Kensington, May 23.

THE following Address from the Borough of Great Marlow, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Fotheredge and George Bruere, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, and the Reverend Mr. Millicham their Minister; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Cheney Viscount Newhaven, Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Bucks.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constables, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks.

MADAM!

Admirations and Gratitude are the mighty Motives that cause us humbly to approach the Throne.

Your stopping the Torrent of Successful Power giving to divided Europe the Blessing of Peace, and awakening into Happiness those that seem'd insatuated with Misery, proclaims You the Favourite of Heaven, as well as the ador'd Monarch of Your People. Your Majesty's consummate Wisdom in choosing such Ministers, and giving Life to their Counsels, who make the Good of their Church and Country always the prime Object of their Care, has not only baffled the Force of Exotick Fraud, but render'd even their Designs Abortive, who are Strangers to the Probity of their Native Soil, and seem to be born with an Antipathy to Truth.

This, Madam, gives Wings to Your Fame, adds fresh Raptures to our Joy, and will, doubtless, in a short Time, revive our Trade.

We cannot mightily wonder, that some should think, by the help of Distance, to practice their Art of Dividing, with Success; since even at Home, they have studiously endeavour'd to blind our Eyes, and rob us of Reason: But we doubt not, but Your Majesty's prudent Care will always preserve that Harmony with the House of Hanover, which is so necessary to our future Happiness. We shall, as far as in us lies, industriously Cultivate the Arts of Peace, though with more Probity, than some of late did those of War; and by our Gratitude and Obedience, endeavour to make our selves worthy of the best of Earthly Blessings, even Your long and Indulgent Reign.

The following Address from the County of Dublin, was presented to Her Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of Your Majesty's County of Dublin, at a General Sessions and Goal Delivery held for the said County, the 16th of April, 1713.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

In our last Address to Your most Sacred Majesty, we acknowledged Your Goodness and great Condescension in communicating those honourable Terms of Peace, which at this time we heartily rejoice to see accomplished, by the Wisdom of Your Majesty, and the Fidelity of Your Ministers.

It is wonderful to us, that so great a Good to Your Majesty's Kingdoms, should have so great Opposition given to it by some, who could have no other Ends by their Endeavours to prolong the War, than to rob Your Majesty of the Glory of obtaining so honourable a Peace.

Whatever the Views of such may be, we desire to look forward to nothing greater, because we can look forward to nothing better than that general Peace which Your Majesty has concluded: Glorious indeed to Your Majesty, and Safe to Your Subjects.

Those Conditions are still more valuable to us by the lasting Prospect of enjoying them under the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover, which we hope it may be long before we experience, but when we do, are assured that by GOD's permission, it will continue upon the Throne to latest Posterity.

Most happy are we under Your Majesty's Government, most happy will Posterity be by the effects of it: Your Majesty has been the Terror of Europe in War, and have now settled the Ballance of Power by the Terms of Peace. You have extended as well as secured the Trade of Your Subjects, and have shewn Your self so much the Defender of our Established Religion, and Established Liberties, that we hope when those important Benefits of Your Glorious Reign, shall be duly reflected on; all Faction and Party-Rage will entirely cease, and that those who use the Engines of Popery and Phanaticism to disturb our Quiet by their unreasonable Jealousies, will be for ever disappointed. As for our Parts, we shall endeavour to cultivate that Unity among our Fellow Subjects, which Your Majesty has so earnestly recommended from the Throne.

The following Address from the Borough of Bradninch, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Coplestone Rampfeild, Bar. Francis Gwyn and Edward St. Hill, Esqrs; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. Earl Poulet, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Minister, Masters and Burgeses, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough, Borough, Manor and Liberty of Bradwinch, in Your Majesty's County of Devon.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHE Your Majesty's most Dutiful Subjects, with Hearts full of Loyalty, humbly approach Your Sacred Person, among those who are sincere Lovers of their Prince and Country, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Accomplishment of Your wise Councils in obtaining a Peace: A Peace which we are fully satisfied must be Advantageous to Your People, having been made by a Princess of Your great Wisdom, who by all the Allions of Your Life have shewn, that You have nothing so much at Heart, as the Happiness and Welfare of Your People.

This Invaluable Blessing Your Majesty's Firmness and Constancy of Mind has procured for us, notwithstanding the open Opposition and secret Artifices used by designing Men, both at Home and Abroad, to obstruct the Happiness of their own Countries.

All Your Majesty's truly Faithful Subjects could not but be satisfied of Your good Intentions towards the Use of Hanover; but the Assurance Your Majesty has condescended to give us, of the perfect Friendship there is between Your Majesty and that Illustrious House, has fully stop'd the Mouths of those, who under pretence of being more than ordinary Zealous for their Succession, cover'd Designs they did not dare own.

