Staremberg: They are in pain lest that which march'd to the Siege of Ostalrick, should have met with the same Fortune, seeing Count Staremberg had sent a Detachment thither. The Spanish Army is in very great Disorder, their Infantry being entirely routed.

Hague, January 19. N. S. On Sunday in the Afternoon the Deputies of the States were extraordinarily Assembled, and continu'd in Conference for some hours, as they were likewise Yesterday in the Afternoon. Letters from Frankfort advise, that the Diet of the Empire was to Assemble in a few Days, and that they would proceed immediately to ratify the Exclusion of the Elektor of Bavaria. They add, that Count Zinzendorf was to set out on the Fourteenth, and it is believ'd, that upon his arrival here, the several Ministers from the Princes of the Empire, will receive Orders to repair to Utrecht.
