From Tuesday June 30. to Saturday July 4. 1713

Kensington, June 30.

THE following Address from the Borough of Southwark, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir George Matthews, Kt. one of their Representatives in Parliament, attended by Richard Oldner, Samuel Rush, George Maggott and Richard Jones, Esquires; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surry.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Inhabitants within the Lieutenancy of the Borough of Southwark.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

THE Glories of Your Majesty's Arms have been so great, that nothing could make them more but Peace: An Observation which we are sensible would be unnecessary, were there not some few of our Fellow Subjects who seem to be of Opinion, that War is still preferable.

But an happy and honourable Peace being now obtained by Your Majesty's unexampled Wisdom and Piety; we Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg leave to return our most humble Thanks.

In this Joy and Gratitude, all Your Subjects concur, except those who are either deluded themselves, or make it their Business to delude others.

But it is no wonder that those Men should delight in War, whose Crimes must necessarily be exposed by Peace; or that the same Persons should repine at the Prosperity of their Country, who have raised vast Fortunes to themselves, by well-nigh effecting its Ruin.

That the Designs of so malicious and restless a Faction are disappointed, is owing next to GOD and Your Majesty, to Your wise and faithful Counsellors.

May You always be served by such a Ministry, and very many Tears enjoy the Blessings You have procur'd. For as we return Your Majesty our most hearty and humble Thanks for Your particular and extraordinary Care, in securing the Protestant Succession, and for maintaining an entire Friendship with the most illustrious House of Hanover; so we desire, with the most ardent Wishes, that it may be very long before any Succession actually take Place.

And as a Mark of Her Royal Favour, Her Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Richard Oldner Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Surry.

The following Address from the County of Cambridge, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right

Hon. the Lord North and Grey, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of your County of Cambridge.

WE Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects beg leave, with all Zeal and Loyalty of Heart, to Congratulate Your most Sacred Majesty, that You have given Peace to Europe.

The many Glorious Victories that Your Arms have won, which gave us frequent Occasions to approach Your Royal Presence, were burthensome and Expensive till the end was obtain'd for which You fought, a good and, we hope, a lasting Peace. But Heaven has at last put it in Your Majesty's Power to shew Mercy to them who were Your Enemies, and to Bless Your Subjects.

We therefore hope that all Enmities will be concluded with the War, that Englishmen may not be less Friends to one another than Strangers; that the Constitution will be unattempted now there's no more War abroad.

We rely entirely on Your Majesty as to the Protestant Succession, for it seems impossible to us, that so pious a Princess can ever give Subjects over into Popish Hands: But give us, Madam, leave to rejoice, that notwithstanding ill Endeavours, there is a perfect Friendship with the illustrious House of Hanover. Late, very late, may that Succession take place; may Your Tears be proportionable to the Glories of Your Reign; and may Heaven, for the good of this World, as long as possible, defer Your Beatitude in the next.

The following Address from the Corporation of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, was presented to Her Majesty by Richard Wynne, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Clergy, Gentry, Burgesses and other the Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WHILST distressed Nations abroad, made happy by Your triumphing Arms and Councils, are blessing Your Majesty as their glorious Deliverer (under GOD) from War, Oppression and Misery: Whilst at home every Corner of Your wide Dominions are, in the most dutiful manner, proclaiming aloud their mighty Joy, to see themselves at length released from the Toils and Burthen of a War,