We beg leave to return Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for Your Majesty's most kind and reasonable Advice given to both Your Houses of Parliament (and in them to all Your People) in the Close of Your last Gracious Speech; and in dutiful Compliance therewith, we shall implore the Assistance of Almighty GOD so to direct our Hearts, that no groundless Jealousies contriv'd by a Faction, and fomented by Party Rage, may make any Impression on us, and we hope that all our Fellow-Subjects will offer up the same Prayer.

That God would permit Your Majesty long to enjoy the Blessings of that Peace which You have given to Europe, is, and always shall be, the hearty Prayer of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Helstone, was presented to Her Majesty by Sydney Godolphin, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochester, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's antient and loyal Borough of Helstone, in the County of Cornwall.

Dread Sovereign,

THE Triumphant Laurels which Your Conquering Sword yearly won, whilst engag'd in a necessary and successful War, gave us frequent Opportunities of justly Congratulating Your Majesty with the Title of Invincible: But the Olive-branch of Peace, which Your Majesty hath now blest us with, yields us a much more joyful Occasion of begging leave, with the most profound Humility, to Congratulate Your Sacred Majesty with that of Pacifick; a Title as in it self more Bright, and resplendent, so we are fully persuaded more satisfactory and agreeable to so pious and good a Queen, especially since the Peace You have made for us, has indisputably secur'd the Protestant Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, is so distinguishably Honourable, Glorious and Advantageous to Your own Dominions, the most grateful Return for which endearing Favour and invaluable Blessing we can make, is zealously to endeavour, in our several Stations, to compleat Peace at home, by discountenancing Faction and promoting Unity, which we beg leave solemnly to assure Your Majesty we will always do, whilst we have the Honour and Happiness (which God Almighty grant we may long, very long, enjoy) of being Your Majesty's most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Liskard, was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. William Bridges, one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Rochester, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Dutiful Subjects the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskard, in the County of Cornwall.

PERMIT us (most Dread Sovereign!) to Address Your Majesty with all Duty and Thankfulness for the inestimable Blessing of Peace Your Majesty hath obtained to Your Kingdoms, after so bloody and expensive a War. 'Tis the Happiness of Great Britain, that the making Peace as well as War, is the just Prerogative of the Crown, else 'tis to be fear'd that the different Interests lately among us, would have prevented the Peace which Your Majesty, by Your Royal Proclamation, hath published to have made with his most Christian Majesty the French King.

We do with the utmost Joy take Notice of Your Majesty's Zeal for the Establish'd Religion among us, and of the entire Friendship between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the indefatigable Endeavours and Insinuations of a Factionary Party to the contrary.

That Your Majesty may long Reign, and, together with Your dutiful Subjects, enjoy the Blessings of Peace; and that Monarchy and Episcopacy may always continue, is the hearty Prayer of Your Majesty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Thorold, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WHE the Alderman, Comburgesses, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Grantham, beg leave, with the greatest Humility, to express our unfeigned Joy and Thankfulness for Your putting so Glorious an End to that Expence of Blood and Treasure, that has so long wasted Europe.

The Blessings of Heaven upon Your Majesty's wise and steady Counsels, have at last, to the unspeakable Satisfaction of Your People, finish'd that great and difficult Work, which alone was wanting to render Your Reign the Glory of the present, and the Admiration of succeeding Ages.

From

From what You have already done with so much Honour and Justice to Your Allies, and such tender Affection to Your own People, we can with Pleasure and Confidence in the Divine Protection, promise our selves the happy Fruits of Peace under Your Gracious Administration.

Your Princely Wisdom appears in the Choice of a Ministry, who have given undeniable Proofs as well of their Abilities as Integrity, in finishing an Honourable and Safe Peace, notwithstanding the restless Endeavours of Faction to oppose it,

Your Religious Care to suppress the Growth of Blasphemy and Prophaneness will, we hope, in due time root out the Principles of Rebellion.

The right Understanding that is established between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, must needs banish those Jealousies which some designing Men, for wicked Purposes, have labour'd to Corrupt the Affections of Your People with.

And we humbly beseech that good Providence, which has already made Your Reign the Glory of the British Throne, to make it still more and more so, by setting You above the reach of Your Enemies (if such Goodness can have any) and to preserve Your Sacred Person, upon which our Safety and Welfare do so nearly depend; and may we and all our Fellow-Subjects contend in nothing but in unfeigned Holiness, steady Loyalty, and mutual Offices of Peace and good Will amongst our selves, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Aldeburgh, was Presented to Her Majesty by William Johnson Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Capital Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, amongst the rest of Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly and heartily to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Endeavours in obtaining an Honourable Peace.

