St. James's, May 14.

AN humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Governours, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Frecholders of the Queen's County, assembled at a General Assizes held at Maryborough, having been tranfmitted from Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Warsaw, May 5. N. S. The Primate hath received an Answer to the last Letter he writ to King Augustus. His Majesty assures him, that tho' the Interests of his own Hereditary Dominions, which were to be debated at the Congress of Brunswick, required his Presence, he was nevertheless determined to return soon into Poland; That he had nothing more at Heart than to procure such a Peace for the Kingdom, as would leave it in a Condition to have the Saxon Troops withdrawn from thence without Danger to the Commonwealth: But that in the present conjuncture, while the Nation was perpetually alarm'd by the frequent Changes and Inconstancies of the Ottoman Port, it was by no means safe to recall those Forces, which the Republick had sent for, and maintained hitherto at a great Expence. We have received an account that on the 16th past, Monsieur Pocici was elected Marechal of the Tribunal of Lithuania. On the 17th the States of the Great Dutchy assembled, and agreed to send two Deputies to King Augustus, to desire he would convene a general Diet on Horseback, and to represent to him the Exactions of the Saxon Troops, which the Republick was resolv'd not to bear any longer. They have likewise sent three Deputies to the Czar, with Instructions to beg he will employ his Intercessions with the King to observe the Statutes of Lithuania, as he is obliged to do by his Coronation Oath, and consequently to withdraw the Saxon Forces, not only out of the Great Dutchy, but out of the whole Kingdom. Letters from Podolia confirm our former accounts, that the Turks were assembling a powerful Army near Chocim, and their Preparations give us the greater Uneasiness, as we have receiv'd advice from Constantinople, that the Rebellion in Asia is entirely quelled. A considerable Body of Cossacks is lately returned into Ukrain, upon which a Detachment of the Army of the Crown has been sent to drive them out of that Country.

Vienna, May 9. N. S. The Emperor continues still at Laxembourg, where he holds frequent Councils upon the present Situation of his Affairs. It is said, his Imperial Majesty will not return to this Place till towards the end of July, and that soon after his arrival here he will set out for Presbourg, in order to put an end to the Diet of the States of Hungary, which hath been assembled near two Years. Count Torrefini, Envoy of Guastalla, hath received an Express, with an Account, that on the 28th past the Duke his Master died of an Apoplexy, in the Eightieth Year of his Age. Yesterday Count Goes set out for Baden, and Count Seilern intends to follow him very soon. Count Wrattlaw is arrived here from Prague, and General Mercy from Lorrain. It is said, the Imperial Troops, which are now in Bavaria, will be sent into Hungary, and that those in the Diocese of Hildesheim are to march towards Philipsbourg. Letters from Constantinople bring an account, that the Turks continued their warlike Preparations both by Sea and Land, which hath given great Uneasiness to the neighbouring Princes and States. The same Advices add, that the King of Sweden had at last resolved to return home through the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions, and that King Stanilaus would retire into France.

Berlin, May 12. N. S. The King continues still at Potsdam, from whence he is expected in a Day or two in this City. His Majesty intends to set out soon for Cleves, and Baron Herteveld is already gone before, in order to prepare Matters for his Reception. Baron Spar continues to hold frequent Conferences with the Ministers of this Court, but it is not yet known upon what Subject. The Regiments of Horse of the Margrave Lewis and Brigadier Blankenheim, are ordered to hasten their March from the Rhine towards this Country. Monsieur Achenback, formerly the King's Secretary at the Hague and at Utrecht, is appointed to be his Resident at the Court of Muscovy. It is said his Majesty hath resolved to publish an Edict, declaring, that he hath quite compleated his Levies, and those who retired out of this Country for fear of being press'd into the Service, shall be pardon'd if they will return to their Houses.

Brussels, May 20. N. S. Monsieur Pestere, the Dutch Intendant, is lately gone from hence, in order to adjust some Accounts of the Contributions raised the last War in the Districts of Metz and Cologne, with the Intendants of France and Prussia at those Places. Last Week Major General Sabine came hither from Gand, and Brigadier Sutton from Bruges, to desire the Regency would send Directions to the States of Flanders to regulate the Quarters of those Garrisons upon the foot of the preceding Summers, which they have accordingly obtained, and intend to return in a few Days to their respective Commands. Letters from Madrid bring an Account, that the Court of Spain was resolved to carry on the Siege of Barcelona with the utmost Vigour, and to that end the French Troops were order'd to hasten their March.

Hague, May 22. N. S. The Marquis de Monteleone hath been frequently of late in Conference with the Earl of Strafford, upon the Treaties still depending between the Crowns of Spain and Portugal, as also between his Catholick Majesty and this Republick. Yesterday the States sent an Express to the Duke d'Osuna at Utrecht, with an Answer to a Letter they received some time ago from the King of Spain, notifying the Death of his Queen. They have likewise sent the most Christian King a Compliment of Condolence upon the Death of the Duke of Berry. Last Night Mr. Harley arrived here from Hanover, and intends to embark for Great Britain in a few Days.

Paris, May 23. N. S. On the 21st Count Peron, Ambassador in Ordinary from the King of Sicily, made his Publick Entry here with great magnificence.

Mareschal Villars is elected a Member of the French Academy, in the room of the late Bishop of Senlis. Some Days ago Count Bergeick arrived here from Madrid, and the Princess of Ursins likewise expected very soon in this City. A Merchant write from Genoa, that the Baron St. Marc, a Frenchman, who was confined in the Castle of Genoa, had found means to get out of Prison, and was escaped to Leghorn, disguised in the Habit of a Sailor. The Regency of Milan had received Orders from the Court of Vienna to raise two new Regiments, one of Horse, and another of Foot.
