Windsor, October 29.

THE following Address from the Burgh of Culrofs, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Dupplin, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Culrofs.

May it please Your Majesty!

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Your Burgh of Culrofs, within the County and Shire of Perth, being equally sensible of the Blessing of Peace, and the sad Effects of War, cannot (among others) omit to Congratulate Your Majesty, and to render our most humble and most hearty Thanks for Your Majesty's Care, in procuring to Your Nations the Satisfactory View of a Peace; which cannot fail by Your Majesty's Conduct, to afford Your Subjects all the Advantages proposed at the Undertaking this War, and to relieve them of the great and expensive Burdens thereof.

The making of Peace and War is Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative; and Your victorious Arms shews where the Balance of Europe lies; so that what hath hitherto been the Motive of War, is now in Your Majesty's Power: And therefore we hope that Heaven shall bless Your Majesty with completing so great a Work, and that we shall never be wanting in our thankful Acknowledgments to God for so great a Mercy, nor in our dutiful Allegiance to Your Majesty.

Your Majesty's universal Care for all Your Dominions makes us Confident, that what concerns this remote Part of Your Realm, in the Negotiation of Peace, will not be omitted: And Your pious and constant Zeal for the Protestant Religion doth convince us, that Your Majesty will continue to take such Measures for securing to us a Protestant Successor, that when it shall please God to call Your Majesty from an Earthly to an Immortal Crown, we may still enjoy the Exercise of our Holy Religion, which is and ought to be dearer to us than any other Concern.

That God may grant Success to all Your Majesty's Undertakings, and a long and happy Reign to Your Majesty here, and that hereafter Your Memory may ever be Sacred, is and shall always be the Prayers of, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Faithful, most Humble, and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.
