Windsor, August 2.

THE following Address from the Nobility and Gentry of the Shire of Fife, Signed by the Earls of Weems, Kincairn, and Mortoun, Lords Sinclair, Colvill, Dundas, Balmerino, and by above an Hundred and fifty Gentlemen of Estates in that County; was presented to Her Majesty by the Lord Lyon, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the Shire of Fife.

May it please your Majesty,

WE beg leave with all Humility and Gratitude, to acknowledge the dutiful and deep Sense we have of Your Majesty's great Care in promoting and securing the Happiness of Your People; by Your Firmness, in giving us the near Views of the Blessing of a Peace, so honourable to Your Self, and advantageous to Your Kingdoms; notwithstanding the great Opposition You have met with from Factions and Seditious Practices at Home, and Ingratitude Abroad, which must for ever add to our Duty as well as our Reverence.

May Your Majesty be Blessed in all Your Undertakings, which to all the World must appear intended for the Glory of God, the Support of the antient Constitution of Your Kingdoms, and the immediate recovery of Your Subjects from Poverty and Delusion.

The following Address from the Shire of Sterling, was presented to Her Majesty by the Earl of Mar, and the Lord Viscount Kilsyth.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Sheriff, Noblemen, and other Freeholders and Heritors within the Shire of Sterling.

May it please Your Majesty!

TO permit us, on this Occasion, to join with the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, in our dutiful and thankful Acknowledgment of Your Majesty's pious Endeavours, to put an end to the Miseries of Your People, by bringing them out of a long, bloody and expensive War, under which they have so long groaned; and of Your great Care and Prudence, in securing to them, by the Treaty now on Foot, their Religion, Laws and Liberties, and in extending the Trade of these Kingdoms to such a degree, as has raised Jealousie and Envy in our Neighbours.

We acknowledge, Madam, That it is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, to make Peace and War; and as it always has been our Opinion, That the Safety of the People depends chiefly on the Maintenance and Support of the Prerogative of the Prince; so we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, That we shall be ready on all Occasions to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, in defence of all the Branches of it, in Opposition to Faction at Home, and Enemies Abroad.

May Your Majesty go on and prosper in Accomplishing the great and glorious Work of Peace which You have so happily begun, and brought to so great a Height, that it may not be in the Power of those who see their Account in the continuance of the War, to deprive Your Majesty's Subjects of so great a Blessing.

The following Address from the Borough of Truro, was presented to Her Majesty by Henry Vincent, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lansdowne, Comptroller of Her Majesty's Household.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro in the County of Cornwall.

Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, amongst the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, to offer our most humble and hearty Thanks for Your Majesty's unparalleled Goodness and Condescension, in Communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a General Peace may be obtained.

And be pleas'd to permit us further to express our most grateful Acknowledgments for the hearty Concern Your Majesty hath therein manifested for the Security of the Protestant Succession, and the Improvement of Commerce to Your own Subjects, as well as the common Interest of all Your Allies; a Pledge of which we take to be Your Majesty's being already in the actual Possession of Dunkirk.

May the God of Peace bless Your Majesty and Your Councils with a Success answerable to Your great Wisdom and Goodness, by bringing this so-much-wish'd-for Peace to a happy and speedy Conclusion; And may Your Sacred Person long enjoy the Blessed Fruits thereof, to the lasting Comfort and Satisfaction of Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Stafford, was presented to Her Majesty by Henry Vernon, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Burton.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford.

M A D A M,

Amongst the rest of Your Loyal Subjects crowding about Your Throne, we beg leave to express our Part of the common Joy, upon the prospect of an approaching Peace; and to acknowledge Your Condescension, in laying the Terms of it before Your Parliament, which is so far from lessening Your Prerogative, that it has given it the most durable Establishment.

By those advantageous Conditions You have obtained for Your self as well as Allies, the World must be convinced of that received Error, that whatever this Nation won by the Sword, it always lost by mis-managed Treaties; and must now own, that Your Majesty is as matchless in Council as in the Camp.

We are not at all surprized, that some of Your Allies, that took upon them so providently to prescribe to You, the Establishment of Your Ministry, should oppose the Advantages they were aware we should soon have in the Change of it.
