Lisbon, March 14. N. S.

THE Rear Admiral of the Spanish Galeons ran ashore, about a Fortnight ago, near Faro. There were but three that came out of the Havana, one of which was cast away in the Channel of Bahama, another lost Company in a Storm, and the Portuguese are now become Masters of the third. Admiral Baker has had the misfortune to miss her, altho' he is cruising thereabouts

Florence, March 1. N. S. On Wednesday last his Grace the Duke of Argyle left this Place, and pursu'd his Journey for England. Her Majesty's Ships the Colchester and Dartmouth are come into Leghorne Road, and have brought with them a French Prize, bound for the Levant, with seven thousand Dollars aboard. Captain Walpole, Commander of the Lion Man of War, is likewise arriv'd there with two French Prizes, and an English Vessel which he has retaken, as formerly mention'd. On Sunday in the Evening the Marquis de Prie arriv'd here; he lay at the House of the Pope's Nuncio, and Yesterday Morning set forward for Rome.

Brussels, March 24. N. S. They write from Mons, that Brigadier Scravenmore, who was detached from thence with Five hundred Horse some Days ago, was made Prisoner, with Fifty of his Men, after having taken a good Number of the Enemies Train-Horses towards the Sambre. The French being inform'd of that Loss, found means to Post a Body of Troops between the Brigadier and Mons, in order to cut off his Retreat; which he perceiving, resolv'd to force his Passage; but when his Men were come near the Enemy, instead of executing his Orders, the greatest part abandon'd him; whereupon he was environ'd by the French and taken, with the Men that staid with him.

Utrecht, March 25. N. S. The several Ministers of the Allies, who went lately from hence to the Hague, remaining still there, no General Conference will be held till their return, which will be before the Thirtieth of this Month: In the mean time the Plenipotentiaries of France are preparing an Answer to the several Demands of the Allies; which, 'tis hop'd, will be ready by the Day appointed, notwithstanding the Difficulty they have alledged, for want of timely Instructions from their Court. The Honourable Mr. Dawney, Son to the Lord Downs, will leave this Place to Morrow, in order to go for England; and several other English Gentlemen, now residing here, intend to accompany Mr. Harley, who is daily expected on this side, to the Court of Hanover.

Hague, March 25. N. S. The Earl of Strafford continues still at this Place, and is daily in Conference with the Deputies of the States, and the Foreign Ministers residing here, upon the Affairs which brought him hither, and will detain him till Monday next; about which time all the other Plenipotentiaries of the Congress at Utrecht, who are now here, will set out for that Place, in order to be present at the General Conference which is to be held on Wednesday the Thirtieth Instant, when the French Plenipotentiaries are to give in their Answer to the Demands of those of the Allies. General Lumley and Lieutenant General Withers are returned to their Commands in Flanders, but Lieutenant General Cadogan is still here, at the desire of the Council of State, to assist at the forming the Projects for the Operations of the ensuing Campaign. Letters from Frankfort advise, that the Duke of Argyle pass'd through that Place the Nineteenth, in his way home. By Letters from Paris of the Twenty first, we have an Account, that the young Dauphin is on the mending Hand; and that an Express was dispatch'd the Day before to the Plenipotentiaries of France at Utrecht, with fresh Instructions, by which they are to form their Answers to the respective Demands of the Allies. The same Letters add, that a considerable Detachment of Troops is order'd from the Rhine, to reinforce the French Army in Flanders.

Dublin, March 9. This Day Sir Constantine Phipps, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, and the most Reverend Father in God, John, Lord Archbishop of Tuam, were, pursuant to Her Majesty's Letter in that behalf, Sworn Lords Justices of this Kingdom.

Dartmouth, March 14. This Day came in here Her Majesty's Ships Dolphin and Lizard, being the two Convoys appointed for Wales.

Plymouth, March 16. This Day arrived the Pearl of and for London, with Almonds, Guins, &c. John Gordon from Barbary, the John and Mary of and from Guernsey for this Place, and the St. John of Fredericstadt for Nants.

Cowes, March 17. Yesterday came into this Road the Mary of and from Jersey, John Theodore Master, for Lisbon, in Ballast; he came from Guernsey, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ship the Dragon. Yesterday in the Afternoon pass thro' this Road to the Eastward two Gallies, whereof one from Lisbon.

Yarmouth, March 17. Yesterday came into our Road from the Southward, a Fleet of Light Colliers and other Ships bound for Scotland under Convoy of divers of Her Majesty's Ships, who with a Fleet of Light Colliers from hence, are this Day sail'd to the Northward. Her Majesty's Ship the Pearl continues in this Road.

Deal, March 18. Here are Her Majesty's Ships the August, Lichfield and Sorlings. This Morning came down Her Majesty's Ship the Tilbury, and two Gallies.
