

Venice, July 28. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony, who has been here for some time Incognito, appears now in publick; whereupon the Senate have appointed four of their Members to wait upon him, and he is to be entertained with a Race of Boats, and several other Diversions. Signor Foscarei is elected by the great Council Proveditor of the Navy, in the room of Signor Gradenigo, whose time of serving in that Employment is expired. Several German Regiments are marching through the Veronese into Tirol. They write from Rome, that the Pope had held an extraordinary Meeting of the Inquisition, and had declared the Cardinals Imperiali, Casini, and Albani, Members of that Tribunal. A Monitorio and Sentence of Excommunication had been fixed up in the usual Places against some of the Duke of Savoy's Ministers, who had acted contrary to those of the Pope, in a Dispute relating to an Abbey in Piedmont. It was resolved to begin to build the Vestry of St. Peter's Church, and a considerable Sum of Money was ready for that purpose. Letters from Naples bring an Account, that the Spanish Soldiers, who had refused to take the Oath to the Emperor, were confined till there should be an opportunity of embarking them for Spain.

Madrid, July 31. N. S. The Count de Montejó, who brought the Treaty of Peace between Great Britain and this Crown, has been very favourably received at Court, and it is said his Majesty will constitute him a Gentleman of his Bedchamber. The Duke d'Arcos is banish'd Twenty Leagues from hence, during the King's Pleasure, for having insulted an Officer of Justice. The Bishop of Cahorra is sent for to Court, as is thought in order to be Tutor to the Prince of Asturias. The Spanish Army under the Command of the Duke de Popoli arrived on the 20th at Igualada, and decamped from thence on the 23d, in order to go by little Marches to Barcelona, to give time to the French Troops to join them. General Nebot, who was sent by the Catalans with a Thousand Miquelets and Voluntiers to seize some Passes, has been defeated by a Detachment commanded by Don Diego Gonzalás, in which Action One hundred and fifty of the Miquelets were killed, Two hundred taken Prisoners, and the rest retired to Barcelona.

Copenhagen, August 9. N. S. Some Days ago an Express arrived here by Sea with advice, that the Muscovites and Saxons had made a Descent in the Isle of Rugen. The Swedish Troops, after a little Resistance retir'd, part to Stralsund, and the rest to some small Forts in the Island, taking with them two or three Saxon Officers that had advanced too far from their Army, in order to make Discoveries in the Country. We have since received an account, that the Confederates had landed more Men there, and made themselves Masters of the whole Island. After which, they resolv'd to lay Siege to Stralsund, and it was thought they would take it in a Fortnight after the Artillery arrived. We are inform'd by some Merchant Ships which came into the Sound Yesterday, that the Swedish Squadron, consisting of Twelve Sail, lay under Bornholm: That of the Danes, consisting of Fourteen Sail, was at a considerable distance from it, and the Wind was then contrary for them to get up to the Swedes; but it being since chang'd, we may expect to hear of an Action between them in a short time. They write from Stockholm, that the Muscovites in Finland were advanced no further than Borgo, by the means of which Place they had a free Communication to Wybourg by Sea and Land. The Swedes thought they should be strong enough to maintain what they were still in Possession of in that Country, against the Force the Muscovites then had, but it was said the Czar intended to make another Transportation of Eight or Nine thousand Men, half of which were to be Cavalry, and in that Case it was believ'd he would make himself Master of the whole Dutchy.
