St. James's, January 31.

THE following Address from the Council and Assembly of Barbadoes, being transmitted from thence, was presented to Her Majesty by William Heysham, Esq; and introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Members of Her Majesty's Council and general Assembly of Barbadoes.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do humbly presume to take this Opportunity to Congratulate Your Majesty in overcoming the many surprizing Difficulties You have so generously sustained, and struggled with (for the Good of all Your Subjects and Allies) through the whole Course of Your glorious Reign, but more especially in overcoming those which would have obstructed that agreeable Prospect of Peace, which Your Majesty is graciously pleas'd to give us in Your Speech to both Houses of Parliament, on the Sixth of June last.

This gracious Speech hath filled us with equal Joy and Admiration; for the Terms of Peace therein mentioned are such, as will not only tend to the good of Europe in general, to the Honour and Safety of Great Britain in particular, and to the inexpressible Benefit of all Your Majesty's Dominions; but the Care Your Majesty hath likewise taken of all Your Allies, will also perpetuate Your illustrious Name to all succeeding Ages, and remain a lasting Monument of Your Praise.

We also humbly take this occasion to acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness in the Happiness we enjoy under the Administration of Your Governor.

We cannot conclude, without humbly beseeching Your Majesty to give us leave to assure You, that our hearty Endeavours shall never be wanting to contribute all we can to the safety of Your Royal Person, and the Prosperity of Your Reign.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Genoa, January 22. N. S. Some Days ago we received the Treaty for prolonging a Cessation of Arms between the Crowns of Great Britain, France and Spain, for four Months, which was immediately sent to Admiral Jennings at Porta Spetia. The Great Duke of Tuscany, the Duke of Parma and this Republick, have followed the Example of the Venetians, in forbidding all Commerce with the Emperors Hereditary Countries, for fear of the Plague. The French Envoy residing here had obtain'd Leave of his Court to return home, for the Recovery of his Health; but he is since order'd to stay till he hath executed some Commissions which are to be sent him very soon, relating to Sicily and Sardinia. The Court of Vienna hath offer'd the Prussian Troops Thirteen thousand Pistoles, being half of what they demand for their Winter Quarters, but they still refuse to march out of Italy.

Turin, January 28. N. S. Most of the General Officers of his Royal Highness's Troops are come to this Place, in order to make some new Regulations in the Army. They assembled a few Days ago to consider of some Proposals that have been made for rendering the Militia more useful: And it is said, at their next Meeting they will nominate the Regiments that are to be sent to take Possession of Sicily. Some Disputes have arisen between the Emperor and the Duke, about the Imperial Fiefs in this Country, but it is hoped they will be adjusted at Utrecht. The Count de Castelbarco, Envoy from the Court of Vienna, is to have his Audience of Leave to Morrow.

Lisbon, February 6. N. S. This Court continues still at Salvaterra. The King and Queen have lately made a solemn Entry into Santaren, at the Request of the Inhabitants of that Town. On the second Instant came in the Royal Anne Gally from Gibraltar, having on Board the Commissioners for inspecting Her Majesty's Forces. She brings Advice, that the Emperor of Morocco refused either to restore the Queen's Subjects, or to renew the Truce.

Hamburg, February 7. N. S. On the twenty fifth past his Danish Majesty set out from Fredericia, and arrived on the twenty eighth at Rendsburg, where the Czar waited to receive him. A few Days after the Army of the Allies broke up, and having past the Eyder, the Infantry at Rendsburg, and the Cavalry at Osterade, they march'd towards Fredericstade. On the fourth the Czar and the King of Denmark took their Route towards the Treine, and finding Holingstede abandoned, they repair'd the Bridges which the Swedes had broke down, and passed that little River. Upon which Count Steinbock changed his Quarters from Oldefwort to Gardingen, where it is thought impossible to Attack him, unless the Ditches, which in that Country are very broad and deep, should be frozen over; and it is said he will be able to find Subsistence there for a long time. As soon as that General arrived in Eyderstade, he writ to the Administrator of Holstein, to desire Tonningen might be delivered to him for a Place of Arms, but the Administrator returned answer, that being resolv'd to observe an exact Neutrality, he could not grant his Request.

