

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 12 to Tuesday December 15. 1713.

Dublin, December 1.

THE humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, to His Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, do, with great Satisfaction, attend Your Grace, to return Our most humble Thanks for Your excellent Speech from the Throne, and to Congratulate You upon the considerable Part Your Grace has had in the late Safe and Honourable Peace; which We are persuaded will derive many Benefits and Advantages to this Kingdom, under Her Majesty's happy Government, and Your Grace's wise Administration.

We are fully convinced, That the Preservation of Our CHURCH by Law established, Our Rights and Liberties, doth under GOD, intirely depend on the Securing the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover.

As the best Means of preserving these Blessings to Us, We shall use Our utmost Endeavours to disappoint the Treacherous Designs of the Papists on one Hand, and the bold Encroachments of the Dissenters on the other, some of whose Leading Teachers, We beg leave to acquaint Your Grace, refuse to take The Oath of Abjuration; and yet, in Defiance of the Law, preach in Publick before numerous Assemblies.

We are perfectly satisfied, That Your Grace has nothing more at Heart than the good of this Kingdom, and that no Person is more capable of Promoting it than Your Grace, from the Knowledge We have of Your great Abilities, and the Integrity You have always shewn, in the many eminent Trusts Your Grace has Discharged under the Crown, in the Service of Your Country.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the said Address.

My Lords,

I Return Your Lordships Thanks for Your kind Address: I shall always be ready to promote the Interest of this Kingdom, and Concur in any thing to Support Our Church as Establish'd by Law, against the Designs of Papists, or the Encroachments of any others whatsoever.

To his Grace, Charles Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant, General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament Assembled,

May it please your Grace,

WE Her Majesty's most Faithful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament Assembled, do joyfully present our selves before your Grace, to return our most humble and hearty Thanks, for your Excellent Speech deliver'd from the Throne to both Houses of Parliament.

We are sensible we lie under the highest Obligations to Her Majesty, for the Continuance of Her Royal Favour to us through the whole Course of Her Glorious Reign, for the Assurances She has been pleased to give us, by your Grace's Speech, and for the eminent Mark of Her Goodness to us, in placing you in the Government of this Kingdom.

The many and important Trusts and Employments which Her Majesty hath conferred upon you, are the just Rewards of your Wisdom and Fidelity; and to compleat your Grace's Character, you have been also, in a most eminent Manner, instrumental in bringing about the Glorious Revolution in Sixteen hundred eighty eight; to which, under God, we owe the Preservation of our Religion, Liberties and Properties (in defence of which we are resolved to venture all that is most dear to us) and have since continued to act with the same sincere Regard to Interests of the Church, and Prerogative of the Crown, and Liberty of the Subject, as you did then when you appear'd so seasonably in Defence of them all.

Your ardent Wishes for our Welfare and Prosperity, your Concern for our Preservation against the Attempts of the great Number of Papists in this Country; Your declaring Her Majesty's Royal Intentions, That the Troops which are paid by this Establishment shall be sent over; That the Monies given by Parliament, as much as is possible, shall be spent among our selves; and, That none of the Publick Treasure shall be misapplied, are so many powerful Motives to encourage your Grace to this Kingdom.

In dutiful Return for these Instances of Her Majesty's Royal Goodness, we beg Leave to assure Your Grace, That we will effectually Support Her Establishment, and provide for the Honour of the Government; That we will, on all Occasions, demonstrate our Zeal for the Safety and the Preservation of Her Majesty's Sacred Person and Authority, the Church of Ireland as by Law Establish'd, and the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover.

And we will endeavour, by our Temper, to deserve such a Representation of our Proceedings to Her Majesty, as may entitle us to the Continuance of Her Grace and Favour.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

Gentlemen,

I Am well pleased to find that what I have said to you is so much to your Satisfaction: I will take Care to represent to Her Majesty the Zeal you express for Her Service, and shall think my self Happy if I can promote the Prosperity and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Venice, December 1. N. S. The Magistrates of Health have reduced the Quarentine to be performed by all the Vessels coming from the Levant, and the Venetian Islands, to Twenty eight Days. Three British Ships, the Victory from Cartagena, the Trial from London, and the Rialton from Norway, are arrived here. The Spanish and Italian Troops in the Emperor's Service, continue their March through the Territories of this State towards Germany, having hitherto observ'd an exact Discipline,