And it is and shall be our constant Prayers that Your Majesty may long live and enjoy the Blessings of a prosperous, happy, and peaceable Reign over us.

The following Address from the City of Winchester, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Lewis, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, who had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Southampton.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of Your Majesty's most ancient City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE most humbly beg leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude and Affection, to declare our greatest Satisfaction in Your Majesty's continued Endeavours to obtain a Peace, and on such Terms as Your Majesty, according to Your just and undoubted Prerogative shall think fit to Conclude; we having an entire Confidence in Your Majesty's Care, and in Your Ministers faithful Assistance to secure our Religion as here in England by Law Established, our Liberties and Trade, and also the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, whereby these Blessings of Peace may in humane Probability be quietly enjoyed by us and our Posterity.

We are surpriz'd at the repeated artificial Endeavours to wrest the Negotiations and perfecting of Peace from Your Majesty; yet we sincerely wish and hope, that the Honour of procuring the same to Europe, and in an advantageous and honourable Manner to Great Britain, with relation to the extraordinary Burden of this War, will be soon proclaimed due to Your Majesty.

No Disappointments which Your Majesty shall meet with from those that now envy us the Happiness of Peace, shall discourage us from our Loyalty, and readiness to support and assist Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, nor deter us from sending such Representatives to Parliament as shall truly Concur in the most proper Methods to support the Prerogative of the Crown, the Church of England, the Welfare of Great Britain, and the Hanover Protestant Succession thereto.

We heartily Pray that Your Majesty may long live in Health and Prosperity, to Reign over dutiful and loyal Subjects, to their Comfort, and to the frustrating the Contrivances of others.

The following Address from the Borough of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Henry Bertie and Francis Annesly, Esqs, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Your Antient and Loyal Corporation of Westbury in the County of Wilts.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us, among the rest of Your most dutiful Subjects, with all Humility to express our Thankfulness to Your Majesty for the Endeavours You have been pleas'd to use, in procuring an honourable and advantageous Peace.

All who have the Happiness of being under Your Majesty's Government, cannot but be sensible what a particular Regard Your Majesty has had to the Trade, Wealth, and Glory of Your own People.

Nor can our share in these Advantages be, with any Justice, envied us by those of Your Majesty's Allies, for whom You have obtained such great Accessions of Dominion and Power, as will leave 'em no room to fear an Insecure Peace, or to complain that they have not been more than amply Recompenced for the Proportion they have born in the Expence of the War.

The great Wisdom of Your Majesty, and the Vigilance and Resolution of those with whom You have entrusted the administration of Affairs, will, we doubt not, defeat the malicious Contrivances of ill Men, few in Number, and contemptible in their Interest, who seem willing to Sacrifice our present Happiness, and our future Hopes, to their own restless Ambition, Avarice and Resentment.

We cannot but promise to our selves all the happy Effects intended by Your Majesty, in the present Negotiation for Peace, whilst the Persons to whom the Management of that important Affair is committed, are too Wise to mistake, and too Honest to betray the Interest of their Country. And whilst You have a General at the Head of Your Armies, who is above the suspicion of any private Views, who proposes to himself no Advantages by his Services, but the Honour of having served so Excellent a Queen and his Country, and whose greatest Ambition it is, to pay the profoundest Reverence to the Sacred Person of Your Majesty, and the most strict Obedience to all Your Commands.

The following Address from the Corporation of Dunwich, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Sergeant Richardson, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bullingbrooke, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of Your Majesty's antient and loyal Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk, in Common-Council Assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, humbly beg leave to approach Your Sacred Person, to express our grateful Acknowledgments to Your Majesty, for Your most gracious Condescension, in Communicating to Your People the Terms on which a safe and honourable Peace may be obtained.

We are deeply sensible of the Princely Regard Your Majesty has at all times shewn for the Good and Welfare of Your People, but never had we a greater Occasion to express our unfeigned Joy and Satisfaction, than in the Affectionate Care Your Majesty has been pleas'd to shew for the Happiness and Prosperity of Your People, in securing the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover, and restoring Peace to Europe.

May the God of Peace bless Your Royal Endeavours in bringing to Perfection so great and glorious a Work, and disappoint the restless and factious Contrivances of those who are Enemies to it, that we and all Your Loyal People may long Flourish, and Rejoice under Your Majesty's most auspicious and benign Reign.

The following Address from the Corporation of Cambridge, was presented to Her Majesty by John Hinde Cotton, and Samuel Sheperd, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bullingbrooke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Dread Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgesses, of Your Majesty's Antient Corporation of Cambridge, do acknowledge with the greatest Humility, Your Majesty's most Gracious Condescension,

in