Utrecht, February 10. N. S. Yesterday Morning the Plenipotentiaries of France were in Conference with those of Portugal, and afterwards with the Ministers of Savoy, at the House of the Lord Privy Seal, who entertain'd them at Dinner. The Imperial Plenipotentiaries have lately communicated to those of the Queen a second Plan of Peace, which comes very near the Contents of Her Majesty's Speech from the Throne. It is said the Abbot de Polignae intends to set out to Morrow for the Court of France.

Westminster, February 3. This Day the Parliament met, and was further Prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Instant.

The Commissioners for Virtualling Her Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 11th Instant in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals and Treat with such Persons as are inclinable to serve Irish Troops for the Service of Her Majesty's Navy.

Whereas in the Printed Paper of Benefit Tickets which were drawn at Guildhall, on Wednesday the 21st of January last, being the last Day of Drawing, it was published and declared, that in the Drawing of that Day there happen'd to be a Ticket missing in Box B, to answer the Number 27,237 drawn out of Box A; by which means the Managers of the Lottery could not then adjust the Fortune of the said Number 27,237, nor ascertain the Number entituled to the 500 l. as last drawn, but that as soon as a further Search could be made, and the Registers and Files examin'd, the Number entituled to the said 500 l. as last drawn, and the Chance of the said Number 27,237 should be regulated and adjusted, and publick Notice given thereof. Now the said Managers and Directors do hereby give Notice, That upon the Examinations which have been since made, they (at a general Meeting had for this purpose) see just Cause to Order and Determine, and they do hereby Order and Determine, That the said Ticket, Number 27,237, besides a Benefit of 20 l. is entituled to 500 l. as last drawn; and that upon drawing the said Ticket, number'd 27,237, the said Lottery was compleatly drawn.

The Royal African Company of England do hereby give Notice, that those Adventurers who shall not pay in upon their Old Shares Fifty Shillings per Share, on or before the 13th of this Instant February will, by the late Agreement, be oblig'd hereafter to pay Fifty five Shillings per Share, or lose their stock.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ship the Dragon, may, at Mr. Goadby's House in St. Christopher's Alley in the upper Moorfields, receive (according to Her Majesty's most gracious Proclamation of the 20th of May, 1708) their several Shares of the Bounty money for the Men that were on Board the Victory a Privateer at the beginning of the Engagement, on Tuesday the 10th Instant; and that the Shares of such as shall not be then paid, may, during the space of 3 Years, be receiv'd every Saturday in the Afternoon at the Place aforesaid.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That such of the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's Ships Montague, Bristol, Ludlow-Castle and Port Mahon, who have not already received their respective Shares of the Ship the Golden Eagle, may receive the same on Monday the 9th Instant, at Mr. Mitchell's House in St. Martin's-Lane, Cannon-street; and such Persons who are not then paid their Shares, may receive the same every Wednesday morning, during the space of three Years.

Notice is hereby given by the Agent to the Captors, That the Officers and Company of her Majesty's Ship the Seaford, may, on Monday the 9th of February next, at Mr. Master's House on Towerhill, receive their respective Shares of the Bounty for the Dutchess Anne, and for the Ship and Bounty of the Mary Anne Privateers; and such Persons who are not then paid their Shares, may receive the same every Tuesday and Saturday morning, during the space of three Years, at the Place aforesaid.

Richard Stoughton, Author of the great Cordial-Elixer, for the better accommodating Merchants, Foreigners, Captains of Ships and others, who send or take with them great Quantities abroad, is removed out of Southwark to his House in Bartholomew-lane near the Royal Exchange, London, where the said Elixer is now only prepar'd, and to which Place all his Correspondents are desir'd for the future to direct their Letters, and they shall be supplied as formerly. It is sold at many Places in and about London; also by some one Merchant, Bookfeller, Shopkeeper, or Coffeeman in most Cities and great Trading Towns in Europe; where it is not yet placed, any Person who sends first may have it to sell again, with good Allowance, many selling 50 or 60 Dozen a Year, but none will be deliver'd without ready Money, either by Carrier, or by Bill on some one in Town. It is now famous in most Parts of the World, and he hath obtain'd her Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents, for the sole preparing and vending the same, prohibiting all others from making, selling, or in any wise imitating of it. Most Gentlemen drink it in Wine instead of any other Bitter, Ladies in Tea, and others in Beer, Ale, Cyder, small Puoch, &c. Very few travel long Journeys or go to Sea without it, it is powerfully preserving from infectious Air, or contagious Distempers, &c. keeping the Body in a due state of Health and Vigour; as the Bills with it direct, being now in French and Dutch as well as English.
