TORBAY BOROUGH COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

TOWN AND COUNTRY AMENITIES ACT 1974

Borough of Torbay Cary Park Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that the Torbay Borough Council has designated the Cary Park area of Torquay as a Conservation Area under the provisions of the above Acts, which area is more fully described in the Schedule to this Notice.

The effect of designation is that special attention will be paid by the Council to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area concerned. Future development and advertising in the Conservation Area will be subject to strict planning controls designed to secure the preservation of the character and general improvement of the area.

Subject to certain exceptions, therefore, demolition of buildings or any part of a building within the Conservation Area will now require the approval of the Council as Local Planning Authority.

Copies of a plan showing the area concerned may be inspected at the office of the Borough Planning Officer, Town Hall, Castle Circus, Torquay, during each weekday morning.

SCHEDULE

Cary Park Conservation Area

The north-west corner of the Cary Park conservation area is at a point in the middle of Cary Avenue 25 metres east of its junction with Manor Road. From there the boundary runs for 30 metres east to the point where Cary Avenue bifurcates, and then runs along the north side of the northern leg of Cary Avenue for 120 metres. The boundary continues north for 50 metres, south-east for 20 metres and north-east for 60 metres, then runs roughly south-east for 150 metres to include all the properties in Guestland Road. The boundary touches the northern side of Palermo Road approximately 70 metres from its junction with Cary Avenue and runs north for 40 metres, east for 30 metres and south for 40 metres to include the property known as "Westhome". The boundary then runs along the northern edge of Palermo Road to its junction with St. Albans Road. It then runs north for 50 metres along its western edge and then runs east for 135 metres behind the properties in Churchway before turning south and running along the backs of properties in Reddenhill Road as far as St. Annes Road. It runs east along the middle of St. Annes Road for 30 metres and then turns south to run for 90 metres along the middle of Reddenhill Road. It then turns south and runs behind the properties at the eastern end of Cary Avenue. It then follows a curved alignment running east along the south side of the open space of Cary Park for 180 metres. At Aveland Road it runs south along the entire line of that road for 110 metres and then turns west for 80 metres, north for 110 metres and west again for 50 metres to Devons Road. It runs south from Devons Road for 30 metres and then west and north-west for 220 metres along the properties on the south side of Cary Avenue, finally turning north-east behind the properties in Manor Road to reach the starting point 25 metres east of Manor Road.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, The London Gazette Office, Room 413, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and Section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
