

Your Subjects and their Posterity may ever admire Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Care of Your People, and the Integrity of Your Ministers.

The following humble Address from the Borough of Haverford-West, was presented to Her Majesty by John Longhorne, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Mansell, Comptroller of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgesse, of Your Majesty's Antient and Loyal Corporation of the Town and County of Haverford-West.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Being truly sensible of Your Majesty's great Goodness, in communicating to Your both Houses of Parliament the Terms on which an Honourable and Lasting Peace may be made, we cannot but acknowledge it our Duty to return Your Majesty our most humble and hearty Thanks for so great a Condescension, and likewise for Your Majesty's Care of the Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

And as we must always admire Your Majesty's choice of those Persons, who have so wisely managed Your Affairs at Home, and so discreetly carried on Your Negotiations Abroad, so we cannot but wonder at the Malice and Artful Contrivances of those who seem resolutely bent against Peace, however Advantageous for the Subjects of Great Britain.

May their Invektives retort on themselves, and their Devices prove Abortive; may that great Work be speedily ended, which Your Majesty has so gloriously undertaken; and that Your Majesty may live to see the Effects, and enjoy the Blessings of an Honourable Peace, shall be the constant Prayers of, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Blackett, Bar. and William Wrightson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, who had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand, being introduced by the Most Honourable Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR Majesty's extraordinary Condescension in communicating to Your Two Houses of Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made, is one of the many unparalleled Instances of Your great Goodness and Affection to, and Confidence in Your People. And we should be wanting to our selves, and defective in our Duty to Your Majesty, if we did not (amongst the rest of Your Loyal Subjects) embrace this grateful Opportunity Your Majesty hath given us of returning our most humble and hearty Thanks to Your Majesty, for the inestimable Blessings and Benefits we enjoy under Your Government; and more particularly at this time for Your Majesty's exerting Your Power and Interest towards the establishing a real Balance of Power in Europe; for asserting the Protestant Succession as by Law Established in the House of Hanover, for restoring and enlarging our Trade and Commerce, and for endeavouring to procure to Your Allies what is due to them by Treaties, and what is necessary for their Safety. And we doubt not but the Loyal and Satisfactory Addresses from Your Parliament, and the cheerful Concurrence of Your People in all the Particulars thereof, may contribute towards the enabling Your Majesty to overcome all Difficulties that may yet be raised, and may convince all Persons any ways disaffected to Your Majesty's Person or Government, or to the Honour and Interest of the British Nation, that their private Desires, or specious Pretences, can never create any Difference or Jealousie between Your Majesty and Your Subjects. And that the Expectation of all such as propose to raise or advance their Interest, by sowing Sedition amongst Your People, will always prove vain and groundless. And that God Almighty may enable Your Majesty to perfect this great and glorious Undertaking (which You have already so far advanced) and may grant to Your Majesty Health and long Life to enjoy the blessed Effects of an honourable and lasting Peace, shall ever be the Prayers of us Your most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

Florence, June 27. N. S. The Race of Chariots on the Place of Sancta Maria Novella, was perform'd here as usual, on the Twenty third of this Month. The next Day being the Festival of St. John, the Great Duke, Seated on a Throne in the Publick Square, received the Homage of those who hold Marquises, Counties, or other Fiefs from his Highness. In the Afternoon there were several Races of Barbary Horses. And the Great Prince was so well recovered, that he assisted at all those Solemnities.

Amsterdam, July 13. N. S. We have several Letters here of the Ninth Instant from Dunkirk, which say, that an Order of the French King bearing Date the Twenty seventh of June, was published there two Days before, by which the French Troops in that Town, as also in the Citadel, Ryfbank, and other Forts, are enjoined to be in a readiness to March out on the appearance of the English, into whose Hands that Place is to be delivered.

Brussels, July 14. N. S. We have received Advice that Colonel St. Amour, who was sent with a Detachment of Five hundred German Horse towards the Senfette, fell into an Ambuscade of Four thousand French, by whom he was taken Prisoner with about Two hundred of his Men, but the rest retir'd in good Order to Douay. On the Tenth Instant some Foragers from the Earl of Albemarle's Camp at Denin, approaching too near Valenciennes, were attack'd by a Party of the Garrison, in which Action we suffer'd some loss. Monsieur Westers, Receiver of the Contributions for the States-General, who commonly resides here, is appointed to regulate the Civil Government, and the Affairs of the Revenues at Quefnoy, for which Purpose he set out Yesterday towards that Place.

Utrecht, July 15, N. S. Baron Renswood, one of the Plenipotentiaries of the States-General, is lately gone to the Hague, from whence he designs to return hither in a short time with the rest of his Colleagues, who at present are there likewise. The Lord Privy-Seal sets out to Morrow for the same Place, where he will stay but a Day or two.

Westminster, July 8. This Day the Parliament was Prorogued to the Thirty first of this Instant July.

John Hungerford, Esq; is elected Member of Parliament for the Borough of Scarborough.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received a Letter signed J. G. offering to discover some Abuses committed in Her Majesty's Navy, their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that if the Person who wrote the same will attend them, and make out what he alleges therein, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give notice, That they intend to Let by Lease, the Wood-yard, and a Wood-yard, with two Tenements, Stables and Buildings thereupon erected, situate at or near Brooken-Warf,
