

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, May 3. to Monday, May 7. 1666.

Eridlington, April 28.

ON Wednesday last, Captain Elyot and his Squadron sayled by this place to the Southward; on Thursday the Colchejter, with about twenty Sail of laden Colliers, and on Friday the Pembrook, with twenty Sail more, past by the same way; and this morning one hundred Sail of Light ships went Northwards. No Enemy appearing on the Coast.

Plymouth, April 29. Two Swedes are lately come hither with Masts and Deales, which are to be employ'd in His Majesty's service: six small Vessels came lately in safely from the Eastward, but the Western parts are disturbed by some few Privateers. The Garland has even now brought in two Dutch Prizes, which went about Ireland with Ballast bound for Bordeaux, each of them about ninety, or one hundred Tun.

Newcastle, May 1. Yesterday sixty Sail of Light Colliers, most of them small Vessels, came into this Harbor; and forty more went into Sunderland, the Little Victory convoying them.

Paris, May 8. The News of this place is, that the Intendants of Normandy have order for the arresting of six or seven Gentlemen of that Province, and amongst other the Marquess de Bressey, upon suspicion of Coyning, being it seems named by the Sieur del Camp before his death.

That there has been no small stir among the people at Marseilles, who stand upon their Guard, and are upon strict search and inquiry after a Merchant of that City, who has offered the King, that upon condition, he may be permitted to sell Soap at twenty five Livres the Hundred, and have the Monopoly of that Commodity, that no Man may divide the trade with him, he will be obliged at his own expence to maintain and defray all the Kings Gallies.

The Voyage of Madamoiselle d'Aumale for Portugal, is defer'd as 'tis thought till the Infanta shall begin her Voyage, which depends upon the issue of a conference between the Duke Medina Celi, and the Count de St. Jean, (a Portugall.)

On Wednesday last there was a general review of a Regiment of the Kings Household in Armes, in presence of the King, in the plains of Moncassin, where appeared likewise the Regiment des Gardes, between which two Regiments was grown a competition, and a wager laid who should fire best, and the King made judge between them; but it was not suffered to come to a Tryal, nor were they a little blamed for choosing his Majesty as judge, it arguing too much familiarity, however in the field the Switz proved much the better fire men.

Seville April 13. Though the Portugalls have a strong force upon the frontiers, there has as yet past no considerable action between them and the Spaniards, and it is believed they will at the last find it their Interest on both sides, to conclude that difference in a happy Peace. The Admiral and Vice-Admiral of Spain, are providing for their Voyage into New-Spain, but will not be ready till the beginning of July, though they hasten it as much as may be, being to carry Quicksilver for their Mines, which at present is a very great want in that Province. The Gallies designed for Terra Firma, go not out before October, some say January: Order is given at Court that nine or ten of the Armada be immediately set out to Sea, the rest to follow them as fast as they can be fitted out, which occasions much discourse, though their design is not known.

Hamburg, April 21. The Duke of Newburz's preparations are much discour'd of in these parts, with the great refort of Grandees to his Court, and as we hear, Ambassadors from Poland.

The Treaty with the City of Erems is to be renewed the 23 instant at Stoadt. The Swedes are not a little concern'd, at the publishing some parts of their Propositions in Print, without their privacy, both sides disavowing the doing of it, it being manifest, that the words and sense of the published Propositions, are in many things, false and contradictory to the true ones presented.

The Ambassador from Sweden to Denmark, Steno Bielke, had his audience at Copenhagen before the King without Ceremony; and the Chancellor, and Stadhalsers Gable, are deputed Commissioners to treat of the particulars of his Negotiation.

Letters from Warsavia tell us, That the demands of Lubomirski do not at all please that King, and that the Diet are not able to compose the differences: That the King offers nothing more then an Act of Oblivion for the Rebellion against him, and has order'd his Troops to oppose the meetings of the Nobles that favor Lubomirski; and that he has refused to give audience to the Deputies of the Confederates. But of this we must expect a farther account.

Vienna, April 17. The Count Calonitz is now placed Governor of Neutra, the Count Palfy made Chancellor of Hungary. The Count Coningsbeck, as is said, designed for England, and the Count Gorger for France, in quality of Ambassadors. It is said, that the Diet at Ratisbon are at last resolv'd, if need require it, to succor the City of Bremen against the Swedes, who have 22000 men about those Countries, hoping by their Neighbourhood to make the better conclusion of the Treaty. The same Letters saying, that General Wrangle has received orders to repair speedily to Stockholm; and that the Deputies of Breme are gone from Staden to consult with their Magistrates upon the Swedes demands.

Bayonne, April 28. The Count de la Feuillade going lately into Spain, (upon pretence of carrying to the Archbishop of Ambrun his Brother, the dispatches for the Abbey of St. Remy at Rheims, lately conferr'd on him, by the French King) fought out the Marquess de St. Annez, challenging him to a Duel, for speaking dishonorably of the French King, and his Country, and abusing his Coat of Arms: But the Marquess told him, that he neither spake or acted any thing of that Nature, and if he pleas'd, would declare so to him in writing; but if that would not satisfie him, he was ready (old as he was) to give what other satisfaction he desired, provided he might not fight out of Madrid.

We are inform'd, that the Duke de Medina de les Torres did on the 25 instant, espouse the Infanta in the name of the Emperor; the Ceremonies performed by the Cardinal Colonna; and that in a short time she will begin her journey.

Venice, April 27. Unseasonable weather has hitherto hinder'd our last Convoy from setting out as was intended, but the next Monday it is determin'd if the wind serves, to set sayl under the command of General Barbaro, who takes all opportunities of expressing his zeal for the service of his Country: at his arrival he is to command as General of Candia, leading with him a great train of Nobility and private Adventurers. Signior Labia, being the second time kept back by a violent Feavor, but the Cavalier Verneda chief Engineer to the Republick, takes this opportunity of passing into the Levant with five hundred Foot, and is to take up four hundred more at Zante.

This day the Popes Nuntio parts from hence for Rome, being Recalled by his Holiness, who has designed him for