

The following Address from the Borough and Parish of Agmondesham alias Amer sham, in the County of Bucks, was presented to Her Majesty by John Drake, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable William Lord Chzyne, Viscount Newhaven, Lord Lieutenant, and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the antient Borough and Parish of Agmondesham alias Amer sham, in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

Your Majesty's whole Reign has been one glorious Series of heroick Goodness, for, without delighting in War, You have firmly pursu'd it, with a View of obtaining the only justifiable End, a happy Peace.

We doubt not, Madam, but Your singular Tenderness for Your People, had brought this inestimable Blessing upon us sooner, had not Your Majesty's pious Cares been with great Artifice disappointed by those, whose Ingratitude to Your Majesty and their Fellow Subjects, is as notorious as their bounds Avarice and Ambition.

Your Majesty's late Condescension in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which this ruinous War may be brought to a happy End, is so very remarkable, that if we duly reflect on Your Majesty's just Prerogative, we must acknowledge it the effect of Your extraordinary Indulgence to Your People.

Your Majesty's Experience, Magnanimity and Wisdom, and the Affection with which You have ever been moved to consult Your Peoples Happiness, leaves us no room to fear Your Royal Care, to secure to us and our Posterity, all our Religious and Civil Rights and the Protestant Succession, in the conclusion of this Peace, which is Your undoubted Right to compleat, and our Duty as well as Interest to submit to and be thankful for.

The following Address from the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon, was presented to Her Majesty by Nathaniel Herne and Fredrick Herne, Esqs; being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, their High Steward.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects crave leave, with all Humility, to Congratulate Your Majesty's most prudent and unparalleled Administration, in endeavouring to procure a Peace honourable to Your Majesty, satisfactory to Your reasonable Allies, and in all respects beneficial to Your Subjects, especially to those who chiefly depend (as we do) upon a Trade to Newfoundland, which Your Majesty in Your late most Gracious Speech, to our great Joy and Satisfaction, has assur'd us will be effectually restor'd.

We are fully satisfy'd what Obstructions Your Majesty has met with, in the carrying on of this good Work, by the zealous Endeavours of some, whose Faction and private Advantage had render'd violent Opposers of so great a National Blessing; but, thanks be to God, their Endeavours, by Your Sacred Majesty's great Care and Goodness, and Your present Ministry's Management, have been fruitless and in vain.

May God Almighty give a Blessing to Your Majesty and Your Councils, that the Peace, so far advanced, may speedily be concluded, that the Protestant Succession, as by Law Established, in the Illustrious House of Hanover, may be as firmly secured as 'tis possible, under the Divine Providence.

And may God grant to Your Majesty a long and happy Reign here upon Earth, and hereafter a Crown of Glory in Heaven.

The following Address from the City of Worcester was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Packington, being introduced by the Duke of Sbrensbury.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Worcester, in Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do most gratefully acknowledge, and return our most hearty Thanks for that very gracious Condescension in Your Majesty, in communicating to both Houses of Parliament, the Terms on which a Peace may be made, a subject we own to be an undoubted Prerogative of the Crown. We most earnestly pray for a Consummation of that great and good Work, and can't sufficiently admire Your Majesty's Wisdom and Couduit in procuring such honourable Conditions, as must necessarily put to silence the factious Confidence of Designing Men, that delight in the effusion of Christian Blood, and the rebellious Impudence of others, who made it their Endeavour to discourage and divide Your Majesty's Subjects, by representing the Terms on which we must expect a Peace, so very disadvantageous and different from what Your Majesty has been pleased to Report. We also return Your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for Your great Care of the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and beg leave to add, That we shall upon all Occasions express our most steady and unshaken Loyalty, in defence of Your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government against all seditious Persons and Practices whatsoever: And most heartily pray, that God will be pleas'd to grant Your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us, that Your Majesty may see Your Kingdoms flourish, in Peace and Plenty, to compensate the Burden Your Majesty and Subjects have felt by a tedious and expensive War.

The following Address from the Borough of Cliderow, in the County of Lancaster, was presented to Her Majesty by Edward Harvey and Christopher Parker, Esquires, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Burgesses and Freemen of Your Majesty's antient Borough of Cliderow, in the County of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE cannot omit this Opportunity of giving Your Majesty fresh Assurances of our Loyalty, Obedience, and unwalterable Inclinations to defend Your Royal Person, Prerogative, and the Succession in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, against all Opposition Abroad, and seditious Parties at Home.

We want Words to express the Satisfaction we have, in that France is brought to offer those Terms of Peace, which Your Majesty has, out of Your Royal Condescension, communicated to Your two Houses of Parliament.

May Your Majesty live to finish the great and glorious Work, which in tender regard to Your Subjects, You have so far advanced, that they in their own Time may reap the Happiness and Benefit thereof, especially in their Commerce; and that Your Allies may enjoy all the Advantages Your Majesty, in conjunction with 'em, hath stipulated to obtain; so that Your
