At the Court at Kenfington, the 24th of June, 1712.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

AN Address from the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, having been presented to Her Majesty, that she would be graciously pleas'd to direct such Methods to be taken as Her Majesty should think most proper, in order to discover the Printers and Publishers of the Reasons for the Protestation entred in the Journal of that House the 2th of May last; and of one other Malicious and Scandalous Paper, Intituled, The Protest of the Lords upon A— Her Majesty for Her Sp—; with the Names of the Lords. Price 2 d. And of any Person or Persons directing the Printing thereof, which having been this Day read at the Board, Her Majesty in Council taking the same into Consideration, was thereupon graciously pleas'd to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, That whosoever shall discover to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Printer or Printers of the said Pamphlets, or either of them, within three Months from the Date hereof, so as he or they shall be brought to Justice, shall have and receive the Reward of Fifty Pounds; and likewise whoever shall within the said three Months discover the Person or Persons that directed the Printing thereof, or of either of them, so as he or they shall be brought to Justice, shall have and receive the Reward of One hundred Pounds; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer is to cause the aforesaid Sums to be paid upon the Conviction of the said Persons accordingly.

Edward Southwell.

Whereas Her Majesty by Order in Council of the Sixth of September last, and Royal Proclamation of the same Date, did direct, that all Ships or Vessels coming from the Baltick Sea, and other Places in or near Altena, Gluckstad, the Little East, Hamburg on the Elb, Bremen on the Weser, and Emben on the Eems, should perform Quarentine, to prevent any Infection that might be brought by Ships coming into the Ports of this Kingdom, from any of the said Places Infected with the Plague. And Her Majesty being informed that Hamburg and other Places without the Sound are free from the Plague, or any other Infectious Distemper, is therefore graciously pleas'd, with the Advice of her Privy-Council, this Day to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, That the Quarentine be forthwith taken off from all Ships that are or shall hereafter come from Hamburg or other Places without the Sound: And the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, the Lieutenant-General and Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and Her Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Edward Southwell.

This Day the Right Honourable William Lord Cheyne Viscount Newhaven, took the Oaths appointed to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, his Lordship being Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Bucks.

The following Address from the University of Cambridge, was presented to Her Majesty by Dr. Bentley, in the Absence of the Vice-Chancellor, accompanied by the Heads of Colleges, Doctors and Masters of Arts, the Honourable Dixie Wind-for, Esq; and Thomas Paske, Doctor of Laws, their Representatives in Parliament, as likewise by several Peers and Gentlemen, formerly Members of that University, and introduced by the Most Honourable the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

THough we have frequently had the Honour of approaching the Throne with our Addresses of Joy for Victories in War, we have now a more welcome Occasion and more agreeable to our Profession, to congratulate Your Majesty and Your Kingdoms upon the near Prospect of an honourable and advantageous Peace.

The concluding as well as commencing War is Your undoubted Prerogative: And we esteem'd all our Interests in the Peace both justly lodg'd in Your Power, and safely in Your Wisdom, even while the Negotiations were secret: Nor have the Artifices to obstruct them had any other Effect, than to illustrate Your Majesty's Goodness, and hasten Your Subjects Joy; when to stop the false Clamours of Envy and Faction, You condescended to acquaint Your People with the glorious Terms You were transacting for them.

Successful Wars have been often carried on by Your Royal Predecessors, and British Valour has been long Famous through all Nations of the World; but then the Fruits of them were commonly lost, by slipping the proper Seasons of Treaty and let others step before us to reap their own Advantage out of Our Blood and Treasure. But a new Honour will now accrue to Our Nation, under Your Majesty's watchful Conduct; and Prudence will be part of our Character, as well as Courage and Magnanimity.

It was worthy of Your Majesty's consummate Judgment and Experience, to know when to put a stop to the Course of Your own Victories, lest you should overturn the Balance of Power Abroad, which you had laboured to adjust; or quite exhaust the source of Power at Home, by a too prodigal and unqual Expence of it upon vast Acquisitions for others, and small returns for our selves.

Your Establishing the Succession to these Kingdoms in Your Illustrious Relations of the House of Hannover; and your pius Concern for the German Protestants, who in a late Treaty had been neglected, call peculiarly for the Thanks and Acknowledgments of Your Clergy: As Your securing and extending our National Commerce in all its Branches and Situations, beyond whatever Britain enjoyed or aspired to before, raises universal Gratitude in the Breasts of Your People. And Your generous Care for all Your Allies, in vigorously espousing their just Interests and procuring them sufficient Barriers, will render this approaching Peace (which we doubt not the God of Peace will enable You to accomplish) as General and Extensive as the Bounds of Europe, and as lasting as human Affairs can promise; and be hereafter the most shining Glory of Your Majesty's happy Reign.

above all Your former Lawrels in a long and prosperous War.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to make this most Gracious Answer.

