

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 3. to Saturday February 7. 1712.

St. James's, January 31.

THE following Address from the Council and Assembly of Barbadoes, being transmitted from thence, was presented to Her Majesty by William Heysham, Esq; and introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Members of Her Majesty's Council and general Assembly of Barbadoes.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects do humbly presume to take this Opportunity to Congratulate Your Majesty in overcoming the many surprizing Difficulties You have so generously sustained, and struggled with (for the Good of all Your Subjects and Allies) through the whole Course of Your glorious Reign, but more especially in overcoming those which would have obstructed that agreeable Prospect of Peace, which Your Majesty is graciously pleas'd to give us in Your Speech to both Houses of Parliament, on the Sixth of June last.

This gracious Speech hath filled us with equal Joy and Admiration; for the Terms of Peace therein mentioned are such, as will not only tend to the good of Europe in general, to the Honour and Safety of Great Britain in particular, and to the inexpressible Benefit of all Your Majesty's Dominions; but the Care Your Majesty hath likewise taken of all Your Allies, will also perpetuate Your illustrious Name to all succeeding Ages, and remain a lasting Monument of Your Praise.

We also humbly take this occasion to acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness in the Happiness we enjoy under the Administration of Your Governor.

We cannot conclude, without humbly beseeching Your Majesty to give us leave to assure You, that our hearty Endeavours shall never be wanting to contribute all we can to the safety of Your Royal Person, and the Prosperity of Your Reign.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Genoa, January 22. N. S. Some Days ago we received the Treaty for prolonging a Cessation of Arms between the Crowns of Great Britain, France and Spain, for four Months, which was immediately sent to Admiral Jennings at Porta Spetia. The Great Duke of Tuscany, the Duke of Parma and this Republick, have followed the Example of the Venetians, in forbidding all Commerce with the Emperor's Hereditary Countries, for fear of the Plague. The French Envoy residing here had obtain'd Leave of his Court to return home, for the Recovery of his Health; but he is since order'd to stay till he hath executed some Commissions which are to be sent him very soon, relating to Sicily and Sardinia. The Court of Vienna hath offer'd the Prussian Troops Thirteen thousand Pistols, being half of what they demand for their Winter Quarters, but they still refuse to march out of Italy.

Turin, January 28. N. S. Most of the General Officers of his Royal Highness's Troops are come to this Place, in order to make some new Regulations in the Army. They assembled a few Days ago to consider of some Proposals that have been made for rendering the Militia more useful: And it is said, at their next Meeting they will nominate the Regiments that are to be sent to take Possession of Sicily. Some Disputes have arisen between the Emperor and the Duke, about the Imperial Fiefs in this Country, but it is hoped they will be adjusted at Utrecht. The Count de Castelbarco, Envoy from the Court of Vienna, is to have his Audience of Leave to Morrow.

Lisbon, February 6. N. S. This Court continues still at Salvaterra. The King and Queen have lately made a solemn Entry into Santaren, at the Request of the Inhabitants of that Town. On the second Instant came in the Royal Anne Gally from Gibraltar, having on Board the Commissioners for inspecting Her Majesty's Forces. She brings Advice, that the Emperor of Morocco refused either to restore the Queen's Subjects, or to renew the Truce.

Hamburg, February 7. N. S. On the twenty fifth past his Danish Majesty set out from Fredericia, and arrived on the twenty eighth at Rendeburg, where the Czar waited to receive him. A few Days after the Army of the Allies broke up, and having past the Eyder, the Infantry at Rendeburg, and the Cavalry at Osterade, they march'd towards Fredericstادت. On the fourth the Czar and the King of Denmark took their Route towards the Treine, and finding Holingstede abandoned, they repair'd the Bridges which the Swedes had broke down, and pass'd that little River. Upon which Count Steinbock changed his Quarters from Oldefwort to Gardingen, where it is thought impossible to Attack him, unless the Ditches, which in that Country are very broad and deep, should be frozen over; and it is said he will be able to find Subsistence there for a long time. As soon as that General arrived in Eyderstadt, he writ to the Administrator of Holstein, to desire Tonningen might be delivered to him for a Place of Arms, but the Administrator returned answer, that being resolv'd to observe an exact Neutrality, he could not grant his Request.

Utrecht, February 10. N. S. Yesterday Morning the Plenipotentiaries of France were in Conference with those of Portugal, and afterwards with the Ministers of Savoy, at the House of the Lord Privy Seal, who entertain'd them at Dinner. The Imperial Plenipotentiaries have lately communicated to those of the Queen a second Plan of Peace, which comes very near the Contents of Her Majesty's Speech from the Throne. It is said the Abbot de Polignae intends to set out to Morrow for the Court of France.

Westminster, February 3. This Day the Parliament met, and was further Prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Instant.

The Commissioners for Virtuallying Her Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 11th Instant in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals and Treat with such Persons as are inclinable to serve Irish Troops for the Service of Her Majesty's Navy.