FORESTRY COMMISSION

FORESTRY COMMISSION

The Forestry Commissioners hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Plant Health Act 1967 entitled the Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1984.

The Order revokes and re-enacts with amendments the provisions of the Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1977, as amended by the Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) (Amendment) Order 1979.

The Order restricts the movement in Great Britain of elms with bark attached by providing that except as permitted by article 3 (2) and (3), no elm shall be moved into, or along or across highways or by rail or water within, the areas listed in the Schedule to this Order (article 3).

The principal change is in respect of the Schedule to the Order. The Schedule to the 1977 Order, as amended, listed areas from which movement of elm with bark was prohibited. The new Schedule lists the areas (which are less extensive than those under the 1977 Order) into and within which movement of elms is restricted and is the same as the Schedule to the Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1984, which lists areas in which local authorities have powers to deal with the disease.

The Order gives general powers of entry and examination to Forestry Commission inspectors where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that elm is present and has been moved, or is likely to be moved, in contravention of the Order (article 4). It empowers the Forestry Commissioners or an inspector, if satisfied that any elm is being or has been moved in contravention of the Order, to serve a notice on the owner or person in charge of the elm requiring the removal of its bark or the destruction of the elm. If the requirements of such a notice are not fulfilled, the necessary work may be carried out by an inspector and the expenses incurred recovered from the person in default. An inspector entering any premises in connection with the execution of this Order may be accompanied by persons acting under his instructions, and by equipment, and those persons, upon production of their authority if so required, may remain on the premises, and may also re-enter, for the purpose of carrying out the work as directed by the inspector (article 5). The Order also provides for the furnishing of information and production of records relating to elm moved in contravention of the Order or which the Forestry Commissioners have, or an inspector has, reasonable grounds for suspecting is being or has been so moved (article 6).

Contravention of the Order and wilful obstruction of an inspector or a person acting under his instructions are offences, as are failure to furnish information or records and failure to comply with the terms of a notice under article 5 (1) or an authority under article 3 (2) (c). The maximum fine on summary conviction for such an offence is £1,000 (an increase in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act 1982 from the previous maximum fine of £100 for a first offence and £200 for a subsequent offence) (article 8).

FORESTRY COMMISSION

The Forestry Commissioners hereby give notice that they have made an Order under the Plant Health Act 1967 entitled The Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1984.

The Order revokes and re-enacts with amendments the Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) Order 1977, as amended by the Dutch Elm Disease (Local Authorities) (Amendment) Order 1979. It sets out in column 1 of the Schedule all the local authorities to which it applies, and in column 2 of the Schedule all the areas within which those authorities may exercise their powers under the Order to take steps to prevent the spread of Dutch Elm Disease. Each local authority may enforce the Order within their own area.

The principal change is in respect of the Schedule to the Order. The Councils of certain local authorities to which the 1977 Order applied are omitted from this Order (Borders, Cleveland, Durham, Northumberland and Powys) and the areas within which certain others may exercise their powers are reduced (parts of Cheshire, Clwyd, Cumbria, Derbyshire, Dumfries and Galloway, East Sussex, Gwynedd, Lancashire, Lincolnshire, North Yorkshire and West Sussex).

An officer appointed by a local authority listed in the Schedule to this Order who has reasonable grounds for suspecting that diseased elm may be present may enter on land and inspect elm trees, standing or felled, and take away parts for tests and, after giving the occupier prior notice, may enter on the land and take action, extending if need be to the destruction of the trees by fire, either on the land or elsewhere, to prevent the spread of the disease (article 4). The Dutch Elm Disease (Restriction on Movement of Elms) Order 1984 prohibits the movement of elm with bark attached into, and along or across highways or by rail or water within, areas listed in the Schedule to that Order, which are the same as those specified in the Schedule to this Order.

An exception permits such movement of an elm by an appointed officer for the purpose of destruction by fire pursuant to articles 4(4) and 5(4) of this Order provided that the movement is restricted to a radius of 5 miles from the location of the elm and that in the course of such movement the elm is not moved from an area not listed in the Schedule to that Order into an area which is so listed.

If there are infected elm trees on any land, the occupier or other responsible person may be served with a notice by the local authority which may require the destruction of the whole or part of such trees and the taking of other specified steps to prevent the spread of the disease. If such a notice is not complied with the necessary work may be carried out by an appointed officer after giving the occupier prior notice, and the local authority may recover the cost from the person in default (article 5). In addition, a person who fails to comply with such a notice, or who wilfully obstructs or who fails to give reasonable facilities to an appointed officer or person acting under his instructions, is guilty of an offence and may be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £1,000 (an increase in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act 1982 from the previous maximum fine of £100 for a first offence and £200 for a subsequent offence) (article 9).

For the purpose of carrying out his functions under the Order an appointed officer may, on entering land, be accompanied by persons acting under his instructions, and by equipment, and those persons, upon production of their authority if so required, may remain on the land, and may also re-enter, for the purpose of carrying out the work as directed by the appointed officer (article 4(5)).

