The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHereas Her Majesty was graciously pleased by an Order in Council of the 24th of June last, upon Information that the City of Hamburg, and other Places without the Sound, were entirely free from the Plague, or any other Contagious Distemper, or Order, That the Quarantine should be taken off from all Ships or Vessels coming from the said City of Hamburg, and Places without the Sound; but it appearing by late Advices from thence, that the Plague is again broke out at Gluckstadt, and the spreading thereof being apprehended in the neighbouring Towns and Places, Her Majesty taking the same into Her Royal Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, That the said Order of the 24th of June last be revoked and made void; and that all Ships and Vessels coming from the Baltick Sea, and other Ports and Places without the Sound, shall perform their Quarantine in such manner as is directed by Her Majesty's Royal Proclamation and Order in Council of the 6th of December last, in that behalf; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, Her Majesty's Secretary at War, the Master of Her Majesty's Ordnance, and all others whom it may Concern, are to take Notice hereof, and to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Edward Southwell.

The following Address from the Borough of Plymouth, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir George Byng, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common-Council, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg leave to render to Your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for Your great and unprecedented Condescension, expressed in Your late most gracious Speech from the Throne, whereby You have been pleased to give Your People such well-grounded Hopes of their soon having that which should be the satisfying, as well as proposed End of every just War, A Safe and Honourable Peace. We acknowledge this ought to be esteemed amongst the very choicest and most kindly Fruits of Your ever Victorious Arms, and wise Counsels; A Blessing great in it self, but yet enhanced and made greater by Your Majesty's now reigning-Care, and care-taking the Hanover Succession, the only humane Means of making this Peace as lasting as it is like to be good.

That Your Majesty's Reign over us may continue as Long and Prosperous, as it hath been hitherto Glorious: And that You may, for Your Peoples good, late enjoy that Blessedness which Truth it self hath promised to the Peace Makers, is the hearty Desire of Your Majesty's ever Loyal and most Dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Burgh of Dundie, was presented to Her Majesty by John Carnegie, Esq; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Loyal Subjects, the Provost, Bailiffs, Dean of Guild, and Common-Council of Your Royal Burgh of Dundie, beg leave to approach Your Majesty, heartily Rejoicing for the Signal Successes given to Your Majesty's Arms, and to Your Wise and Prudent Counsels, so as thereby to bring about a Treaty, for putting an End to the present, long, and expensive War. And with the deepest Gratitude to acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension, in communicating to Your People the Terms on which Peace is proposed.

The Zeal and Loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Government, fixed in the Hearts of Your Subjects, by repeated Instances of Your Royal good Will and Favour towards them, and on several Occasions professed by them, since Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, must still take deeper Root, and more and more express it self from a due Sense of Your tender Care, in seeking chiefly, and pursuing steadily, the Honour and Interest of Your People: And there can be nothing more satisfying and agreeable to us, than to observe Your Concern for Religion, and the Succession in the Protestant Line.

As Your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence are most conspicuous hitherto, in the Progress of the Treaty of Peace, so we entirely depend upon Your Majesty, to bring the same to a final Conclusion, and thereby to disappoint the Designs of those whose Delight and Interest is in War. Nothing doubting of Your Majesty's being able by the Blessing of God, to accomplish what may be justly demanded for the Honour, Trade and real Advantage of Your Majesty's Dominions.

That Your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of Your Princely Care and pious Concern, for the Ease and Welfare of Your People, in a prosperous and peaceable Reign, is, and shall still be the hearty and sincere Prayers of, May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Loyal, most Dutiful, and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough and Corporation of Rippon, was presented to Her Majesty by John Aislaby and John Sharpe, Esqs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the Corporation and Borough of Rippon, in the County of Tork, and of several Gentlemen and Borough-holders of the said Borough.

May it please Your Majesty,
THE great Condescension of your Majesty, in laying before your Parliament the Terms up-which you have proceeded to make a general Peace for your Subjects and Allies, deserves the humblest Expressions of Gratitude and Acknowledgment from us, and all your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

When we reflect on your Majesty's Great and Princely Care to ease your Subjects of a long and expensive War, by procuring them an honourable and safe Peace, notwithstanding all the Difficulties and Obstructions that have attended the same, and the many repeated Instances your Majesty hath given your People in your late most gracious Speech from the Throne, and at other times, of your Royal Intention and fixed Resolution to secure to them and their Posterity, the Enjoyment of the best of Religions, and an established Succession of Protestant Princes in the House of Hanover; we cannot sufficiently admire your Majesty's great Goodness, nor express our Thanks, in Terms equal to the tender regard you have shewn, for the welfare of your Subjects.

