Windsor, October 8.

THE following Address from the Borough of Inverness, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Dupplin.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Inverness, with all humble Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension and Goodness in communicating to the Representatives of Your People in Parliament, the Terms on which the general Peace may be made.

Your Majesty, whose undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War, hath fill'd the Hearts of us, Your loyal Subjects, with inexpressible Joy, on the most agreeable Prospect of an approaching Peace; and That upon such Terms as we hope will make Your Subjects ample Satisfaction for the Burdens they have undergone during the whole course of the War.

Your Majesty, to our great Satisfaction, hath sufficiently secured the Protestant Succession, and, to our no small Encouragement and Comfort, has enlarged our Trade, by extending it to Coasts it never yet had reach'd.

As we detest and abhor all those Levelling, Republick Principles which have sometimes proved fatal both to Church and State; so we cannot fail to assure Your Majesty, that we will not be wanting in our Endeavours and Duty, to obviate, to our utmost Power, the Designs of any evil Minded Persons who may attempt to sow Sedition among Your Subjects, and, under specious Pretences, carry on Designs they dare not Own.

May the God of Peace grant, that in a long and quiet Reign, Glorious to Your Self, and Happy to Us, Your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of an honourable Peace, after so successful a War, is the sincere Prayer of, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Montgomery, was presented to Her Majesty by John Pugh, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Cassio Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and other Gentlemen of the County of Montgomery.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WE make bold, with the greatest Humility, to approach Your Majesty's Throne, to thank Your Majesty for Your gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms which Your Majesty has, by Your great Wisdom, brought France to accept, such Terms that none but they who delight in War and Mischief can object to; and farther, to satisfy the Enemies of the Government (if such there can be) that France is sincere in their present Negotiations, Your Majesty has got into Your Possession one of the strongest Fortresses they had, which must of course make the Trade of Great Britain to Flourish.

We unanimously own it to be Your Majesty's undoubted Right to make Peace and War; which Right we will support and defend with our Lives and Fortunes; and as a Testimony of the Truth of what we here say, we will always chuse such Representatives (as we do not doubt but we have at present) who will likewise support and defend the Prerogative of the Crown.

We cannot too much admire Your Majesty's great Judgment in the Choice of Your Ministry; a Ministry true and faithful to Your Majesty's Commands and Service, and to Your Majesty's Government both in Church and State, as by Law Established.

That God would give the greatest Blessings to Your Majesty both here and hereafter, as ever were given to any Prince upon the Face of the Earth, are the hearty and sincere Prayers of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the several Corporations of Montgomery, Llanidloes, Pool, and Llanwyllyn, in the County of Montgomery, was presented to Her Majesty by John Pugh, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeses of Your Majesty's several Corporations of Montgomery, Llanidloes, Pool, and Llanwyllyn, in the County of Montgomery.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most obedient Subjects do, with the greatest Humility and Thankfulness, acknowledge the gracious Condescension of Your Sacred Majesty (whose undoubted Prerogative it is to make Peace and War) in communicating to Your Parliament, the happy Effects of Your Royal Endeavours for restoring the Tranquility of Europe.

Your Majesty's Justice and Honour in obtaining a proper and reasonable Satisfaction for Your Allies in the Treaty of Peace, are equally conspicuous with Your Goodness and Compassion, in assisting them during the War, and ought as much to engage their Gratitude, as it adds a new Lustre to Your Glory: Your tender Care of the Trade and Interest of Your People, is a manifest Proof of Your affectionate Concern for them, which excites in all loyal Hearts a dutiful Zeal for Your Majesty's Service: And the sure Pledge given by France, of the sincere Performance of her Stipulations, must silence the senseless Clamour, and satisfy the specious Pretences of Envy Abroad, and Faction at Home.

While we contemplate, with Pleasure, Your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, in the direction of so nice and difficult an Affair; 'tis but just to applaud the steady application of Your truly faithful and able Ministry: A Ministry, who by a peculiar Felicity of Genius, have given such surprizing Turns to the artful and inveterate Oppositions they met with, as happily terminated in promoting that Publick Good, which wicked and ambitious Men conspired to obstruct.

May Your Majesty soon perfect the great Work You have so auspiciously carried on, and recompence the Calamities of an expensive War, with the seasonable exchange of a glorious Peace; a Blessing which Your Majesty's long Life and propitious Reign can only complete, to the Joy of all good Men, and utter Disappointment of their Designs, who envy our Prosperity, or hate our Constitution.

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Florence, Sept. 13. N. S. Last Week a Festival, in Honour of Pope Pius V. lately Canonized at Rome, was celebrated at St. Lawrence's Church with great Solemnity. The Grand Duke, attended by the Nobility, and most of the Foreign Ministers, was present at the Ceremony, which lasted three Days. The Church was hung throughout with rich Hangings; there was a fine Composition of Musick, and an Oration on the Occasion, spoken by Canonico Mozzi. At Night the Guns round the Forts were fir'd, the Dome of the Cathedral was illuminated, and variety of Fire-works appear'd in several Quarters of the Town.

Genoa, Sept. 18. N. S. On Wednesday last Her Majesty's Ships the Cornwall, Mary, and Lion arrived here from Leghorn, where they took Aboard Provisions and Stores. Lait Night the Lion set Sail for Port Mahon, and the other two intend to depart as soon as the British Letters come in, if they are not prevented by bad Weather.

Hamburgh, Octob. 7. N. S. Letters from the Muscovite Camp say, the Czar had appointed the First of this Month to make an Attack upon the Siege of Rugen. We are assur'd that the Swedes have landed 9000 Men in the said Island, and that King Stanislaus has made his Entry at Stralsund, under a triple discharge of the Cannon. The Duke of Wolfenbuttle has acquainted his States, that finding himself grown Old, he is resolv'd to pass the rest of his Days in Quiet, for which reason he will resign the Government to the Hereditary Prince, his eldest Son, reserving to himself a yearly Pension of One hundred thousand Crowns. It is believed he intends to retire to Rome.

Hague, October 11. N. S. The States of Holland were assembled last Friday and Saturday, and dispos'd of several Military Employments. This Day they met again, and are to continue Sitting all this Week. Yesterday in the Evening an Express arriv'd here from Brigadier Caris, Commandant of Ostend, with advice, That notice being given him what a slender Garrison the Enemy had in Fort Knock, on the 4th Instant, he detach'd 180 Men thither, under the Command of the Partizan de Ruc, who, after having fetch'd a compass round the Country, found means to hide themselves in some Peasants Houles, from whence they came out at Six in the Morning; And when the Gates of the Fort were opened, they took that Opportunity to rush in, and