The Order will come into operation on 11th June 1984 and has been published as Statutory Instrument No. 687.

Copies may be purchased at £1.75 net direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or from booksellers.

CAMDEN LONDON BOROUGH COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971, AS AMENDED

Designation of Conservation Areas

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the London Borough of Camden as Local Planning Authority, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, has designated areas as extensions to or new conservation areas, being areas of special architectural and historical interest, the character of which are desirable to preserve and enhance.

The following conservation areas have been extended:

Bloomsbury to include Pakenham Street; part of Marchmont Street, Leigh Street, parts of Thanet Street, Sandwich Street, Judd Street and Handel Street; part of Huntley Street, Torrington Place, Chenies Mews and University Street; Euston Square and part of Euston Road; Wren Street and part of Gray's Inn Road; Brooke's Market and part of Dorrington Street; Store Street, Gower Mews and parts of Bayley Street, Tottenham Court Road and Windmill Street; Denmark Street, Flitcroft Street and parts of St. Giles High Street, Phoenix Street, New Compton Street, Stacey Street and Charing Cross Road; Fulwood Place, parts of Warwick Court, High Holborn and Chancery Lane; Eton Villas to include England's Lane and part of Elizabeth Mews; part of Haverstock Hill, Steeles Road and Steeles Mews North and South; Belsize Park to include a further part of Belsize Grove; Regents Canal, to include part of Bonny Street and Camden Street; the Waterside Centre on the Grand Union Canal, Regent's Canal Section; Suffolk Wharf as part of Jamestown Roa; Wharf Road, part of Battle Bridge Road, Camley Street and the Goods Way; Fitzjohn and Netherhall to include Fitzjohn's Avenue, Netherhall

Gardens, Maresfield Gardens, Akerside Road, Lyndhurst Gardens, Wedderburn Road, and parts of Nutley Terrace; Daleham Gardens, Finchley Road, Prince Arthur Road, Rosslyn Hill, Thurlow Road, Lyndhurst Road, Ellerdale Road, Perrins Walk, Shepherd's Walk and Eldon Grove.

A new Conservation Area has been designated called Priory Road including Priory Terrace and parts of Abbey Road, Abbots Place, Belsize Road and Priory Road.

The Conservation Area extensions and new Conservation Area are more particularly delineated and shown edged in red on plans which are available for public inspection at Room 318, Town Hall, Euston Road, London NW1 2RU (Judd Street entrance), and Planning Enquiries, 5th Floor, Town Hall Extension (Argyle Street Entrance), during normal office hours.

The effect of the designation is to impose important controls on development in the area. Demolition of any building or part of a building within a Conservation Area is an offence unless consent has been granted by the Local Planning Authority. Where an application for planning permission is made to the Local Planning Authority and the development would, in their opinion, affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area, the application will be the subject of special publicity procedures under section 28 of the 1971 Act. Trees in Conservation Areas are also protected and any person found executing works against trees such as felling, lopping, topping, uprooting and wilful destruction or damage without prior consent from the Local Planning Authority will be guilty of an offence. Advertisements in Conservation Areas may also be controlled by the Local Planning Authority to avoid distraction from the appearance of the Conservation Area.

F. Nickson, Chief Executive

Town Hall, Euston Road,
London NW1 2RU.

Notice is hereby given that the Leominster District Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 (1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 have designated the undermentioned areas of the District as Conservation Areas:

Bodenham. The entire village is to be included in the designated Conservation Area along with sufficient space to ensure the protection and enhancement of the boundary and setting. To the south the boundary runs along the hedgerows of the fields along the south and south-west side of the River Lugg to the bridge which is included. The boundary then runs behind the property at the east end of the village and follows the domestic boundaries to a track which runs along the northern edge of the village on the side of the hill. At the western end the boundary runs back to the main road along the last domestic curtilage. It follows the road westward to a stone gate pier on the south side of the road immediately opposite to the western entrance to Bodenham School and strikes south across the gravel workings to the hedgerow between field parcel 4774 and 8671. The boundary includes Ashgrove Wood and the adjoining copse, and returns to the hedgerow field parcel 8671 and 2545.

Yarpole. The Conservation Area bounded starts at a south-eastern point, runs along the footpath from the lane to Kingsland, round the southern boundary of Brook House, continues west until striking north to include Upper House Farm. It crosses the lane to Cock Gate at this point, excludes the bungalows, runs along the path at the side of the Bell public house and eastwards along the back of the field to the rear of Vicarage Farm. The boundary includes the stream and leads to the mill of Church Farm and runs around the gardens of the cottages in the lane to Bircher. It crosses this lane, taking in all the buildings except the Rowans, and then runs south along the garden boundaries to the lane to Kingsland.

Plans showing these areas can be inspected during normal working hours at the offices of Leominster District Council Planning Department.

The effect of this designation will be that no person may, without the written consent of the Council, demolish any building within the Conservation Areas. Offences against these provisions may result in heavy fines.
