

The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

From TUESDAY August 5. to SATURDAY August 9. 1712.

Windsor, August 6.

THE following Address from the Lieutenantancy of the Lower Hamblets, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William Withers, Sir John Cass, Knts. Alexander Pendarvis, Esq; and several other Gentlemen of the Lieutenantancy, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Rt. Hon. the Lord-Lieutenant and Deputy-Lieutenants of the Tower Hamblets.

Most Dread Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg leave to express th^e just and grateful Sense we have of Your Gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which an happy and lasting Peace may be made, a Peace equally beneficial to Your People, as Glorious to Your Self.

And herein we think we have abundant Cause to rejoice, not only in that Your Majesty has done Justice to all Your Allies, but in that You have assured the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and we can not but say, that Your Majesty's Subjects do not hardly expect, that You will be so good as to give us a Peace, which shall be so beneficial to us, as that we may not expect to see our Enemies in their Gates.

Let who will rejoice at this happy Prospect of Peace, and let who will envy Your Majesty the Glory of making it, we approach th^e Throne with joyful, as well as thankful Hearts, and beseech Your Majesty, in Your own good time, to complete that Work You have so happily begun.

Now we can say with boldness, and we can say it with Truth, that we very sensibly feel the Benefits of a wife and faithful Ministry, who, maugre all Opposition from Abroad, and all the Artifices of Factions and Ill-Designing Men at Home, have surmounted the greatest Difficulties, and sufficiently ruined, that they mean nothing but the true and lasting Prosperity of their own Native Country.

We farther beg leave, on this Occasion, to assure Your Majesty, that we will employ those Arms, which Your Majesty has entrusted us with, in defence of Your Royal Person and Prerogative, against all Opposers whatsoever at Home or Abroad.

May the Almighty abundantly shower down the richest of his Blessings upon Your Majesty, and may You long, very long, live to enjoy the Effects of Your Princely Resolutions and Conduct.

The following Address from the Borough of Devizes, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Francis Gyles, one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justice of the Peace, and part of the Magistrat^e Common-Council, and Free Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, and other Inhabitants of the said Borough.

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, humbly beseech Your Majesty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for Your unparalleled Goodness and Condescension, in acquainting Your Parliament upon what Terms a Peace may be had; the power of making Peace and War being Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative:

And at the same time, with the utmost Humility, we crave leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Delivery of the important Garrison of Dunkirk into Your Hands, which seems to us to be an Earnest of a speedy ensuing Peace.

It is our Happiness not only to have a Princess descended from a Race of Kings, and to succeed them in the Throne by an Hereditary Right, but also a Princess who hath extended her Subjects Trade and Commerce far Abroad beyond any of Her Royal Predecessors; who hath secured our Peace and Happiness at Home, by settling the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, upon the Illustrious House of Hanover, and by more firmly Establishing the Church of England; and who hath curbed the exorbitant Power of France, and is now laying th^e Foundation for a firm and lasting Peace throughout Europe. This is Your Majesty's great Aim, and it is our Duty to be so glad as a Queen.

Your Majesty would be graciously pleased to receive these Your Noble Vot^es, and that You may of Your Subjects receive the same, and long live the Desires of hearty and constant Prayers the Fruits of same, are th^e L^ord's most Obedient, and most true Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Weymouth and Melcomb Regis, was presented to Her Majesty by William Harvey, Esq; one of their Representatives, and John Walsley, Esq; of Hatch, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer,

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Representatives, the Loyal Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Corporation of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis.

May it please Your Majesty,

With all Duty and Thankfulness we most humbly acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness and Royal Endeavours, to make Your Subjects safe and happy, by an honourable and advantageous Peace. We heartily rejoice upon Your Majesty's having Possession of the Town and Forts of Dunkirk: This, we hope, will very much contribute to the quieting the Minds of all those who are Discontented; will sufficiently convince them and Your Allies, that Your Majesty engag'd in this Treaty upon a good and sure Foundation.

May no factious and disobedient Spirits at Home, give Encouragement to War and Tumults Abroad.

May Your Sacred Majesty go on and prosper in all You finish in every Article this Great and Glorious Undertaking, which Your Majesty was most graciously pleased, in an Unparalleled Condescension, to communicate to Your People.

May Your Majesty always have so Just and Wise a Ministry, so true and faithful a Parliament, as it hath pleased Almighty God, in his wonderful Providence, at this time, to bless You with.

May