The Difficulties You have surmounted in the Negotiations, the great Concern You have shewn for the Interests of all Your Allies in general, and the many Advantages You have gained for Your own Subjects in particular, and what the Regard You have had to our future as well as our present Happiness, by securing the Protestant Succession, and cultivating a perfect Friendship with the Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the insidious Attempts of a Factions Party, who have used their utmost Efforts to create Misunderstandings betwixt You; These, Madam, are all shining Instances of Your Majesty's singular Prudence and Conduct, and do abundantly display the Wisdom of Your Choice in Your Ministers at Home, and Your Plenipotentiaries Abroad.

That your Sacred Majesty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of that glorious Peace You have made, and after a prosperous Reign upon Earth, may, full of Days, be crowned with everlasting Glory in Heaven, shall be the constant Prayer of, Madam, your most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Andover, was Presented to Her Majesty by William Guidon, one of their Representatives in Parliament for that Corporation.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Approved Men, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation and Borough of Andover, in the County of Southampton.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE humbly beg Leave to return our most humble and dutiful Thanks to Your Majesty for Communicating to your Parliament the Success of the important Affair of the Peace, and that the Treaty was signed, and would in a few Days be ratified.

We entirely rely on Your Majesty's Goodness and Wisdom that the same will appear equally glorious to Your Majesty, and beneficial to your Subjects.

We likewise return our most dutiful Thanks for your Royal Assurance of having provided for the Security of the Protestant Succession as now Established by the Acts of Settlement, and of the perfect Friendship that is between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover.

We shall always pray that all Attempts that have or shall be made to divide Your Majesty and that House (whose Interests are inseparable) will prove vain and ineffectual.

That Your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, that your People may always be united in their Duty and Affections to Your Majesty, as it is the hearty Prayer, so it shall ever be the utmost Endeavours of Your Majesty's most Faithful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Stafford, was Presented to Her Majesty by Walter Chermynnd, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Steward, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Stafford.

May it please Your Majesty,

UPON this signal Occasion, permit us (Dread Sovereign) to approach your Throne; which we do with all Humility, and with the most joyful and thankful Hearts.

After the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure in War, the Conclusion of a Peace, Honourable to Your Majesty, Just to your Allies, Advantageous to your Subjects, must be to every one that loves his Country matter of the greatest Rejoycing.

But we (Madam) can neither sufficiently admire your Goodness in the Affection you express to your People and the Confidence you repose in them, nor your Wisdom in the Choice of such a Ministry for the Management of this and all your Affairs, as is every way equal to the Difficulties attending them, raised chiefly by a discontented Party among our selves.

To Your Majesty, the glorious Instrument under God, and to God the sole Author of all the Blessings we enjoy, the most humble and hearty Acknowledgments are due. And thus it is we shall ever pay the same to both, by adhering firmly to the Church of England as by Law established; by bearing true Allegiance to Your Royal Person, by strenuously asserting the Protestant Succession, by studying and promoting the Arts of Peace, and by never ceasing to pray that Your Majesty may long, very long, continue to be the Minister of God unto us for Good.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Madrid,

Madrid, May 15. N. S. The King and Queen have given notice to the Court, that towards the end of this Month, they will remove to Buen Retiro, where they are making great Improvements in the Gardens. The Queen Dowager hath sent their Majesties a Compliment of Condolance upon the Death of the Duke d'Alencon by her Treasurer, who is likewise ordered to regulate the Place of her Abode after the Peace. It is said she is inclin'd to live either at Valladolid or Burgos, but the King who desires to see her Majesty here, hath ordered the Duke of Monteleon's Palace, where she lodg'd before, to be fitted for her reception, and it is thought she will comply with his request. The Duke of Popoli is preparing for his departure to Catalonia, where it is reported Marechal Staremberg meets with great difficulty to support his Troops, and that they commit several Disorders for want of Money and Bread. Monsieur Orry is preparing a Scheme for regulating the Finances, the King hath assured Count Bergeick that when he hath done the same, he will examine them both himself, and fix on that which he thinks most beneficial for the Kingdom. In the mean time the Persons that Farm the Taxes, have excused themselves from making any Payments, upon account of this new Establishment, which hath been so long talk'd of. On the 9th Instant, a Courier arrived from the Marquis de Monteleon, with an account of her Majesty's having declared to Her Parliament, that she had concluded the Peace. Two Days after, another Courier came from the Duke d'Ossuna, with advice of his arrival at Utrecht, and we are impatient to hear that his Catholick Majesty's Ministers have likewise Sign'd the Treaty of Peace.

