

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, August 25. to Monday August 29. 1670.

Hull, Aug. 22.

Several ships are daily passing to and from these Seas upon the account of the Ordinary Trade. From Birdlington Key we are told, that a Dutch man of War of 30 Guns was four dayes since at Anchor in that Bay, and had under his Convoy a great Fleet of Busses which were then fishing within View of Flamborough-head.

Pendennis, Aug. 22. This last week came in here two ships from Virginia laden with Tobacco, and Bound for London, which put out again yesterday to sea on their way homewards.

Wmbstadt, Aug. . On Sunday last publick prayers were made in all the Churches of the Palatinate for the young Prince Charles his success and happiness in his intended Travels, who is since with a Train only of twelve persons upon his way towards Basle, intending to take Geneva on his way for France, from whence he intends for England, and after a view of these Countreys, to pass into Denmark in order to a Marriage designed between him and a Sister to the present King of Denmark.

Legorn, Aug. 18. The 13th instant arrived here a Bark from Argiers with several English Officers and Mariners which have been lately redeemed, some days before the departure of this Bark from Argiers, Sir Thomas Allen passed before that Port with Seven Fregats sailing to the Westwards: they inform us, that the Seven Argier men of war which engaged with the Alvice and Guernsey, were the stoutest and most considerable ships belonging to that place, all of them doubly manned, and were designed to attempt upon the Genouese Convoy returning from Spain: the Turks are said to be there fitting out a considerable Fleet, and were launching Six new ships from the stocks.

A Dutch ship and a French Bark arrived from Tripoly in Barbary, laden with prize Currants, inform us, that these Corsairs are fitting up their ships, and may put to sea by the end of this month.

Genoua, Aug. 20. Two days since arrived here this States Convoy in a month from Cadix, in 22 days from Cartagena, and 16 from Alecant, consisting of Two men of war and Three Merchant ships, having on board them about Two Millions in money and Goods, upon the account of the Genoueses only; this has encouraged them to give order for the sending back another Convoy, consisting of one man of war only, viz. their Vice-Admiral and Three Merchant ships which may be ready to put to sea about the end of the next month.

By this late arrived Convoy we are told, that Sir Thomas Allen had passed from Argiers to Alecant, and intended from thence towards Cadix to joyne with Sir Edward Sprage and Sir John Hurman, with resolution in consort to attempt somewhat upon the Corsairs.

From Milan we are told, that the Duke d' Ossuna had lately taken a view of all the Cavalry which was there drawn together to a general Rendezvous, where Don Junico di Velandis took possession of his charge of General of the Horse, lately conferred on him by the Queen Regent of Spain, in the room of the Marquis Spinola, who is now set forwards on his Extraordinary Emba y to the Imperial Court at Vienna; the number of the Cavalry was about 2000 all of them well horsed and in a good equipage: a review has been also taken of all the Foot, as well the Spanish Regiments as those of other nations, near the places allotted them for their Quarters.

Vienna, Aug. 20. Their Imperial Majesties had lately resolved to have removed to Ebersdorf and from thence to Neustadt, for their diversions, but have since thought fit to put off this journey till the 4th of September.

The Jews being banisht from this place, it has been thought convenient to convert their Synagogue into a Church, which has been accordingly consecrated by the Bishop of this place, and dedicated to St Leopold, where their Imperial Majesties were pleased to be present on Monday last, at the celebration of the first Mass, which was performed with not then ordinary Solemnity.

We have here a confident report that the Fort of ... which is the last or at least the most considerable, which resisted the Imperial Army in ... has submitted. We had here as concerning a report that the Princes of Moldavia, Wallachia and others were reviewing their forces, which if true, we cannot be perswaded that they intended to make any opposition to the Emperors Army, which with the addition of the Recruits lately sent them is very numerous. The several Regiments of Foot are quartered as followeth; The Marquis de Grana's Regiment at Cassovia, the Count Lestlyes at Eperies, St Andre and Saros; the Count de Staremberg's at Tokay and Patak; the Marquis de Baden's at Essck, and the places adjoining; the Regiment de Strasoldo at Zatmar, all these in the Upper Hungary, where are also quartered the two Regiments of Horse viz. Holsteins, and Dunewald's; the Regiment de Souches at Leopoldstadt; another Regiment at Raab; the Count of Porcia's at Trenchin, Rosenberg, and Neusol; The Baron Kaisersteins, in the Isle of Serini; the Baron Knie's at Clogau; de Kop's at Prage and Eger; and the Marquis de Pio's in Austria, and several Regiments of Horse distributed proportionably to quarter with or near them.

Hambourg, Aug. 22. The Prince Palatine, son to his Electoral Highness, is lately arrived at Basle in Switzerland in order to his travels into France and other places, and though incognito, was attended and complimented by the Magistrates, and presented with Wine and Fish according to their custome of receiving Great Princes; after two or three days stay, he went thence with a Guard of two Troops of Cavalry, having been saluted by all the Great Guns about the Town, and arrived the 12th instant at Zurick.

The Duke of Neubourg being about the same time at Etterhausen, within a League of Ratisbonne, with his Dutchess, was pleased to invite and entertain all the Plenipotentiaries from the Princes of Germany there assembled, at a Treat made them in the Field in the midst of their hunting, with which he diverted them, and since was pleased to give a visit to the Prince and Bishop of Aichstadt, the Empe rors Commissioner at the Chartreux in Ratisbonne, where he lay confined by some indisposition of body.

Several endeavors have been used to have the Circle of Burgundy excluded the Garranty, but by the prudence of the Abbot of Belvaux, and the Deputies from the said Circle, the industry of their subtle adversaries has been eluded and frustrated.

