Choice of fuch Ministers, as have faithfully executed Your nour of Great Britain.

Tho' the Trade does not so much concern us, we cannot but gravefully observe the Regard Your Majetty hath had to the Brivish Commerce, by providing for the Safety of what, we have heretofore enjoyed, and improving it in other Parts of the World where as yet we have had no Traffick. And as our Trade is extended to the South Sen, and a Provision made for a Fishery, so we doubt not but it will have a happy Influence on our Northern Coasts, that Your Majetsy's Goodness may equal the Extent of Your Dominions; and that such a Branch of Your Royal Prerogative may not be invaded by any Neighbouring Nation, to far as to take shele Advantages which properly belong to Your Subjects.

Our Ancestors under a long Succession of an Hundred and eleven Sovereigns, Your Royal Progenigors, have always been Realous for Monarchy and, tince Christianity was planted among them, for Episcopal Government; and the tender Care Your Majesty hath lately show it to the Episcopal Chergy in these Parts, requires our unmost Thanks, which we humbly offer Your Majesty, with Hearts full of Gratitude and Sincerity:

Gratitude and Sincerity:
