Argyll Manifold Base to well 30/24-20 gas lift pipeline
Argyll Manifold Base to well 30/24-25 gas lift pipeline
Argyll Manifold Base to well 30/24-28 gas lift pipeline

Pre-Commissioning Testing

The pipelines will be tested to the satisfaction of the Pipelines Inspectorate prior to commissioning

Design Pressure

The maximum pressure in each line will be less than the pressure for which the pipeline has been designed

Leak Detection

Pressure and flow will be monitored continuously

In the event of a leak being detected or a suspected leak the pressure and flow will be continuously monitored to ascertain the magnitude of the product loss

Routine surveillance will be carried out along the pipeline route

Emergency Action

In the event a major break occurs in a pipeline the following emergency action will be taken

- 1 All product delivery into the pipeline will be manually or automatically stopped
- 2 The Department of Energy Pipelines Inspectorate will be notified immediately
- 3 An underwater survey and aerial survey will be carried out to determine the location of the break
- 4 Should pollution result from the discharge of the product the emergency pollution control system held in constant readiness by the U.K. Offshore Operators Association will be mobilised

Recommissioning

In the event of a pipeline break, contingency plans to be agreed with the Department of Energy Pipelines Inspectorate will be implemented for the repair of the pipeline and proving its integrity before putting it back into service

On Bottom Stability and Safety

The pipelines, if authorised, will be laid in a manner that will ensure their safety and stability under all foreseeable conditions

Limits of Deviation

Each pipeline will be laid within a boundary of 150 metres on either side of the proposed route

Scotland Only

Hansard

The Official Verbatim Report of Parliamentary Proceedings

Hansard reflects opinion on all topics of the day and is of great interest to the business or professional man. In addition to a factual word-for-word transcription of speeches in debate, it contains the answers to all Parliamentary Questions, complete Division Lists, and following each session details of the composition of the House. Proceedings up to 10 p.m. each day are reported in the issue on sale at 8.30 the following morning at the Government Bookshop in Holborn. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, The London Gazette Office, Room 403, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and Section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 161 of the Companies Act, 1948, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