We are, Madam, so assured of your affectionate Care for your People, that we solely and absolutely depend on your Majesty for the perfecting these your Royal Intentions, by a glorious and lasting Peace; and humbly desire your Majesty to finish that great and good Work, by such Ways and Methods, as your Majesty shall judge most conducive thereunto.

The following Address from the Borough of Tamworth, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Serjeant Girdler and Samuel Bracebridge, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Deputy Steward, Town Clerk, Capital Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

May it please your most gracious Majesty,
THE welcome Tidings of Peace, you are pleased to communicate to your People, found to all your good and loyal Subjects, as pleasing News from Heaven; and you appear to us, under the beautiful Character of the peaceful Angel of this blessed Message; such condescending Goodness, tempered with such awful Majesty, looks like mild Heaven, softly reminding Rebel Mortals of Grace undeserved.

Peace, even by the Enemies to Peace, is the acknowledged Constitution of Heaven; Peace is yours only to give, that derive your Authority from those peaceful Regions.

Those that are for the inverted Scheme of Power, plainly shew by their Fruits, whence they draw their Spirits; a Spirit that breaths Confusion, infernal Discord, Rapine and Bloodshed; the Spirit that plainly works in disobedient Children.

Your Goodness, next under Heaven, gives us this inestimable Blessing; your Wisdom (humanly speaking) insures it to our Posterity; the Seeds of War, that are secretly sown in Peace (beyond what is necessary for the preservation of your own People) you do not cherish: Trade is a sly and silent War;

but however silent and stealing it is, the over-balance of it, in its time, makes equal Noise and Confusion with the over-balance of Dominion and Power, which you have tempered so, as that we shall not wantonly disturb our Neighbour's Rest, nor yet fear from them the disturbance of our own; a Caution long neglected, and reserved for your prudent and just Administration.

May your pious Cares and Anxieties for your People, be crowned with a compleat and universal Peace Abroad; and with the filial Regard and Reverence of all your own Subjects at Home; that you and your People, this great and mighty People, may become a Pattern for Imitation, and a Blessing to all the Ends of the Earth.

The following Address from the Borough of Cirencester, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Master and Charles Coxe, Esqs; their two Representatives, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Cirencester, in the County of Gloucester.

Madam,
THE tender Care and Affection Your Majesty has always shewn to Your People, obliges us to make such grateful Acknowledgements, as Minds like ours, deeply sensible of the greatest Benefits, cannot but express: But at this time more especially, for the great Condescension Your Majesty has lately shewn, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made.

'Tis with the utmost Satisfaction that we now see a Queen of Great Britain, become the Arbitrer of Europe; and Exerting her self in such a manner as will not only procure to these Nations, present Honour and Advantage, but must of Necessity render Your Auspicious Reign remarkably Famous to latest Posterity, in spite of all the Impotent Efforts of Envy and Detraction.

As we have an Entire Confidence in Your Majesty's steadily pursuing the true Interest and Welfare of Your Kingdoms, so we humbly intreat Your Majesty to go on in the perfecting so good a Work, which (notwithstanding the many Difficulties and Obstructions that have arisen from the subtle and pernicious Artifices of designing and ungrateful Men) has hitherto been successfully carried on, as much to their Confusion, as to Your Majesty's Honour, and the general Good of all Your Allies.

We humbly beg leave farther to assure Your Majesty, that we shall be always ready, to the utmost of our Power, to defend and support Your Royal Person and Prerogative, against all those who shall any way dare to insult the one, or invade the other.

The following Address from the Borough of Monmouth, was presented to Her Majesty by Clayton Milborn, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, and John Stratford, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Common-Council and Burgesses of the Borough of Monmouth, in the County of Monmouth.

