

MUND. 503

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 15. to Thursday July 17. 1712..

Kensington, July 14.

THE following Address from the Borough of Appleby, was presented to Her Majesty by the Recorder of the said Borough, and several Members of the Corporation, together with Edward Duncomb and Edward Lutwich, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Sbrensbury, Lord-Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Free-Burghers, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Appleby in the County of Westmorland, Assembled in the publick Hall of the said Borough the 30th of June, 1712.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

AS we formerly have had the Honour to Congratulate the Success of Your Majesty's Arms, so we now beg leave to make our most dutiful Acknowledgment to Your Majesty for the grateful Prospect which Your Majesty has been pleased to give us of a Glorious Peace, which is the only desirable Effect that can accrue to Your Majesty's good Subjects from the Success in War.

We are sensible there are those who proposed other Effects of it to themselves, those who delight in War, and would make use of the Advantages in it, only as Arguments for continuing it, and propose no end but their own Profit; but we are sensible of Your Majesty's great Care and Concern for the good of Your Kingdoms; and we are amazed to think that any Subjects of Britain should be so unnatural as to envy Your Majesty's Glory in being at the Head of this Negotiation, especially since the Event of a former one made it so absolutely necessary.

But notwithstanding the artful Contrivances, and the restless Malice of those who would obstruct Your Majesty's good Intentions, We hope Your Majesty will speedily finish this good Work.

May the God of Peace direct Your Counsels to this great end, may You be Crowned with the Blessing of Peace here, and an Immortal Crown of Glory hereafter.

The following Address from the Borough of Dunbeved alias Launceston, was presented to Her Majesty by George Clarke, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Lansdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Free-Burghesses, and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ever Loyal and Antient Borough of Dunbeved alias Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

Dread Sovereign!

WE presume to approach Your Sacred Person with our humblest Thanks for the late unexampled Instance of Your Majesty's most gracious Condescension, in being pleased to suspend in some measure Your Royal Prerogative, by Communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a safe and honourable Peace may be obtained.

May the God of Peace prosper Your Majesty's pious Endeavours, for the finishing this great and good Work; and may the Fruits of that just Confidence Your Subjects place in Your Majesty's most excellent Administration, be our speedy receiving (notwithstanding all Designs to the contrary) that Blessing we have so long wish'd for, from the Hands of the best of Queens.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Etheredge, and George Bruere, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, and the Reverend Mr. Millechamp, their Minister; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Cheyne Viscount Newbaven, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constables, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's antient Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majesty's pious Care to procure to Your People the Blessing of Peace, and Your communicating to the Parliament the Terms upon which it may be made, give us the highest Notions of Your Goodness and Condescension. 'Tis Your Prudence and Merits that must charm the Spirit of Discord, and True Justice that must hold the Balance of Europe, and it is not only the Swords, but the sharper Tongues of those that delight in War, and teach us all to adore the God of Peace, as well as the Lord of Hosts.

May Your Majesty long enjoy the Glory of Your great Deeds, and continue to be attended by such Ministers as have the Honour of their Queen, the Prosperity of the Establishment of Your Country, next their Merits. May You receive an entire Obedience for a perfect Love, and not exchange this Earthly for a heavenly Crown, 'till Your Days are as numerous as the Blessings You have conferred upon Your People: And then (since, alas, the best of Princes must die) may You gently drop this Diadem on the Legal Protestant Head, who may Govern by Your Example, as well as Inherit by Your Care.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Hasting, was presented to Her Majesty by Joseph Martin, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Ashburnham.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Minister, Gentlemen, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hasting, in the County of Suffex.

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do with the utmost Sense of Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a General Peace may be made, which are Honourable and Advantageous to Great Britain, just to Your Allies, beneficial to Trade, and evidently tend to the future Happiness and Prosperity of Your Majesty's Kingdoms, by confirm-