From Saturday May 24. to Tuesday May 27. 1712.

At the Court at Kensington, the 23d of May, 1712.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable George Earl of Northampton, being, by Her Majesty's Letters Patents, Constituted Constable of Her Majesty's Tower of London, and Lord Lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets, took the usual Oaths.

As likewise Charles Duke of Shrewsbury, for Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

George Duke of Northumberland, for Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Berks.

Mountague Earl of Abingdon, for Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

Nathaniel Lord Crew, Lord Bishop of Durham, for Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Durham.

Lisbon, May 24. N. S. The Lord Portmore is gone to the Frontier, where our Forces are cantoned about Estremos, Elvas, Villaviciosa, Borba, and the neighbouring Places: We have this Day advice from thence, that the Marquis de Bay has pass'd the Caya with a strong Body of Horse, and we hourly expect to hear of the further Motions of the Enemy. Commodore Morrice sail'd from hence for the Streights on the First Instant; and on the Second, Admiral Baker set Sail for the Western Islands, in order to meet with the Ships coming from Brazil, and convoy them safe into this Harbour. The Company for England and Holland, consisting of Five English and as many Dutch Men of War, under Commodore Crowe, are to Sail to Morrow.

Florence, May 17. N. S. Our freshest Advices from the German Camp import, that the Garrison of Monte Philippo, being about One hundred and sixty Men, were made Prisoners of War, but that the Garrison of Porto Ercole, consisting of Five hundred Men, were permitted to march out with the usual Marks of Honour, excepting that they were to take no Cannon, nor Persons in Masks along with them, as they had desired: There were found in these two Places Thirty four Bras, and Twenty two Iron Pieces of Cannon, two Mortars, and a great quantity of Ammunition and Provisions. The whole loss of the Besiegers amounted only to Thirty six Men Kill'd, and Fifty Wounded. The Camp is broke up, and the Impenial Troops continue their March towards the Milanese. The Great Prince of Tuscany has of late been several times abroad to take the Air, being in a much better State of Health than he has been formerly. The Auditor Antenor is to go as the Great Duke's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Vienna, and the Cavalier Gondi is to set out from hence with the same Character, to carry a Compliment of Condolance upon the Death of the late Dauphin, to the Court of France.

Hamburgh, May 31. N. S. The Count de Lagnasco, Envoy from King Augustus to the King of Denmark, came hither some Days since from Coldingen, and is this Day set forward on his Journey to Utrecht, to assist as Plenipotentiary from the King his Master at the Congress which is held there for a General Peace. The Margrave of Anspach sent one of his Counsellors to the Elector and Electress, to desire them to be Godfather and Godmother to a young Prince, of which the Margrave was brought to Bed some Days since. We have Advice that the Differences between the King of Denmark and the Court of Gottorp are adjusted, and that a Treaty has been Signed by both Parties. There are Endeavours used to obtain a Cessation of the Hostilities between the Danes and Swedes upon the Elbe, and it is hop'd an Act of Neutrality will be Signed, so as the Liberty of Commerce may be re-established to the Town of Hamburg. Letters from Dresden import, that King Augustus having found that the Waters at Carelsbad, were spoiled by an Earthquake, was gone to Toplitz, to make use of the Waters of that Place.

From the Camp at Solemes, May 28. N. S. The great Convoy of Artillery and Ammunition, consisting of an Hundred forty seven Poats, which came from Gand to Tournay, is arriv'd at Marchiennes, and will proceed from thence under the Guard of Count Vehlen with the Palatin Troops, and Six hundred Men out of the Garrison of Tournay. In order to secure all such Convoys as shall be sent from Marchiennes to the Camp, a Body of Troops consisting of Thirty Squadrons of Horse, and Thirteen Battalions of Foot, under the Command of the Earl of Albemarle, is encamp'd at Denain on the other side of the Schelde, out of which his Lordship is, upon occasion, to furnish such a Number of Forces as may be necessary to Guard the Lines drawn from that Place to the Scarpe. We have Intelligence from the Camp of the Enemy, that when the Detachment of Four thousand Horse of both our Armies, and all the Grenadiers of the Duke of Ormond's Army, advanc'd as far as the Source of the Schelde, the French endeavour'd to secure the Abby of Loebel, and are now making Retrenchments upon all the Passages of the Schelde, below that Place. We have Intelligence from Cambray, that the same Day, about Five a Clock in the Morning, all the Officers march'd out of the Town to the Camp, but return'd about Two in the Afternoon, when they began to perceive that there was only a Detachment sent to observe their Motions and view their Situation.

From the Confederate Camp at Haspre, May 29. This Day our Army made a General Forage towards Cambray. The Earl of Albemarle continues still at Denain with his Detachment, within a League and an half from Valenciennes, and both the Armies are in their several Poits, without any notice of their marching. It is hourly expected that the Convoy from Marchiennes should arrive in the Camp.

From the Camp at Solemes, June 1. N. S. Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Ormond reviewed the six Regiments of British Foot, which did not join the Army till we came to this Camp; and his Grace had the Satisfaction to find them all in very good Order. Both our Armies, and that of the Enemy, continue in their former Camps; but the Enemy have sent Four and twenty Squadrons of Dragoons to Fomfomme, hear the Source of the Somme, to prevent our Parties making Incurfions that way into France.

