

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, August 22. to Thursday August 25. 1670.

Portsmouth, Aug. 23.

Yesterday were launched here out of the Dry Dock the Glocester and Adventure, having been both refitted, and near new built from the Keel. This day came in to their Roomes the Princess and Tyger to be also refitted.

Warsaw, August 6. As yet the Discord and Misapprehensions are not reconciled between Wisniewsky and Sobietzky, though many endeavors have been used for that purpose. Letters from the Army inform us, that some of the Principal of the discontented Great ones, have got together a considerable Sum of Moneys, hoping for an Opportunity to raise Soldiers for their defence, and have Endeavoured to draw some of the Officers of the Army to their Party. A Colonel of the Army having treated Sobietzky at a Banquet, one of his Friends and Party began in his Discourse, to touch severely upon the Kings Honour, which so much Incensed the Company, that they fell upon him and lustily Cudgeld him, whereupon Sobietzky, privately withdrew for his own security.

The Commissioners from Dorofensko have begun to treat, but tis believed this negotiation will not have any Considerable effect, the Tartars appearing his Enemies, and we have now a warm Report, that those of them which came lately out from the Black Forrest, and took up their Quarters upon the Borishnens, are since Entred upon the Territories of Poland, with some of the Turkish Companies; and that the Bassa of Silistria who resides at Bialogrod, is Ordered to give them his assistance.

The Czar of Muscovy, as an Argument of his desire to maintain a good Correspondency with this Crown, has been pleased to Communicate to His Majesty a Copy of a Treaty lately made with one of the Neighbouring Princes. The Heer Heinfus Envoy from the States of the United Provinces, has some hopes of a good Effect of his Negotiation, Nassokin the Great Minister of State having promised him a dispatch from that Court in Order to his return home; and tis said the Great Duke intends to send a Publick Minister into Holland.

Some of the Inhabitants upon the Caspian sea, are lately broken out into a Rebellion, whose forces are grown so numerous, that the Czar has thought it necessary to give Order for a Considerable Army to march forward to reduce them to Obedience.

They have lately had great storms, with dreadful Thunders and Lightnings, by which three or four of their Towns have been set on fire, amongst others Faroßlaw upon the Volga, a City of great Trade, and Rosthom one of the Archbishopricks of the Country, are wholly ruined.

Genova, August 9. The 5th instant arrived here Mr Hamilton and Mr Savile Envoyes from their Majesties of Great Brittain, and His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to the Great Duke of Tuscany, and the same day went hence for Florence. The next day arrived here the New Jerusalem, in 45 dayes from Lisbonne, in 19 from Cadix, and 6. from Narseilles, confirming the Success of the two English Fregats with their three Convoyes, against the seven Algier men of War. This Evening departed hence the Fame, in Company of two stout ships of this place, bound for Evezzi, and the America for Spain and Lisbonne. The New Jerusalem having landed here what Goods she had for this place, put to sea again two dayes since intending for Leghorne.

Legorn, August 11. The Dutch Convoy is gone from hence, bound for Messina and Venice.

The 5th instant arrived a French ship from Scanderoon and Cyprus, and this day the New Jerusalem from Lisbonne, Cales, Marseilles and Genova. The 7th instant passed by Pisa, Mr Hamilton and Mr Savile, Envoyes from the Court of England, to the Great Duke of Tuscany, and arrived the next day at Florence.

Venice, August 16. Letters from Dalmatia inform us, that his Excellency the Proveditor General Barbaro, having concluded his Progress through that Province, to the great satisfaction of the people, to whom he gave many proofs of his Care, for the due Administration of Justice, and the relief of the Oppressed, was lately arrived at Zara, from whence he had sent out a Caich to recall a Gally which was employed against the Corsairs of Dulcigno, upon whose arrival, his Excellency Embarked himself for Spalato, for the adjoustring of some affairs relating to the Trade of that place, which is very considerably improved. The Lazarets and Custom houses are already furnished, and Officers appointed to attend them; the Merchants begin already to Trade thither, where is daily also expected a Carravan from Bosfina.

The Gally Brassana which arrived here this last week, is suddenly to put to sea again for Dalmatia, The Officers expecting only Moneys for the payment of their men, together with a Considerable Sum, which is to be intrusted to their Care, for the affairs of Dalmatia.

Several of the Nobility intend to go on board her, and to pass over to their Employments in Dalmatia, but his Excellency Segnior Gio. Morosini has for a longer time deferred his Voyage, to the Exercise of his Charge of Proveditor to the Armata.

The Segniors Tron and Molini are lately put to Sea upon the Sampson bound for Zant, carrying with them 40. thousand Ducats, which are to be Employed for the Service of the Fleet, and with them are sayled several other ships, with necessaries for the said Fleet.

Several persons arriving here from the Levant inform us, that the Visier is much pressed by the Grand Segnior, to use his Endeavors for the speedy Composure of all Disputes in Constantinople.

Great Numbers of Masons and Carpenters are lately sent from Constantinople, to Candia, for the building up the houses both in that City and the Neighbouring Towns, which begin to be filled with Inhabitants, but no Christians are permitted