Hanover, May 23. N. S. His Electoral Highness is removed with the Court to Herenhausen, where he intends to pass the Summer. Monsieur de Schulenburg, the Elector's Chamberlain, is returned from Hufum, with an account, that a Treaty was concluded between the Allies and Count Steinbock, by which it is agreed, That the Swedes shall surrender themselves Prisoners of War, and be conducted to Flensbourg, in order to be transported from thence to Sweden at their own Expence, as soon as they have paid their Ransoms; That they shall leave their Fire-Arms, Horses, and Baggage behind them, and shall not serve against the Allies in two Years; the Men who have no mind to go with Count Steinbock, shall be allow'd to List under the Confederates, but no constraint shall be used to oblige them to it. It hath been also stiplated, That the Muscovites shall go out of Holstein within fifteen Days after the Swedes are embark'd, and That the City of Tonningen shall not be attack'd in a Year. It is said the Confederates design to besiege Wismar, immediately after the departure of the Swedes.

Brussels, May 25. N. S. Count Tilly, who went some Days ago to Tournay, in order to regulate with Marechal Montefquieu, the evacuation of the Places to be given up on both Sides, in pursuance of the Treaty of Peace, is returned hither, after having Sign'd a Convention on that Subject at Orchies. The Town and Castle of Namure are to be evacuated on the 29th Instant. Bethune and St. Venant are to be evacuated on the same Day. Furnes and Aire on the 1st of June; Charleroy, Ypres and Lisle on the 4th. The Day is not yet appointed for the evacuation of Luxemburg, which will be made according to the Orders sent by the Court of France to the Marquis d'Imecourt, and the giving up of Nieuport is deferr'd till the States General send directions upon it to Count Tilly. The Magazines are to be transported out of the said Places within six Weeks, to commence from the 1st of June.

Paris, May 26. N. S. Yesterday Te Deum was Sung in the Cathedral Church of Notre Dame for the conclusion of the Peace. The Service was performed by the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbishop of Paris, The Chancellor of France, the President, the King's Council, the Government, and Communities of this City were likewise assisting at it. At Night there was a Firework erected before the Hostel de Ville, and an Entertainment made by the Duke of Tresmes, Governor of the City, at which the Duke of Shrewsbury, Her Majesty's Ambassador, and several of the British Nobility were present. All other demonstrations of universal Joy were shewn upon this occasion.

Utrecht, May 30. N. S. On the 25th the Prussian Ministers received advice, that the Troops of the King their Master, had taken Possession of that part of the Upper Quarter of Guelderland which is allotted them by the Treaty of Peace. Count Stadian, who resided here on the Part of the Elector of Mayence, having received his Letters of Revocation, set out for Germany on the 27th, and it is said he will be followed in a few Days by other Ministers of the Empire. On the 28th the Earl of Strafford returned from Amsterdam, where he had been for a few Days. Yesterday Morning Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries were in Conference with those of France at Marechal d'Uxelle's House. In the Evening the Duke d'Ossuna gave a magnificent Ball and Entertainment to the Ministers and other Persons of Distinction residing here. This Day the Plenipotentiaries of France and the States General, had a long Conference with those of Her Majesty, soon after which the French dispatch'd a Courier to their Court.

Brussels, June 1. N. S. On the 29th past, Brigadier Chambery, with five Battalions of the Troops of the States General, took Possession of the Town and Castle of Namure. The French left the same quantity of Artillery and Ammunition, as they found in the Place at their entering it upon the Death of King Charles II. of Spain. Messieurs Fraula and Servati, two Counsellors of Finances, and Monsieur Castillon, Secretary of Commerce, are appointed by the Council of State to confer with the Commissary of Her Majesty and the States General at Utrecht; in relation to the Trade of the Spanish Netherlands. The Duke of Mountagu arrived here some Days ago from Great Britain, and is since gone to Aix la Chapelle.

Whitehall, May 25. Her Majesty hath been pleased to confer the Dignity of a Baronet upon Raufe Freke of West Bilney in the County of Norfolk, Esq;

Whereas the Correspondence between Great Britain and Portugal has, during the War, been carried on Weekly by the Falmouth Packet Boats, These are to give notice, That the said Intercourse will be carried on, only once a Fortnight, from and after Tuesday the 2d of June next, when the Letters for Portugal will be dispatch'd, as usual, from the General Post Office, and afterwards on every other Tuesday following.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at Merchant Taylors Hall in Threadneedle Street, London, on Thursday the 28th Instant, at 11 of the Clock in the Forenoon, to receive a Report from the Committee for Inspecting the By Laws.

Navy-Office, May 18, 1713.

The passing the Accounts of the late Treasurers of the Navy as well as of the present Treasurer, being carried on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be; it is recommended now again (as has been several times before) to such Persons as have had any Bills assigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not yet received their Money for the said Bills, forthwith to call for the same: And all Persons who have any Imprests standing out against them, and no Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the said Imprests, are advised to bring in their Bills or Accounts with all possible speed to discharge them, that so the said Imprests may not be brought to account, and return'd into the Exchequer, as otherwise they will be; and set in Super upon them at that Place. Likewise such Persons as have passed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Imprests, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the aforesaid Treasurer's Officers, and to take up their Imprests.
