

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

NOTICE OF SEIZURE UNDER THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT 1979

To: Derek Roy Trott, formerly Gunner 244916600 Royal Artillery and formerly of 92 Stansfield Road, Winton, Bournemouth.

Pursuant to section 139 (6) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts, certain goods, namely has been seized as liable to forfeiture by force of the following provisions namely:

A Colt Lancer, Registration No. AVK 95B imported into the United Kingdom in December 1983

Regulation 8 of the Customs and Excise Duties (Personal Reliefs for Goods Temporarily Imported) Order 1983 No. 1829 and Section 124 (1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 by reason that the said motor vehicle, being temporarily imported into the United Kingdom, was relieved from Customs and Excise duties and Value Added Tax chargeable on this importation in accordance with section 13 of the Customs and Excise Duties (General Reliefs) Act 1979 on conditions, inter alia, that the vehicle was intended solely for your private use or that of another temporary visitor authorised by you and that the vehicle would be exported from the United Kingdom and, in breach of those conditions, the vehicle was driven on the public road on 14th March 1984 by Steven David Trott who was not an entitled person and it was not exported from the United Kingdom when you left the country on or about 8th March 1984.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in writing in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 3 to the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979.

If you are outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man you must also give the name and address of a solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and act on your behalf.

If you do not give notice of claim within the said period of one month or, if any requirement of the above-mentioned paragraph 4 is not complied with the goods in question will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited.

If you do not give notice of claim in proper form, the Commissioners will take legal proceedings for the condemnation of the said goods.