I Receive this Address from my Good University of Cambridge, v ryki dly.

The Pleasur I took in the many Victories God has given our Forces, was that it y might procure a good Peace, and I hope, by Gods Blessing, this will answer yur Expectations, in bei g Happy and Advantageous to My own People, secure to l y Allies, and a Strength to the Protestant Intere wherever.

This Day the following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable James Bertie Esq; one of the Knight of the Shire of the County of Middlesex, in behalf of himself and of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the said County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Normandy, Lord President of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council Castos Rotulorum, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the County of Middlesex.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Deputy Lieutenants for the County of Middlesex, do most humbly acknowledge Your Majesty's gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your People the Terms propos'd for a General Peace, since it is Your Majesty's undoubted Right and Prerogative to make Peace and War, and we beg leave to express our dislike of all such Practices as have been made use of to obstruct Your Majesty's gracious Purposes; We therefore intirely rely on Your Majesty to complete so desirable a Work.

May the Divine Providence which has hitherto Protected Your Government against all Designs both Abroad and at Home still guide and direct You in all Your Councils that we may enjoy a firm and lasting Peace; and that the Fruits of Your Pious Reign may be derived to our Posterity in the Possession of our most Holy Religion, as it is now secured to us by a Protestant Succession, and the Laws of the Kingdom.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

I Accept kindly this Address, and am well assur'd of Your Zeal both for Me and the Publick.

The following Address for the City of Gloucester, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Webb, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, and Westerdale Viney, Esq; introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, their Lord Lieutenant.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of Her truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Two Representatives Gentlemen, Citizens, Clergy and other Inhabitants of Her Ancient City of Gloucester.

Madam,
WE esteem it our peculiar Happiness that we live under the Protection of so Glorious a Queen, whom, He that is both the Lord of Hosts and God of Peace, hath so eminently signaliz'd by the Successes of a long and expensive War, and now to our great Comfort made the happy Instrument of that Irrevocability which we patiently expect: We, inclin'd by the Example of Your Two Houses of Parliament, and Your Capital City of London, do return our most humble Acknowledgments of Your most gracious Condescension in imparting to Your Subj the Progress by You made, towards the conclusion of a Peace, so honourable to Your Crown, so advantageous to Your Dominions, so much to the Reputation of Your Present Ministry, and to the just Satisfaction of Your Allies; and also of Your great Care to establish This upon a steady Foundation, by providing Securities for the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover.

That Your Majesty and all Your loving Subjells may speedily enjoy the Fruits of all Your Cares, in a durable Peace, and under Your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, (notwithstanding those artful Endeavours that have been made use of to obstruct it) is the most devout Prayer of, May it please Your Majesty Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjells.

The following Address from the City of Bristol, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Colston, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort; their Lord-Lieutenant.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign!
AS Your Majesty's Reign has been remarkably distinguished by a most tender Regard for the Welfare of Your Subjells, we beg leave to make this publick Acknowledgement, and in the most Dutiful Manner, to express our grateful Sense of it; our Duty and Your Goodness, will always require this from us. But we think our selves, at this time, more particularly obliged to return our most humble Thanks to Your Majesty, for Your Gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your Subjells the Terms of Peace; which is a Blessing, always as much desired by good Subjells, as 'tis envied by those, whom You have not honoured with the glory of accomplishing it; by those, who presume upon that Power, which is Your Prerogative; by those who have attempted to divert You of that Authority, which You derive from the most High. A Blessing, which, we trust, by Your Wisdom and the great Integrity of that Excellent Prelate (with whom You have honoured this Diocess) will in good time be conferred on us, attend'd with all those Glorious Advantages, whereby Trade and Plenty can be promoted; whereby the Succession of the Government, and that Holy Religion happily established among us, can be most inviolably secured. A Blessing which we are assured, by Your Goodness and Affection to us; and by Your Uprightness and Ability of those, who have now the Honour of Advising Your Sacred Majesty cannot deceive our Hopes of being as Secure, as Honourable, as good, as the most faithful and able Statesman can contrive, the most loyal and dutiful Subjells can desire, as the most Pious and Gracious Queen can confer. That it may please the Divine Providence, long to continue Your Sacred Majesty among us, to improve and enjoy all the Happy Influences of Your Peace, shall be the constant Prayer of all good Men, and particularly of us, Your most Loyal and Dutiful Subjells.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Arch-bishop and Bishops, and of the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation Assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjells, the Arch-bishop, and Bishops, and the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation Assembled, beg leave to return our most humble Thanks to Your Majesty for Your Gracious Answer to the Convocation, upon receiving the Form they had prepared for the Consecrating of Churches and Chapels; and we think ourselves obliged humbly to assure Your Majesty, that at our next Meeting, we will use our best Endeavours to give Your Majesty the Satisfaction You are pleas'd to expect, of seeing the Matters You have recommended to us, for the Interest of Religion, brought to a happy Conclusion.