May it please Your Majesty,
WHEN we consider, that after a tedious and expensive War, nothing is more desired, nothing is more welcome than Peace, we think our selves bound, by the strictest Obligations of Duty, to shew that we are truly sensible, how much we owe to Your Majesty, by whose wise Administration,
France

France is brought to offer Terms, upon which a Peace may be made; and we do most thankfully acknowledge Your gracious Condescension, in communicating them to Your Parliament.

We are fully perswaded that Your Majesty hath nearest at Heart, the transmitting to Posterity our most Holy Religion, by assuring the Succession (as by Law Established) in the House of Hanover, and that You will firmly pursue the true Interest of Your People, and not omit any thing whereby you may obtain just and reasonable Satisfaction to all Your Allies.

And we heartily pray, that (to the disappointment of all those who are Enemies to Great Britain, or who out of Faction, Envy or private Designs, contrive Difficulties to hinder the good Work which your Majesty has begun) God will prosper your Majesty's Endeavours with Success, and grant that your Majesty may long Reign in Peace, over most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough or Town of Kingston upon Hull, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William St. Quintin, Bart, and Edward Barnerd, Esq;

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Chamberlains, and Capital Burgesses of Your Majesty's Town or Borough of Kingston upon Hull.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us, among Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to return our most sincere and grateful Acknowledgments for the high Favour of acquainting both Your Houses of Parliament, how far You have transacted a well designed, glorious and firm Peace for Your British Subjects and all Your Allies, though Peace and War are Your indisputed Prerogative.

We can never sufficiently admire Your fervent Affection, in having nothing more at Your Royal Heart (which is entirely English) than an inviolable Security of the Protestant Succession in the Serene House of Hanover, as by Law Established.

We owe the greatest Thanks to Your Sacred Majesty for the flourishing State our Church enjoys; which is enrich'd by Your Liberality, receives Lustre from Your Piety, and is the strongest Bulwark against all Your Enemies.

We repose a sure Confidence, that Your Majesty will compleat Your great Designs for the Prosperity of all Your Subjects, by securing to them an uninterrupted Commerce, so earnestly wish'd for.

May the Almighty Arbitrer of War and Peace so calm the Minds of all Your People, that there may be no other Emulation among them, but in all Acts of steady Loyalty, (the only sure Basis for a lasting Felicity) who shall shew himself the best Subject to the best Queen, are the most ardent and daily Prayers of us Your Majesty's most obediently devoted Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, was presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Masters and Owners of Ships, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

Most Dread Sovereign!

Your Majesty's most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, in relation to a General Peace, with their humble Addresses of Thanks thereupon, have given such entire Satisfaction to all Your truly loyal Subjects, that we want Words, to express the Gratitude of our Hearts, for so much Condescension and Goodness as Your Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to manifest to Your People.

And as we of this remote Sea-Port, doubt not (after all the Burthen we have cheerfully born, and the great Losses we have sustai'd in a tedious War) to share in the common Benefit intended to Britain, by the enlargement of Trade and Commerce, after the Establishment of Peace; so we should be wanting to our selves, as well as unprofitful and ungrateful to Your Majesty, if we did not upon this happy Occasion, (with the rest of Your loyal Addressors in the best manner we are able) express our entire Satisfaction and Confidence in Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Conduct in that Affair, and return our most hearty Thanks for those inestimable Blessings of Peace, and other Advantages which Your Majesty (as the Head of the Treaty where You ought to be) is endeavouring to procure for Your Subjects, and for the general Good of all in Alliance with Your Majesty.

May the God of Peace, who maketh Wars to cease in all the World, whose Vice-Gerent You are, and who hath vested Your Sacred Majesty with the indisputable Authority of making Peace and War, enable Your Majesty and Your truly British Ministry, to perfect that good Work (so well begun) to the Confusion and Disappointment of all the artful Designs and Contrivances of the People that delight in War, who would obstruct the same; who being once convinced of their Perverseness and Obstinacy, under a happy Constitution of Government both in Church and State, and a gentle Administration thereof, may become loyal and grateful Subjects to a most Gracious and Indulgent Queen.

And may Your Majesty long live in all Health and Happiness (after seeing such a Conversion) and Reign in the Hearts and Affections of an united, loyal People, who have no sinister Reserves in their Duty of Obedience.

