Milan, June 11. N. S. Some Days ago the Baron de Martinii, the Emperor's Commissary-General in Italy, Died in this City, being very much regretted for the Knowledge he had of the Emperor's Affairs, and the true Interest of this Country. Upon this Occasion an Express was immediately dispatched to Vienna; so that we shall soon know who will be appointed to succeed him in that important Post. General Zurlauben who Commanded at the Siege of Porto Ercole arrived here some Days ago, and is preparing to go to Turin, to serve in Piedmont during this Campaign. Count Thaur is likewise daily expected here from Vienna for the same Purpose, it being thought that he will command the Army in Chianti, and that the Duke of Savoy will not take the Field this Year. All the German Forces design'd to be employed in that Army, are on their March towards Piedmont, and those intended for Catalonia, as we are assured, upon the Thirteenth Instant will be all arrived at Vado.

From the Camp at Chateau Cambresis, June 18. N. S. On Thursday the Sixteenth Instant, the Troops of Hanover, which make part of the Duke of Ormond's Army, were review'd by his Grace, and he found them all to be in very good Order. Prince Eugene, the Field Deputies of the States, with Monsieur Welden, and Monsieur Hop, came Yesterday to confer with his Grace upon the present situation of Affairs, after which his Grace gave them a splendid Entertainment. There is not to be great a Progress made in the Siege of Quefnoy, as otherwise might have been expected, because the Engineers have thought it proper to defer breaking Ground during the light Nights. Both our Armies, and that of the Enemy continue in their former Camp.

Brussels, June 23. N. S. Letters of the Twentieth from the Camp before Quefnoy, bring an Account that the Trenches were opened the Night before, about half an Hour after Nine. There were two Attacks form'd against the Place; four Battalions being commanded for each Attack. At that of the left, the loss of Men was very small, the Enemy not having perceived the Workmen till the Locoment was made, but at the right Attack, the Losses said to be considerable: Those Letters add, that some Advices mentioned the arrival of Major Grov in near Liez, from the Incurfion he had made into Champagne, and that he had brought with him several Prifoners and great Booty. They write of the Eighth of Madrid, that the Dutchess of Anjou was brought to Bed the Day before of a Son.

Utrecht, June 24. N. S. Upon Wednesday the Twenty-seventh Instant, one of the Queen's Messengers arrived here with Letters of the Sixteenth and seventeenth from Great Britain, and soon after most of the Ministers of the Allies went to the Lord Privy Seal's House, where they had Conferences with the Lordship, and afterwards parted with marks of Satisfaction, upon what his Lordship had thought proper to communicate to them. The same Day Count Sinzendorf dispatch'd an Express to the Army, another to Vienna, and a third to the Court of the Elector Palatine, and in the Evening set out from hence for the Hague. The Counts Farouca and La Cunha, Ministers of the King of Portugal, are returned from the Hague, in order to assist at the Conferences, which of late have not been so frequently held, as they will necessarily be in the Course of the present Negotiations of Peace. The Cardinal of Bouillon is come from Werden to this Place, and intends shortly to take a House here.
