St. James's, June 17.

THIS Day the following Address from the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, was presented to Her Majesty, by John Rotherham, Esq. their Chairman, accompanied by a considerable number of the Gentlemen in the Commission of the Peace for the County aforesaid, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Buckingham, Lord President of Her Majesty's Council, and Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, assembled at the General Sessions of the Peace held for the said County in June, 1712.

May it please Your Majesty,

AS we cannot but with all Gratitude applaud Your Goodness and Condescension in communicating to both Houses of Parliament Your Royal Intentions, as well as the Terms upon which Your Majesty may now make a firm and lasting Peace; so, we entirely confide in Your Majesty's utmost Endeavours to settle it in such a manner, as will not only tend to the Welfare and Prosperity of all Your Dominions, but to what is necessary for the Security and Benefit of Your Allies; as also for the assuring of the Protestant Succession, as by Law Established in the House of Hanover. And we firmly believe, that all Your Majesty's Subjects (except some few, misled by Self-Interest or Ambition) will heartily join with Us, in most humbly praying Your Majesty, to perfect and finish so Difficult, so Great, and so Good a Work, to make Peace and War being the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown.

Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very Graciously, and to return the following most Gracious Answer.

I Give you Thanks for this Address; which confirms in me the good Opinion I have of your Zeal and Prudence on all Occasions, wherein you can be serviceable to Me or the Publick.

Genoa, May 23. N. S. The thirteen German Officers who lately arrived at St. Pietro d'Arena, are disposing all things necessary for the Imperial Troops who are on their March for Vado, in order to embark on the Confederate Fleet: In the mean time that Fleet is sailed for Leghorn to take in Provisions, having first sent in thither a French Prize and twelve Transport Ships, under the Conduct of two Men of War, who have Orders to follow the Fleet thither. A Courier is arrived here from Vienna, with Dispatches for Barcelona, and he brings an Account of the Coronation of the Emperor, as King of Hungary; and says, that in his Passage he met with the German Troops who were on their March to the Milanese. This Morning the Ambassador of Portugal parted from hence, being extremely satisfied with the Reception he had met with here from the Nobility, and embarked on a Galley belonging to the Squadron of this Republick, which is to Conduct him to Civita Vecchia. On Wednesday last a Catalan Bark arrived here in six Days from Barcelona, and brings advice that the Allies had taken Figueres and Cadaques, and several other Places which open the Passages into Catalonia. The same Letters farther add, that about thirty Neapolitan Vessels were arrived at Barcelona, and brought Ammunition and Provisions for that City. On Thursday last several Ships belonging to this Republick came in thither, laden with Corn and Oil; among which there were two from Gallipoli, and two from Barbary, the Masters of the latter report, that all the Privateers of Tunis were returned home without any Booty; but that an English Privateer had brought in thither a French Ship laden with Corn and other Commodities, and that the Differences between that City and the Algerines were adjusted.

Venice, June 10. N. S. They write from the Island of Zant, which is under the Dominion of this State, that in the Week of the Jews Passover, a Boy of six or seven Years of Age was missing, and on the Easter-Eve, O. S. was found dead on the Seashore, three Miles from the Town: The Greeks gave out that this Child had been Crucify'd by the Jews; whereupon there was a great Concourse of disorderly People who plunder'd the Houses of all the Jews, and kill'd one of them; and it was fear'd, during the Tumult, that they would not have spared the rest of the Houses in the Town: But the Signior Erizzo happening to come into Port that same Day with two Venetian Men of War, he immediately landed five hundred Soldiers, who soon made all things quiet. The Jews give out, that their Loss is very considerable, and that they will leave the Island; but it is believ'd they will be persuaded to stay, seeing an exact Search is making by the Government, to find out the Chief in the Disorder, who will be severely punished, that such Disturbances may not happen for the future. The Senate have resolved upon the establishing a Lottery to raise Three hundred and fifty thousand Ducats, at the Rate of Two Ducats for each Ticket: The Prizes are to consist of several Demesnes, Privileges, and such like sort of Advantages. The Magistrates of Health of this City, being assur'd, by repeated Advices from Croatia, that the Country was free from all Contagion, has restor'd the Liberty of Commerce, which was formerly with that Place, and the neighbouring Provinces. The Convoy design'd for the Levant is sail'd from hence with a favourable Wind. They write from Rome, that on the thirtieth of the last Month, the Pope performed the Ceremony of shutting the Mouth of four new Cardinals, who were then in Town. The Ambassador of Portugal has notified his arrival to the Cardinals Paulucci and Albani, and the Envoy of that Crown has had an Audience of the Pope, to return him Thanks, in the Name of his Master, for the Promotion of the Inquisitor of Portugal to the Dignity of a Cardinal. The violent Rains have spoiled all the Corn and Hay about Rome, and have been like-likewise the occasion of making the Pope defer his Journey to Castello Gandolfo. We hear that Don Julio Visconti is arrived at Naples, where he is made Inspector General of all the Accounts, and is not to be dependant either on the Vice-Roy or the General.

Hamburg, June 17. N. S. We have an Account by Letters from Dresden of the Tenth Instant, that King Augustus returned thither the Day before, being in Daily expectation of the arrival of Prince Menzikoff to concert proper Measures for the ensuing Campaign in Pomerania. It is reported there that his Polish Majesty will not be at the Head of his Army so soon as it was expected, because he will be obliged to have a nearer and more watchful Eye upon Poland, in case the King of Sweden should make his return through that Kingdom. However all the regular Troop are already march'd out of Saxony, and in the mean time the Militia Guard the Frontiers and the Fortresses. The Saxon Artillery with its Convoy, are arrived at Wittenberg where they must expect Orders from General Scholten, before they can proceed on their March. The Squadrons both of the Danish and Suedish Men of War, being now in the Northern Sea, and in View of each other; and the Forces of each Fleet being almost equal, it is expected that some Action may happen between the two Nations. Six light Frigates and a large Man of War of sixty Guns are now equipping at Gluckstadt, in the Territories of Holstein; and it is given out that they are to make a Descent upon the Dutchy of Bremen.

Berlin, June 18. N. S. The Commissaries which the King had appointed to examine the Affair between Monsieur Blaspiel and Monsieur Gromkau, relating to the Office of Commissary of War, which was represented by the latter to have been in very great Disorder, have made their report much to the Justification of Monsieur Blaspiel, so that the King has been pleas'd to proceed no farther, but to bid him be more diligent for the future. The Swedish Secretary residing here has received a great Packet of Letters, by two Swedish Officers, who came from Bender by the way of Vienna, amongst them there was one directed for his Prussian Majesty, which was delivered to him by the said Secretary, but the Contents of this Express are kept very secret. Yesterday Prince Menzikoff, who has been at Dresden to confer with King Augustus concerning the Operations of the approaching Campaign, arrived at this Place from Dresden and lodges at the House of Count Galofkin, who is the Czar's Minister residing here. It is thought he will have an Audience of his Prussian Majesty to Morrow in the Afternoon, at Charlottemburg. The Prince will make but a short stay here, having all things laid ready on the Road for his speedy Passage to his Command in Pomerania. The King is making strict Enquiry into the Management of his Treasury, and Monsieur Berchem, Director of one of the Chambers of the Revenue, having been found deficient in the Account of Money that came under his care, has been obliged to give a Caution of an Hundred and fourscore thousand Dollars.