This Day the following Address from the City of Chester, was presented to Her Majesty by Peter Shakerly, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Chester, in Common Council Assembled.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, with all humble Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension and Goodness, in communicating to the Representatives of Your People in Parliament, the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made.

Your Majesty (whose undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War) hath filled the Hearts of Your good Subjects with unspeakable Joy, upon the most agreeable Prospect of an approaching Peace, and that upon such Terms as will make them ample Amends for the Burthen which they have undergone, during the whole Course of the War.

We beseech Almighty God to assist Your Majesty in carrying on this great and good Work to a happy Conclusion; and that Your Majesty's Reign may be as Glorious and Remarkable for the Fruits of Peace, as it hath been for those of War; and that after a long and happy Reign over an obedient and faithful People, You may at last exchange Your Temporal for an Eternal Crown of Glory.

The following Address from the Corporation of Stamford in Lincolnshire, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Guilford, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Capital Burgeses, Clergy, Gentlemen and Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Ancient and truly Loyal Corporation of Stamford in Lincolnshire.

Dread Sovereign!

WE humbly beg leave to approach Your Majesty, with Hearts possessed of all the Duty and Gratitude which the repeated Instances of Your Goodness to Your People do inspire.

The considering the Difficulties of a long and expensive War; the being willing to take off the Burthen upon safe and honourable Terms, by a steady and firm pursuit of the Interest of Your own Kingdoms; the recompensing our Zeal for Your Service; the security, improvement, and enlarging our Trade by extending it to Coasts it never yet had reached, are the great Things we come to pray our full and hearty Thanks for.

The Advancement of the Credit of Publick Faith by insisting upon just and reasonable Satisfaction for Your High Allies; the setting the Liberties of Europe safe from any exorbitant Power and Ambition; the rendering our Religion and Laws, our Church and State fix'd and unmovable, by assuring the Protestant Succession is by Law Established in the House of Hanover, shall, besides our Thanks, receive the Blessings of late Prosperity.

May Your Majesty's Wisdom, wherewith this Christian Work has been so far, and so well advanced, be able to defat the interested Purposes of the Enemies to it, and compleat so great and so good a Work.

May the God of Peace grant, that in a long and quiet Reign, glorious to Your Self, happy to us, Your Majesty may enjoy the Fruits of a glorious Peace, after a Successful War.

The following humble Address from the Town of Aldeburgh in Suffolk, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Johnson and William Johnson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Freemen and Town-Clerk, of the Borough of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE most Royal Goodness, and the Greatest Condescension hath been expressed by Your Majesty, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which Peace may be made; and Your firm Zeal for the Interest of Your own Kingdoms, to preserve the Protestant Succession in the most illustrious House of Hanover; the Liberties, Properties, and flourishing Trade of all Your People, and endeavouring the Satisfaction of Your Allies, must strike Confusion in the Minds of all Your Enemies, at Home and Abroad; and the deepest Impressions of Gratitude and most sincere Obedience, in the Hearts of all Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, as it doth particularly in ours, who are so much concerned in having a freedom of Navigation, and a Prospect of enlarging it, and our Commerce, by Your choice of a Ministry so Zealous to promote the Publick Good; and Your Majesty's admirable Prudence and Wisdom, in which we entirely Confide, for perfecting of so Glorious a Work.

