Genoa, October 23. N. S. The Senate having appointed Signor Francesco Grimaldo to be their Envoy at the Court of Madrid, he intends very soon to embark on Board a Galley for Marseilles, and thence to proceed on his Journey by Land. We have received Advice from Thoulon, that the Captain and Dartmouth, two British Men of War, are waiting there for the Duke of Argyle's arrival, after which they are to sail with his Grace for Port Mahon. They write from Milan, that the Electoral Prince of Saxony was gone from thence to the Court of Modena; and that Marschal Taun had desired leave of the Emperor to go to Vienna.

Venice, October 28. N. S. Great care is taken by the Magistrates of Health to prevent all Commerce with Places where the Mortality of Cattle continues; and they have lately ordered considerable Quantities of Beef to be burned, because it was brought in without leave. The Officers of the Customs have also burn'd a Boat full of Foreign Cloath, which is prohibited in this State. On the 25th the Martha Galley arrived here from London, and several Venetian Ships are lately come in from the Levant. They write from Rome, that the Order of the Golden Fleece was brought from the Emperor to Prince Livio Odescalchi, who intends in a short time to set out for Naples, where he is to be Installed by the Viceroy, together with the Prince St. Severino, and another Neapolitan Grandee, likewise created Knights of the same Order. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that several Malecontents have been lately Arrested there, and the Prince of Bisaccia was sent for out of the Country, being suspected of forming some Designs against the Government. The Consul of Ragusa hath made the Viceroy the usual Present in the Name of that Republick, which is done every Year as an acknowledgment for the Protection they enjoy from the Kings of Naples.

Berlin, November 5. N. S. Lieutenant-General Arnheim, who commanded his Majesty's Troops in Italy is expected here very soon; and it is said Lieutenant-General Finck is to succeed him in the Command of those Forces. Monsieur Abefeld, the Danish Envoy at this Court, intends to set out for Copenhagen in a few Days.

Hanover, Nov. 8. N. S. The Elector has sent Orders to Monsieur Bul o, his General in Flanders, to march homewards with the Troops of his Electoral Highness, that had been in British Pay, but as these Instructions were given only upon Account of some Difficulties arisen about their Winter Quarters, it is not yet known whether they are to return. We are inform'd by Letters from Pomerania, that the Swedes at Spralsund, have extended their Quarters as far as Damgarden, which has so alarm'd the Danish Garrison at Rosstock, that they kept the Gates of the Town shut for three Days. The Muscovites have quitted the Blockade of Stetin, and join'd their Army near Stralsund, that they may be the better able to resist the Swedes, in case they should attack them, as they give out they intend to do.
