At the Court at St. James's, April 7. 1713.

PRESENT

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Hon. Simon Lord Harcourt, Baron of Stanton Harcourt, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, having by Her Majefty's Command, delivered to Her Majefty in Council, the Great Seal of Great Britain, Her Majesty was gracioufly pleased immediately to reftore it to him again, with the Title of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain; whereupon his Lordship took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and also the Oath of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

This Day his Grace John Duke of Athol, was, by Her Majesty's Command, Sworn One of the Lords of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Hon. Peregrine Hyde, Lord Marquis of Carmarthen, took the Oaths appointed to be taken inftead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, his Lordship being Lord Lieutenant of the East Riding of York, and of the Town of Kingfton upon Hull.

Westminster, April 9. This Day Her Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in Her Royal Robes, feated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Uiher of the Black Rod, was fent with a Meffage from Her Majeky toi the House of Commons, requiring their Atten-dance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleafed to make the following most gracious Speech to both Houfes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Ended the last Session with my bearty Thanks for the Solemn Affurances you had given me, by which I have been enabled to overcome the Difficulties contriv'd to obstruct the General Peace.

. I bave deferr'd the Opening the Seffion until now, being defirous to Communicate to you, at your !

first Meeting, the Success of this Important Affair : It is therefore with great Pleasure I tell you the Treaty is Signed, and in a few Days the Ratifications will be Exchanged.

The Negotiation bis been drawn into fo great a Length, that all our Allies have had fufficient Opportunity to adjust their several interests, though the Publick Charge has been thereby much encreased; get I hope my People will be easie under it, since We have happily obtained the End We proposed.

What I have done for Securing the Frotestant Succession, and the perfect Friendship there is be-tween Me and the House of Hanover, may Convince fuch who Wish well to Both, and desire the Quiet and Safety of their Country, how vain all Attempts are to Divide Us, and those who would make a Merit by Separating Our Interests, will never attain their ill Ends.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

As great a Progress bus been made in Reducing the Publick Expence, as the Circumstances of Affairs would admit.

What Force may be neceffary for Securing Our Commerce by Sea, and for Guards and Garrifons, I leave entirely to My Parliament.

Make your felves Safe, and I shall be Satufield.

Next to the Protestion of the Divine Providence, I depend upon the Loyalty and Affection of my People.

I want no other Guarranty.

I recommend to your Care those Brave Men who bave served well by Sed or Land this War, and cannot be Imploy'd in time of Peace.

I must defire you to provide the Supplies you shall judge requifite, and to give fuch Difpatch as may be necessary for your own Ease and the Publick Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The many Advantages I have obtained for My, own Subjects, bave occasioned much Opposition, and long delay to this Peace.

It affords Me great Satisfaction, that My People will have it in their Power, by degrees, to repair what they have suffered during so long and burdenfome a War.

The Easing Our Foreign Trade, as far as is con-sistent with National Credit, will deferve your Care.

And to think of proper Methods for improving and encouraging Our Home Trade and Manufa-Aures, particularly the kishery, which may be car-ry'd on to employ all our spare Hands, and be a mighty Benefit even to the remotest Parts of this Kingdom.

Several Matters were laid before you last Seffon, which the Weight and Multiplicity of other Busi-· nefs