The following Address from the Borough of Warwick, was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Dodington Greville, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your most Dutiful and always Loyal Subjects, humbly presume to approach that Throne, from whence Your Majesty most graciously condescended to communicate to Your Subjects (that which Your Royal Ancestors held incommunicable) the Terms of Peace You had brought France to offer.

Terms so honourable and advantageous to Your Self and Allies, that they supply the Defects of that Treaty, wherein the Interest of Religion was neglected; and of a late one, wherein the Interest of Britain was to go.

A Peace by which the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, already founded on Laws, and so deeply in the Hearts of Queen and People, will be farther secured, and the Protestant Interest abroad restor'd.

A Peace which extends Your Dominions into a Kingdom which would never yet suffer it self to be dismembr'd, and Your Subjects Commerce to the remotest, and hitherto forbidden, Parts of the World.

A Peace which gives to Your Allies what is due to them by Treaties, a Satisfaction greater than the Efforts they have made, could reasonably demand, and a Security (if they have no other Views) perfectly safe against any Enterprize of France.

That Your Majesty may surmount the Envy of those who would have the Glory, but chiefly the Advantage of these Negotiations, and the artful impediments of those who would rise by, or support their acquired Grandeur, or who can think think themselves safe only in the Confusions of War.

That

That You may happily and speedily accomplish this great and good Work, have the Honour now, and very late, the Blessed Reward of the Peacemaker, are the sincere and incessant Prayers of Your Majesty's most Faithful and Devoted Subjects.

The following Address was transmitted from Ireland by their Excellencies the Lords Justices of that Kingdom, and presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocesses of Down and Connor, assembled at a Visitation held in Lisburn, on the 4th of June last.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocesses of Down and Connor, do take this first Occasion, with the deepest Sense of Duty and Gratitude, to return your Sacred Majesty our most unfeigned and hearty Thanks for the uninterrupted course of your Royal Favours.

Your Majesty has not only restored our National Church to Her undoubted Rights of Convocation, whereof She was so long deprived, whilst Her professed Enemies presumed to Act in their illegal Assemblies, by a pretended inherent and independent Right, but has been graciously pleased to relieve and support the Clergy, by your Royal Grant of the remittal of the Twentieth Parts, and by appropriating the First Fruits, to augment the Patrimony of the Church.

This is a Grant, which from the Nature, the Intent and Consequence thereof, must be able to stand the strictest Enquiry, and can never be in danger of a re-assumption.

By this your Majesty's gracious Favour, we the Clergy of this Kingdom, are better enabled to exert and to maintain our truly Primitive Principles of Obedience, against those who have upon all Occasions applied their Common Funds, and even Royal Bounties, to propagate the pernicious Principles of Resistance.

We fervently pray, That your Majesty's Reign may be very long and glorious; and when it shall please God to deprive us of so inestimable a Blessing, we shall then endeavour to discharge the same Duties, and promote the same Principles, under the Succession of the Illustrious House of Hanover.

The following Address from the City of Litchfield, was presented to Her Majesty by Richard Dyott and John Coates, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, their Recorder.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Sheriffs and Citizens of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal City of Litchfield.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's wise Administration, do with the utmost Gratitude acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension in communicating to Your People the Terms on which a Peace may be made; the concluding as well as beginning War being Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative.

We entirely rely on Your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence in perfecting this great Work, notwithstanding all the Arts those, who delight in War, make use of to obstruct it.

Your Majesty's Zeal for the Interest of Your own Kingdoms, the securing and enlarging our Trade to Countries it had never been before extended to, raises the utmost Joy and Gratitude in Your faithful Subjects.

May Your Majesty long live to see the Fruits of a glorious Peace, and after a long and peaceable Reign over us, may You transmit Your Kingdoms to those who are by Law appointed to succeed You.

The following Address from the Borough of Dorchester, was presented to Her Majesty by William Harvey, Esq; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High-Stewards, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester in the County of Dorset.

