

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 11. to Tuesday October 14. 1712!

Windsor, October 12.

THE following Addresses were sent up by the Earl of Findlater and Seafield, and presented to Her Majesty by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, and Freeholders of the Shire of Bamff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly presume to approach Your Sacred Majesty, with our most dutiful and grateful Acknowledgments of the repeated Testimonies of Your Majesty's Princely Care and Concern for the Happiness of Your Subjects; and particularly, for the late Instance of Your Majesty's most gracious Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a safe and honourable Peace may be obtained, tho' it be Your undoubted Prerogative to make Peace and War.

Nothing but the Blessing of God upon Your indefatigable Warchiulness, with a wise and diligent Ministry, could have brought us such a near View of a Peace, so honourable and advantageous to Great Britain, just to Your Allies, and beneficial to Trade: And as a sure Pledge of the same, we do with joyful Hearts, see Your Majesty possess of that important Fort of Dunkirk; and we do already begin to find the happy Effects thereof, and of the Care Your Majesty has taken of securing our Trade, by the suspension of Hostilities at Sea, as well as at Land, 'till Your Majesty have time to conclude the Peace.

We further beg leave humbly to return Your Majesty our hearty Thanks for the Toleration, now established by Law, for Liberty of Conscience to those of the Episcopal Persuasion within this part of Great Britain.

May Your Majesty long live to see a grateful People blessing God and Your Majesty in the quiet Enjoyment of these Comforts, which Your Majesty, in Your great Wisdom, has procured for them. We are, with great submission, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constable, Bailiffs, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Cullen, in the County of Bamff.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave, with all submission, to return our most hearty and thankful Acknowledgments for the great Benefits and Advantages we enjoy, under Your Majesty's most glorious and auspicious Reign. And particularly, for Your Majesty's late Condescension in communicating to Your People, the Terms on which a Peace may be obtained. And it is with the greatest Satisfaction, that we behold Your Majesty holding the Balance of Power in Your Royal Hands, and in a capacity to procure a safe and honourable Peace, highly advantageous to Your own Kingdoms, and just and secure for Your Allies. Nor can we any longer doubt of the Success of Your Majesty's Negotiations, since, as a sure Pledge thereof, we do already see Your Majesty possess'd of that important Fort of Dunkirk; and that by Your great Wisdom and Confiancy, and the wise and prudent Administration of Your Ministry, we already enjoy a Cessation of all Hostilities by Sea as well as by Land.

May God long preserve Your Majesty, and enable You to finish this great Work, and to protect these Your Dominions, and to maintain the Protestant Interest both at Home and Abroad; for we shall reckon it to be our Duty to support and defend Your Majesty's Person, and just Title to the Crown and Government, against all Your Enemies. We are with the greatest submission, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, most loyal and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Bailiffs, Town Council and Community of the Burgh of Bamff, in North Britain.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave, with the utmost Sense of Gratitude, humbly to acknowledge Your Majesty's great Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament, the Terms on which a Peace may be made.

It is an infinite Satisfaction to us, that after the Calamities of a long and expensive War, we have such a near Prospect of a Peace, so honourable and advantageous to Great Britain, just to Your Allies, and beneficial to Trade, which nothing but the Blessing of God upon Your Majesty's Princely Care, and the diligent Application of Your wife and prudent Ministry, could have so soon brought to pass; and as a sure Pledge of the same, with joyful Hearts, we see Your Majesty possess of that important Fort of Dunkirk.

May God Almighty long preserve Your Majesty to Reign over us, and enable You to finish and compleat this great Negotiation, which is so much wanted and desired by Your Majesty's Subjects; and that Your Majesty may always be blest with Success against Your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, shall be the constant Prayer of, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most loyal, most obedient, most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Copenhagen, October 8. N. S. Yesterday at Noon the Danish Fleet set sail from the Gulph of Kiog, and was out of sight of the Coast before the Evening, but the Wind having been against them ever since, it is thought they are not got far at Sea. Four Ships of the Province of Holland, bound homewards from Dantzick, and laden with Corn, have been lately carried up to Grypswalde. The Dutch Envoy's Secretary here having complained of this Injury to the King's Ministers, he has been answered, That it was done by Order of the Czar, who being in great want of Corn for the Subsistence of his Troops in Pomerania, found himself under a necessity of making use of this Supply, but that he would pay for what he had taken.

Berlin, October 11. N. S. The Czar arrived here late this Evening, he alighted at Count Golotkin his Envoy's House, where he lodges, and having stay'd there a little while to refresh himself, he went to visit the King. It is said he will continue in this Place a Day or two, and then proceed on his Journey to Carlsbad, the design of making a Descent into the Isle of Rugen being now laid aside. Monsieur Montargues, Quarter-Master General of his Majesty's Forces, came here some time ago with the Repartition of the Winter Quarters for the Prussian Troops in Flanders, and on the 6th he set out again, in order to return thither.

Hannover, Octob. 14. N. S. The Elector and all the Court set out Yesterday for Gohre, where they intend to stay as long as the Season lasts for Stag-hunting. We have received advice from several Parts, that the Danish Fleet has taken and burnt some of the Swedish Transports; but the two Parties differ very much in their Accounts of that Matter. The Swedes give out their Loss was only of ten or twelve Ships, but the Danes say, it amounts to Seventy, and that their Enemies are not in a Condition to make another Transport. On the other side, the Count de Steinbock talks of forming an Army of 13 or 20000 Men, with the Troops he has lately received, join'd to the Garrisons of Rugen and Stralsund, that he will set upon the Offensive; but it is thought he will hardly run that hazard; and as the Czar is resolv'd to defer his Journey no longer, and intends to go immediately by Berlin to Carlsbad, we look on the Campaign to be in a manner ended in those Parts.

Utrecht, Octob. 18. N. S. His Excellency the Earl of Strafford set out from hence on the 16th for the Hague, from whence he intends to proceed towards Great Britain. The same Day Count Tarouca and Don Lewis d'Alcuna, the King of Portugal's Ministers, were in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal upon some new Orders from their Court, and this Morning they, together with the Plenipotentiaries of France, were at his Lordship's House. Monsieur Hymmen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia to the States General, has been here lately, and after having a Conference with the Earl of Strafford, he returned to his Post at the Hague. Yesterday the Ministers of the Allies met in the Town-house, as usual, and agreed to demand the Exemption of Excise, which has not yet been perfectly settled by the Magistrates of this Town.