From Vienna they write, that the wars in Hungary being near an end, and the Count de Rothal the Emperors Commissioner, with several other persons joynd with him at Presbourg, consulting with the Archbishop of Gran for the settlement of that kingdom in peace upon such foundations as may best secure his Imperial Majesties interest for the future, his Imperial Majesty is thinking to withdraw speedily his forces from thence. The Prince of Lorraine, General of the Cavalry is suddenly expected at Vienna, and tis supposed part of the Army is already upon their march homewards, yet the Leavies are still carrying on in the Hereditary Countreys.

The Marquis de Melagous, the Spanish Ambassador at Vienna, is taking a new house for himself in the Suburbs, intending to leave the house he is in to the Marquis de los Balbaces Spinola, who is daily expected with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Spain, his Baggage being already arrived and part of his Train, viz. 27 Gentlemen his attendants, as many Pages, 32 Footmen, and 12 led Horses, with the Grooms attending them.

From Poland they write, that the Sjeur Morstein the High Treasurer, being informed that his Majesty had forbore to grant out a Citation against him, was encouraged to throw himself at the Kings feet, and to attend his pleasure at Warsaw, whither the Grand Chancellor Lifnisky is gone to assist in his Majesties Council.

But the Archbishop of Gnesne who has always wedded the French interest, endeavors to spread ill principles amongst the Deputies in the lesser Diets.

They also write that the Deputies from Hanenko one of the Generals amongst the Cossacks, went from the Court well satisfy'd, carrying with them the Red Standard with a White Eagle, and Two pair of Kettle Drums for the said General; his Majesty intending if the Negotiation on foot succeed according to his expectation, to send him also the Commanders staffe.

Brussels, Aug. 29. Don Carlo Campi who was left to Command this place in the absence of his Excellency, continues still a prisoner in Villevoord Castle, to which place he was committed by his Excellencies Command, having (as was formerly mentioned) at the intercession of the Dutches de Villa Hermosa delivered to her a Spanish soldier condemned to have been shot to death: Don Miguel Suave, Major of that Regiment, and the Captain, who that Evening commanded the Guard, are also secured upon the same account.

The Dutches has sent away the soldier to Charleroy the French Quarters, and given him 50 Crowns, not thinking him secure in her own house from the Governours anger; applications have been made to his Excellency in favour of Don Carlo Campi, but in vain, and tis believed he will make his complaints to Spain against the Dutches, whom he desires not to be seen at Brussels at his return.

From Nancy they write, that Monsieur de Choisy, Intendent of Justice at Metz, sent out lately his Secretary with Six Dragoons to seise on several Waggon and Carts laden with Salt from the Duke of Lorrains Pits, who accordingly conveyed them into the French Quarters; whereupon the Duke sent the Proctor-General of the Court of Lorraine to the said Intendent, to complain of the injustice of the action, and to require a reason for it, who in few words told him, That what was done was by order from the King his Master, who intended not to deal with the Duke or his Subjects according to the ordinary forms of justice, but with a high hand.

Ghent, Aug. 30. The Magistrates of Ostend having made some unseasonable addreses to his Excellency during his being there, relating to their priviledges, he was pleased at his departure to Command the Governour to imprison the said Magistrates, who were accordingly confined to a chamber in the Statehouse under a Guard, where they still continue attending his Excellencies pleasure for their release.

Yesterday passed by this City two Expresses, the one from Brussels, the other from the Governour of Cambrey, to inform his Excellency of the arrival of about 25 thousand French 10ices about Peronne, and that a considerable body of them are also drawn together at Charleroy: this unexpected report has put a present stop to the Retorme which was making amongst our forces, till the intention of the French can be farther discovered. This has also so much alarmed the Countrey people, that our Letters from Douay, Lille, Toufney, and other places tell us, that the Countrey people begin already to fly into the Cities with their Families and Goods.

Yesterday in the morning arrived here the Duke d' Aerschor to know the intention of the Four Members of Flanders to his late demand with which they seem willing to comply, provided they may have the disposal of the moneys which are to be raised, which they desire to see distributed amongst the soldiers within their Province, which they press also may be removed into Quarters at farther distance from this City, which will quit them of a great disadvantage to their Trade: the said Duke went yesterday from hence in a Yacht for Bruges, where he expects the arrival of his Excellency.

Paris, Sept. 4. On Saturday Aug. 30. arrived here the Heer de Groot, Ambassador Extraordinary from the States of the United Provinces, but is so much afflicted with the Gout, that he has not yet appeared abroad to make any visits.

We have now confirm'd from Lorraine the seizure of Nancy by the Chevalier de Fourille, at the head of 7000 men, from whom the Duke of Lorraine made a narrow escape, and is fled owards Hombourg, his Dutch is with w other Princesses having put themselves into a Nunnery: the reason that is given for this so sudden change, is a suspicion that the said Duke had entred into several practices against the Crown and interest of France.

The Marquis de Crequy is gone Post for Lorraine, leaving Monsieur de Vaubrun to Command halfe the Army which is marching along by the River Aisne, and tis believed will endeavor to possess then selves of all the strong places of Lorraine, and immediately to fall upon the Siege of Espinal. This last night arrived at St Germain, a Courier from the Marshal de Crequy, to give His Majesty an account of the affairs of that Countrey.

His Majesty has lately dispatch Monsieur d' Angreau to Sweden.

London, Aug. 26. The 21st instant the Count de Solre, Envoye from his Excellency the Count de Monterey, Governour of the Spanish Netherlands, took his leave of His Majesty and Royal Highness in order to his return home; yesterday he went to Hampton Court to take his leave also of Her Majesty and her Royal Highness, having in all places been fully satisfied with his reception, which he found suitable to his person and Character.