M A D A M,

Your Majesty's great Zeal for the Good of Your Subjects, Your earnest pursuit of a Peace so advantageous for them, and safe for Your Allies; Your many gracious Expressions of a tender Affection for Your People, and the manifest Effects of it in Your Majesty's more especial Care and Concern for the Succession, in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and lasting Security of the Church of England, as by Law Establish'd, have inspired all Your Honest and Loyal Subjects with the utmost Sense of Gratitude and Veneration for Your Royal Person, and obliged them not only to implore the Divine Assistance, to enable Your Majesty to finish this good Work, but to contribute their own Endeavours, by discountenancing all such factious and uneasie Spirits, as seem so far to delight in War; as not to consider the many Blessings of Peace, and the vast Expence of Blood and Treasure, which this heavy, tho' glorious and successful War, hath brought upon Your People.

We Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do from our Hearts return Your Majesty all possible Thanks for Your Royal Goodness to Your People, in condescending so far as to lay before their Representatives the Terms of Peace; and we promise all dutiful and chearful Obedience, and will not cease to pray to the God of Heaven, to establish Your Throne in Peace, give Your Majesty many happy Years to enjoy the Fruits of it, and after a long and glorious Reign over a dutiful and affectionate People here, Crown Your Majesty with everlasting Glory and Honour amongst the Blessed above.

The following Address from the Borough of Great Torrington, was presented to Her Majesty, by Serjeant Hooper, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, Lord-Steward of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Town-Clerk, and principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do in the most humble manner approach the Throne, and return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for Your Gracious Condescension and Goodness in Communicating to Your People the Terms on which a Peace (so much desired by all that truly love their Country) may be made: And as it is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, to make Peace, or War; we cannot omit this Opportunity of expressing our dislike of such Practices and Principles as tend to divest Your Majesty of that Power which we are are assured You will never exert, but for the true Interest of Your People.

The Great Care Your Majesty has been pleas'd to take, that by the approaching Peace, not only the Protestant Succession after Your Majesty, may be Secured in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, but also that the Commerce and Trade of Your People may be preserved and enlarged, beyond what it hath been in any former Reigns: As it is an undeniable Instance of Your Majesty's Love and Affection to Your People, so it must strike the deepest Impressions of Gratitude and Obedience in the hearts of us, and all other Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects.

That the Divine Goodness may still continue to Guide and Direct Your Majesty, and Your Councils, and Inspire those Persons Employ'd by Your Majesty in this Great Work, with the Spirit of Wisdom and Fidelity, that they may be as Famous for making this Peace, as Your Troops have been for their Valour in the Prosecution of the War; and that Your Majesty may long Reign over us, and Triumph over Your Enemies, as well at Home, as Abroad; is and always shall be the constant Prayer of us Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Hertford, was presented to Her Majesty by Ralph Freeman and Thomas Halsey, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Salisbury, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders Assembled at the General Quarter Sessions held at Hertford, this 14th Day of July 1712. for the County of Hertford.

May it please Your Majesty!

WE beg Leave to Address Your Majesty with Hearts full of the Joy which all True English-Men conceive at the approach of a Peace, so Honourable and Advantageous to Your People, and Transacted in a manner so Glorious to Your Majesty.

As Your Majesty has born the first and greatest part in the War, so we have now the Satisfaction to see You stand at the Head of the General Treaty for Peace, in both Conjunctions, asserting the Dignity of Great Britain, and the Honour of its Princes, by holding, as you justly ought, the Ballance of Europe.

Altho' such who owe their Conquests to Your Assistance, and even their Empire to Your Protection, should envy us our due Advantage in the Conditions of Peace; yet Your Enemies, who have felt the force of Your Arms, are ready to yield us the distinction You demand; and as a solid Security for the Performance of their Engagements, and a Pledge of their Submission to Your Majesty, have already Surrendered into Your Hands, the most Important Forts of Dunkirk.

If there be a Faction amongst us, that would obstruct Your Glorious Endeavours for obtaining this Peace, we are assured they are only such whom no Peace would satisfy; such who have so far forgot themselves to be Englishmen, that they could be content to Treat for Great Britain at Second Hand, and Sacrifice the Trade, the Honour, and the Interest of their Country, to its Rivals; Men who are Restless thro' Ambition, and Turbulent by Principle, whom no Goodness nor Condescension from the Throne, can oblige to Common Respect, and Duty to it; and who never us'd the Power entrusted to them by any Prince, but to serve themselves, and ungratefully to betray Him.