That Your Majesty may long live to see the Blessed Fruits and Effects of a good and lasting Peace, are the most ardent Desires and fervent Prayers of us, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

At which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Dresden, June 24. N. S. Prince Menzikoff, during his Stay here, had several Conferences in private with King Augustus, at which no Person assisted but the Baron de Lowendal: Before his departure for Berlin, his Polish Majesty made him a Present of a Sword very richly set with Diamonds. We hear from Poland, that the Staroste Grudzinsky, a Partisan of the Palatine of Kiovia, had penetrated with between Three and four thousand Men into the Palatinate of Poshania: And that some other of the Palatine of Kiovia's Troops were advanced as far as Lissa, which Place had been abandoned by the Muscovites. Great quantities of Ammunition are sent hither from Leiplich, and are disposed of in this City, and the Garrisons on the Frontiers of the Electorate. A Detachment of the Militia is upon their March, in order to be posted in the Lines of the Lower Lusatia, where it is to be Reinforced by six Regiments of Muscovites. It is said here, that the King will go this Week for Poshania, to give the necessary Orders in Poland. In the mean time the Count de Czembek, Great Chancellor of the Crown, who is now at this Place, continues to have frequent Conferences with the Ministers of State, concerning the present posture of Affairs.

Hamburg, June 24. N. S. All the Letters from Poland, Dresden and Vienna agree in the Confirmation of the departure of the King of Sweden from Bender; but are not particular as to the way by which his Majesty is to return to his own Territories. But, according to the common Opinion, it will be through Hungary, because the Emperor has given Orders to all the Governors of the Places there, to make a fitting Reception for him according to his Rank, and to defray his Charges throughout the whole Kingdom. They likewise add, that Count Wratislaw was named as the Person who was to Compliment his Majesty upon his arrival there: The Letters from Breslaw of the 18th advise, that the King of Sweden will pass through Hungary with Three thousand Men; and that the Palatin Palatin of Kiovia will march with his Body by the way of Poland, and join him upon the Borders of Pomerania. According to our last Advices from Colinduen, the King of Denmark would set out from thence for Pomerania on the fourth of July following. The Danish Troops which were in Pomerania have begun their March under the Command of Lieutenant-General Kreaigh, who is to join several Regiments from the Garrison of Rostock, and both of them together are to form the Blockade of Wilmar. The greatest part of the Danish Infantry will be sent into Holstein, and their Posts will be supplied by the Saxons.

Hamburg, June 28. N. S. According to the Letters from Poland, the Crown General had given Audience to the Aga, which had been sent by the Port, to notify the conclusion of the Peace between the Sultan and his Czarish Majesty, and at the same time to demand a free Passage thorough Poland for the King of Sweden. His Czarish Majesty has a Body of Fifteen thousand chosen Men in Finland, under the Command of the Admiral Apraxin, and it is expected that they shall undertake something of great Importance. The Danish General Rantzow parted from hence some Days ago to command at the Blockade at Wilmar.

Whereas by a late Act of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for the better Collecting and Receiving the Duties granted for the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and for the further Benefit thereof, and for the preserving Her Majesty's Harbour Moorings; All Merchant Ships are Prohibited to stop, or fasten to any of Her Majesty's Moorings, or fix themselves to any of Her Majesty's Ships or Hulks, under the Penalty of 10 l. for each and every Tide such Merchant Ship shall stay at the said Moorings, &c. These are to give Notice thereof, to the effect the same may be avoided.

To be are to give Notice, That from and after Thursday the Third of July next, the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) between the General Post-Office, London, and Tunbridge-Wells, during the Summer Season.

Whereas a Letter has been sent to the Commissioners for taking care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, &c. subscribed Tho. Ray, without Date, offering to discover some indirect Practices of the Officers employ'd in the Hospital at Deal: If the Person who wrote the said Letter will attend the Commissioners at their Office in Prince's Court, Westminster, and make out the same, he shall receive all fitting Protection and Encouragement.

The Committee for Letting the Bridgehouse Lands give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease the Yard formerly called Castle's Dock, now commonly called the Merchants Yard, lying at Deptford Creek, wherein are two large Launches and a large dry Dock, with convenient Sawpits and Warehouses, now in the Possession of Edward Pople, Ship-builder, containing in breadth or front to the Thames 243 Foot, and in length 290 Foot: And also one Tenement on the South-East End of London-Bridge, in the Possession of Mr. Pope, Haberdasher. And the said Committee will sit in the Council-Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wednesday the 2d Day of July next, at 3 in the Afternoon, in order to receive Proposals for the Premises severally, whereof more particularly Information may be had at the Comptrollers Office in the Bridgeyard, Southwark.