Utrecht, May 31. N. S. The Marquis del Borgo, one of the Plenipotentiaries from the Duke of Savoy, who went lately to the Hague, is return'd from thence: Three of the Plenipotentiaries of the States General, Monsieur Vander Duffen, Monsieur Moer-mont, and Count Rechteren, are likewise come back from that Place to their Post here; and Monsieur Randwyck, another of their Plenipotentiaries, is gone thither; as is likewise Baron Bothmar, whose return is expected very speedily. Upon Sunday the Twenty ninth Instant, the French Ministers receiv'd an Exprefs from their Court; who, as they assure us, brings no other News of Importance, than that of the Dauphin's recovery from his late Indisposition. The Ministers of the Allies residing here, had Yesterday a Conference, as usual, at the Town-house, and it was then agreed, that no Meeting of that kind should be held on Thursday next. The same Day Mr. Harley went to Amsterdam, designing to return to Night; he waits only the arrival of the next Letters from England, before he proceeds on his way to Hanover.

Dublin, May 21. We have advice from Cork, that the Rochester and Folkestone had taken two Prizes and brought them in there, viz. the Mariana of Bourdeaux, of Two hundred Tuns, twenty Guns, and Sixty five Men, with Wine, Brandy, &c. for Martineco; and another Vessel of Rochell, of One hundred and fifty Tuns, Sixteen Guns, and One hundred Men, from St. Domingo, with Sugar, Indico, Hides, &c.

Admiralty-Office, May 24. On the second of February last, Capt. Matthews, Commander of Her Majesty's Ship the Chester, took a Spanish Vessel bound to Trinidad, from Porto Rico, laden with Provisions and other Goods, and on the fifth of the same Month he took a French Ship laden with Wine and Provisions from Bourdeaux. On the fourth of February last Capt. Constable, of the Panther, took the Gallatea, a French Ship of War of thirty Guns, and Two hundred and twenty Men; and on the Seventeenth a Merchant Ship laden with Wines and Brandies from Bourdeaux, as also another Merchant Ship on the Twenty first, laden with Wines and Brandies. On the Eleventh of February last, Capt. Smith of the Enterprize, took the John of Nants; on the Eighteenth the St. James, of Ten Guns, from Bourdeaux, both laden with Wine, Brandy and Provisions; and on the Twenty third of the said Month, he took the Laloire, a French Man of War from Rochford, of Thirty Guns, and Two hundred thirty seven Men. On the Twentieth of February last, Capt. William Elford, of the Hector, took the Victoria of Bourdeaux, of Eighteen Guns and Seventy six Men. On the Twenty second of February last, Capt. Matthew Elford, of the Experiment, took a Ship of One hundred and eighty Tuns, and Twenty two Men, from Rochel, partly laden with Wine and Brandies. On the Twenty sixth of April last, Capt. Boys of the Tilbury, brought into Lisbon, a small Privateer of four Guns and thirty four Men, which he took off the Burlings, as he did another of the same number of Guns and thirty nine Men off of Lisbon, which he also brought into Lisbon at the same time. On the twenty ninth of April last, Capt. Aldred of the Rochester, took the St. Julis de Benie, a French Ship of One hundred Tuns, fourteen Guns and fifty Men, laden with Salt; and on the Eighth Instant another French Ship of sixteen Guns and One hundred Men, laden with Sugar and Indico from St. Domingo. Capt. Gray of the Folkestone, lately took an outward-bound Ship for Placentia, as also two other Ships for Martineco, in Company of the Rochester. On the fifth of May last Capt. Blinston, of the Lynn, and Capt. Feild, of the Ludlow Castle, brought into Lisbon a Prize from the Canaries, which they had taken some time before. On the sixth Instant, Capt. Owen, of the Solebay, brought into Lisbon a small Privateer of two Guns, six Artareroes, and thirty seven Men, and a Portuguese Ship from Rochell, which he had taken some time before. On the ninth Instant, Captain Temple, of the South-Sea Castle, brought a Privateer of St. Maloe, of fourteen Guns and One-hundred Men into Lisbon, which he took some time before.

¶ Sarah Tomling, of Town-Malling near Maidston in Kent, having been for above 20 Years very much afflicted with the stone in the Bladder, and for the last 3 Years could not stir abroad, nor make any Water but by Drops; and after having taken many Things without any Relief, was advis'd to take some of the Powder sold by Mr. Rogers in Fleetstreet, and Mr. Aylmer in Cornhill, Bookellers, and immediately after the taking it, she voided 35 Stones, the least as big as a Pea, and some as a Kidney-bean, and 1 large Stone 3 Inches and an half about and above 2 Inches long, upon the coming away of which, she made above 3 Quarts of Water. Before she voided this Stone she was in continual racking Pain for above 2 Months, but immediately after was at perfect Ease, and so continues. This Stone is to be seen at Mr. Aylmer's, Bookeller in Cornhill. The Truth of this will be attested by Mrs. Santlow, at the Golden Lion against St. Magnus Church upon London-bridge, a Dry-Salters, who was present when this wonderful Cure was wrought.