But these, we thank God, and Your Majesty, are now few in Number, and despicable in their Power; while on the other side, we see Your Throne daily Crowded by Your Loyal Subjects, with Solemn Ad-resses of Thanks for the Great Blessings To us restored to Your Kingdoms.

Amongst these, we beg Leave to join our selves with the profoundest Submission to Your Government, the most grateful sense of Your Administration, and our sincerest Prayers that Your Majesty may soon Conclude the Peace, and long Enjoy it.

The following Address from the Borough of Newbury, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Packer, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Berks, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and High-Steward of the said Borough.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Borough of Newbury in the County of Berks.

Your Majesty's great and condescending Goodness, of which You have been pleased to give us so many and eminent Instances, particularly in Your late most gracious Speeches from Your Throne, justly calls for the greatest Returns of Duty and Acknowledgment from Your Subjects.

The prudent Advances which Your Majesty in Your great Wisdom hath already made towards the obtaining a safe and honourable Peace, oblige us to esteem it our great Happiness, that making Peace is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown; and we hope that none, or at least none of those who are themselves to share the Benefit of so great a Blessing, will envy Your Majesty the Honour of being the Glorious Instrument of procuring it.

Your Majesty's great Care for the effectual Securing the Protestant Succession, and therein every thing that is Dear to us, the prudent Steps that You have taken for improving and enlarging our Trade, and Your Endeavours to obtain for Your Subjects some Distinction, in proportion to the Share they have born in bringing this War towards a happy Conclusion, are to us convincing Proofs that Your Majesty hath steadily, and in the first place pursued the Interest of Your own Kingdoms; and leave us no room to doubt, but that this Peace will be as safe and lasting to all Europe, as it will be honourable to Your Majesty, and advantageous to Your Subjects.

May therefore God Almighty continue to preside over Your Sacred Majesty, and Bless Your Majesty's Councils; may He long preserve that valuable Life upon which, under Him, our Happiness doth so much depend; and may He make Your Majesty as Happy in Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, as they are truly blessed in an Affectionate and Religious Queen.

The following Address from the West-Riding of the County of York, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Robert Benson, Esq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the West-Riding of the County York, at the General Quarter Sessions at Bradford, the 17th of July, 1712.

WE beg Leave, most Dread Sovereign, amongst the rest of Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, to take this our first Opportunity of making our most grateful acknowledgments to Your Majesty, for Your Gracious Condescension in laying before Your Parliament the Terms Your Majesty, by Your great Wisdom and Courage, and the Vigilance of Your Ministry, has forced France to Consent to, for the grounding a General Peace upon.

Terms that have occasioned the greatest Joy to all that rightly consider and wish for the true Interest of Great Britain, and that have surprized, and we hope silenced those that have used their utmost endeavours to obstruct a Design, which we are humbly of Opinion, will tend so much to the Welfare of Your own People in particular, and Your Allies in general. And it is no small addition to our Joy, that Your Majesty's Judgment of Your Enemy's Sincere Intentions has been confirmed, by his giving up Dunkirk, the strongest Fortress and Bulwark of his Kingdom, into Your Majesty's Hands.

We depend entirely on Your Majesty to bring the Peace to an Happy and Speedy Issue, and are assured that this Trading part of Your Dominions, will in a particular manner reap the Benefits of it.

May Almighty God Bless Your Majesty with Success in this Great Work, and grant You long to Reign over us, to enjoy the Fruits of Peace, which will make us a truly happy People.

The following Address from the City of York, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Robert Benson, Esq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE humbly presume, with the rest of Your Majesty's Faithful and Loyal Subjects, to return our Sincere and hearty Thanks for Your Royal Goodness and Condescension, in laying before Your Parliament the Terms on which a General Peace may be made: And thro' the Allies, at present, seem not to consent to those Proposals, yet we hope a little Time will regulate their Pretensions in such a manner, that they will Acquiesce in Your Royal Judgment, what is a proper and secure Balance of Power in Europe.

We with pleasure Contemplate Your Majesty's repeated Assurances of Your Regard and Concern for the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and for Your Royal Protection and Countenance of the Trade and Manufactures of Your Realms; and as we have paid our Taxes with Cheerfulness, to carry on a just and necessary War, so we shall with all Dutifulness and Loyalty demean our selves in the happy Times of Peace and Plenty, which we can't think far off, when there is a Cessation of Hostilities as well by Sea as by Land.

We further presume to Congratulate Your Majesty on Your Troops taking Possession of Dunkirk; a Port, that during the Course of the War has severely annoyed our Trade; a Fortress so remarkable for its Strength, that we think it a safe Pledge for the French King's making good all his Promises: And we trust in Providence, that Your Majesty's Reign will be long and prosperous over us.

The following Address from the Corporation of Wigan, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Roger Bradshaigh, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace Duke Hamilton, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Wigan, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE beg Leave to tender our most humble and dutiful Acknowledgments to Your Majesty, for Your great Condescension and Confidence in Your People, manifested by Communicating to Your two Houses of Parliament the Terms offered by France, as a Foundation on which a General Peace may be made.

After Your Majesty's repeated Declarations of Your Concern for assuring a Protestant Succession to these Kingdoms, we cannot doubt of Your taking the proper measures for Security thereof.

'Tis with Pleasure we view the near prospect of a Solid and Lasting Peace secured, by fixing a real Balance of Power in Europe, having made that Family a Balance to it self for the time to come, which for an Age past, has threaten'd to overbear the rest.

A Peace Honourable to Your Majesty, by presiding and having the direction thereof; Just to all Your Allies, by procuring what Your Engagements or their reasonable Satisfaction requires, and endear'd to Your People by the Security, Territory and distinguishing Advantages gained for Establishing, Improving and Extending the British Commerce.

We will hope no opposition or obstructions can bring the dishonour upon Your Majesty, and Your Kingdoms, to follow rather than guide in the Negotiations.

For we rest confident in Your Assurances, that nothing shall move You from steadily pursuing the true Interest of Your People.

We pray Your Majesty to perfect that great Work Your Piety and Prudence hath so well formed, and so far advanced.

And we beg leave to assure You, that to the utmost of our Power, we will Assist and Support Your Majesty in all Difficulties You may meet with in the prosecution of so good a Design.

All which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very Graciously.

Venice, July 9. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Marquis de Prie has had a publick Audience of the Pope, which gives reason to believe that the differences about the Ceremonial are fully accommodated. An Ambassador is arriv'd at the same Place from Milan, who comes to desire that Archbishoprick may be conferr'd upon a Native of the Country. Don Alessandro Albani has resign'd the Post of Colonel of the Cuirassiers; he is to live in the Vatican, with the Cardinal his Brother, and intends very soon to enter into Orders. Last Night the Senate appointed Signor Nicholo Duodo, Ambassador in ordinary to the Pope. Monsieur Matthew Cametta, the Czar's Minister here, has notified the Peace between the Grand Signior, and his Master.

Genoa, July 17. N. S. By the last Letters from Catalonia, we are advis'd that the Earl of Barrymore having review'd the British Forces, was preparing to return Home, to give the Queen an Account of the Condition in which he left them; and a Man of War lay ready at Barcelona, to bring his Lordship to Italy. Both Armies had begun to take the Field, and there was great probability of Action on that Side.

Coire, July 21. N. S. Letters from Arraw bring Advice, that a Project of Peace is signed by the Deputies of those Cantons, whose Interest being opposite to each other, in relation to the Affairs of Fockembourg, have for some time carried on a War in Switzerland. The Deputies of Zurich, Berne, and Lucern signed without Restriction, but the others conditionally, that their Principals approved it; and in order to which they desired leave to go home, promising to return by the Fifteenth Instant with their Masters Resolution. This was granted; but upon the Day appointed only the Deputies of Uri came back, which gave occasion to Conjecture that the Cantons of Lug, Switz, and Underwald had refused to consent to the Peace upon the Terms propos'd. Those of Zurich and Berne are extremely dissatisfied with this proceeding, and have given notice, that they will be kept no longer in Suspense, upon upon any pretence whatsoever. Whereupon the Deputies of Lucern and Uri have declared, their Instructions are positive to ratifie the Peace; and that they lament the Misfortune of the other three Cantons, who cannot consent to it, because the People at present are at some Difference among themselves; notwithstanding which they engage within three Days to give their final Resolution.

Whereas a Letter dated the 21st Instant, signed H. R. and directed to the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, has been received; if the Person who wrote the said Letter will attend his Lordship any Morning, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.
